Exodus 24:3-8
 Hebrews 9:11-15
 Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

My Dear Parishioners,

I am sure that you will join me in welcoming our seminarian, Joseph Rice who will be with us for the summer. Joe is at St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore and will be speaking briefly at the Masses this weekend introducing himself. I am certain that St. Roch's is a good place for a young man to be who is discerning his vocation as a priest. I know that Fr. Albert and I are looking forward to having Joe living with us in the rectory. You too can invite him into your homes.

This is happening on Trinity Sunday which when I was first ordained I found to be a most challenging topic to preach on. That was until the great pope, St. John Paul in his Theology of the Body helped me to see that us men and women who are created in the likeness of God are fashioned so as to make a donation of ourselves to the other. At our core we are all called to live in a community of self-giving love. Basically in the natural order as husband and wife committed to each other and then in the family which is a product of their love. God's plan is awesome. The two becoming one flesh and this creating new life. Into this tri-fold community of mother, father, children (the family) let us always be open to the powerful presence of the Most Holy Trinity.

At the end of the Easter Season we have the three-fold celebrations over the Sundays of Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, and now next week Corpus Christi Sunday. Next week with the whole church we focus on the enormous gift-of-self that we treasure as the Body and Blood of Christ. It is impossible to imagine what our Catholic faith would be like without the Eucharist.

The second celebration of the Eucharist that is given in the Gospel of St. Luke is my favorite scripture passage, the Support at Emmaus. Following this letter is a most beautiful reflection on this scene given by St. John Paul II. Again this year I would like to keep the traditional way this Sunday is observed in most of the world with a brief procession. After the 11 am Mass we will place the Blessed Sacrament in the monstrance and walk up to our parish field for Benediction. Returning to the church a pot luck lunch will be enjoyed in the hall. Particularly the First Communion class in their special clothes and the Confirmation class are asked to participate.

Our faith in the God who took flesh in order to become our companion along the way needs to be welcomed everywhere especially in those places where we carry on our daily lives, in our streets and homes. This is how we show our sincere gratitude and open ourselves to His inexhaustible blessings. Plan on joining us.

Let us continue to love one another,

Fr. Roy

St. John Paul and Emmaus

"Stay with us Lord, it is almost evening." Lk 24:29 This was the insistent invitation that the two disciples journeying to Emmaus on the evening of the day of the resurrection addressed to the Wayfarer (Jesus) who had accompanied them on their journey. Weighed down with sadness, they never imagined that this stranger was none other than their Master, risen from the dead. Yet they felt their hearts burning within them as he spoke to them and "explained" the Scriptures. The light of the Word unlocked the hardness of their hearts and 'opened their eyes.' Amid the shadows of the passing day and the darkness that clouded their spirit, the Wayfarer (Jesus) brought a ray of light which rekindled their hope and led their hearts to yearn for the fullness of light. "Stay with us", they pleaded. And He agreed. Soon afterwards Jesus' face would disappear, yet the Master would 'stay' with them, hidden in the 'breaking of the bread' which had opened their eyes to recognize Him."

You will have the opportunity to purchase additional portraits at your session.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We live in a world that relies more and more on access to news and information at our fingertips, from smartphones to portable computers – and now even on watches! No one understands better how media can be an opportunity to carry out our mission as the Catholic Church than our Holy Father, Pope Francis. His embracing all forms of media to deliver his message has enabled him to capture the attention and imagination of the world and we are all beneficiaries of his efforts. In turn, he encourages all local dioceses, parishes and Catholic institutions to do the same.

This June, I invite you to contribute directly to our Catholic Communications Campaign which supports the delivery of the Daily Mass, devotional and informational programming, and other special events through various media including cable TV, radio, media relations, streaming videos, websites on the internet and social media. Part of your donation supports our local efforts through the Office of Communications/TV Ministry. The remainder supports national efforts on behalf of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, including this year's significant media support for the papal visits to New York City and the UN, Washington, D.C. and the World Meeting of Families in Philadelphia.

Last Sunday, the Church celebrated Pentecost during which we heard how sharing the Good News effectively was empowered by the Holy Spirit, as the apostles proclaimed the message of Christ's resurrection to all who gathered, regardless of their native tongue. By baptism all believers have been commissioned to share that Good News of salvation. In the days of the apostles this good News was preached in the public square; today that forum is "virtual" as much as face-to-face. We must be vigilant in adopting any and all available means to share the message of God's love for all people, following the example of our Holy Father.

Please give generously to the Catholic Communications Campaign to be taken up at all Masses on June 6 & 7. If you would like to learn more about how we are utilizing your donations I invite you to visit www.worcesterdiocese.org.

With every prayerful best wish, I remain
Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert J. McManus, Bishop of Worcester
