

Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 26, 2019

Prayer of our Parish Family for the week:

Please pray this prayer daily throughout the week

Lord our God,
Rejoicing in the splendor of your love, we give you thanks for many blessings.
In a special way, we thank you for the many moments of grace and wisdom and joy you have shared with us throughout this past school year.
May the summer months we approach be blessed by our presence and restful peace.
May the inspiration of the students who have labored this past academic year continue to inspire us all to continue growing, learning and rejoicing in your love.
Continue to bless our parish, Lord, this home in which we all learn from you.
Through Christ our Lord.
Holy Mary, Queen of our Parish, pray for us. Amen.

It is, of course, more than just a day for barbeques and sales, more than just the first weekend of summer vacation; it is a time to pause and remember those who gave their lives for our nation. This is our obligation and duty as citizen of this nation.

Not simply to pause and to honor them, important as this may be, but also to teach the lessons. Please make sure, if even for a moment, that your children and grandchildren know the meaning of Memorial Day, that the sacred legacy of honoring those who have died for us might always sanctify our land. God grant them the peace the world cannot give.

Just a Thought

So, what do May showers bring?
