Acts of the Apostles 10:34a, 37-43

Colossians 3:1-4

John 20:1-9

My dear parishioners,

I am writing my letter to you this week early in the morning of March 25 just nine months before Christmas. This is the day we celebrate the conception of Jesus in the womb of Mary in Nazareth; the Feast of the Annunciation. By Mary's accepting the invitation of God through the Archangel Gabriel we are told in the Gospel of St. John — "The Word became Flesh." Words are our means of communication—this is the ultimate communication of love from God to us.

How very important it is for us to continue to be open and welcoming of the ongoing communication from our God! I hope and pray that you have made good use of the publication "the Word Among Us" throughout Lent. Next week the next issue will be available at the entrances; or you might want to subscribe and have it sent to your home or access it online. Keeping a few sentences of the Sacred Scriptures before our eyes every day puts us in the same open spirit that Mary had. Jesus so much wants to be close to us.

Also at all the entrances this week is a free sample of "Give Us This Day", a beautiful and easy to use publication that puts all of the liturgical readings and inspiring reflections within easy reach. It will be especially useful this coming week that we call Holy.

If you want to grow in holiness then allow the worship rhythm of the Liturgical Year to attract you closer and closer to Jesus, Mary and our heroes the saints. The very center of it all is the Sacred Triduum, Holy Thursday, 7 pm; Good Friday, stations at noon and 7 pm; and Easter—the Great Vigil at 7:30 Saturday and 8:30 & 11 on Sunday. Thursday the washing of the feet, institution of the Eucharist, Friday walking with Jesus to Calvary and venerating the Cross, the Vigil going from darkness and following the Paschal Candle to the light of hope and new life.

I can't stress enough how essential it is to absorb the meaning and catch the spirit of these days if you are to really understand what it means to believe, to live by faith.

Our faith is often under attack and opposed. Sadly many have become indifferent to their relationship with Jesus and their trust in God. I fear for their eternal salvation. Please don't let this happen to you.

In some parts of the world our fellow Christians are suffering violent persecution. Let us pray for them and each other. Your sacrificial offering at Good Friday will help express our solidarity with them and ease their suffering.

I love being your pastor. People who love one another like being together. Let's spend the ultimate quality time together this week.

Let us continue to love one another,

Fr. Roy

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The news about the Middle East has been bleak over this past year. During this Holy Week we are challenged by the Scriptures to see the light of hope amidst darkness and despair. How have we responded as disciples of Christ to follow in his footsteps? Holy Week is about finding hope from despair and, as Pope Francis reminds us, "Let us become bearers of hope."

Christians living in the Holy Land struggle to live their faith and to be stewards of the sacred places as Christians arrive in pilgrimage day after day. Schools and parishes are signs of peace and hope as they conduct pastoral ministries, including religious formation and education. Shrines in Bethlehem, Nazareth, Jerusalem and many other locations welcome Christian pilgrims, as well as provide housing and food for the poor.

Catholics worldwide are being invited by Pope Francis to support our brothers and sisters in the Holy Land by making a donation to the Good Friday Collection. Keeping Christianity alive in the Holy Land is the urgent goal of the Church. In fact, the call to support the community in the Holy Land dates back to the days of St. Paul when he called upon various communities to support their brothers and sisters in Jerusalem.

Please be generous in this year's Good Friday collection in your parish. Visit www.myfranciscan.org to learn more about the good work made possible thanks to your response to this pontifical collection.

May God continue to bless you during this Holy Season.

With every prayerful best wish, I remain Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Robert J. McManus Bishop of Worcester

Palm Sunday

"Pilate again said to them, 'Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?' And they cried out again, 'Crucify him.'" (MARK 15:12-13)
Jesus told us "whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me." Every day we are presented opportunities to help someone. Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others. Pray for the courage to stand up for those in need of our help.

The St. Vincent dePaul Society
Mother's Day Gift Bags

As Mother's Day approaches this May, our thoughts go out to all mothers for their unconditional love. There are however homeless mothers in our midst that do not have contact with family for various reasons. We do need to remember all mothers. There will be containers at the doors of the church. If you could please buy a personal product such as nail polish, shampoo, deodorant, perfume, etc. We will take these items and create "Mother's Day" gift bags and deliver them. This drive is for the month of April.

Meet Fr. Joe— Answering the call with compassion

For Gary and Susan Pickering, Fr. Joe Mazzone is more than a pastor—he is family.

Like so many priests in our Archdiocese, Fr. Joe has been a source of strength and support, helping others find Christ's presence in times of joy and sorrow. When Gary and Susan's daughter Marcy passed away unexpectedly during surgery, Fr. Joe was the first person they called. Marcy had been a close friend of Fr. Joe's, and her faith life had blossomed with his help through challenging times in her life. Fr. Joe was there for the Pickerings as they said goodbye to their beloved Marcy then, and he remains by their side today. Together, they continue to grow in faith and friendship, confident that they will be reunited with Marcy again, and grateful for the hope they receive through each other in Christ Jesus.

Our priests are there for us and our families without question or hesitation. Please consider showing your gratitude by supporting your parish collection this Easter.

Thank you for helping to ensure a continuum of care and quality of life for all our active and senior priests.

“Support your priests with your love and prayers, that they may always be shepherds after Christ’s heart.”

- Pope Francis
