SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. - Mk 9:2-3

LITURGICAL LIFE

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading

God's request of Abraham to sacrifice his beloved son Isaac seems cruel from our modern perspective. Yet Abraham's obedience rendered divine blessings. Do you think you have such depth of faith?

Second Reading

Paul tries to reassure the Christians in Rome of God's divine providence in our lives. As we continue the Lenten journey, can you recall when have you felt God's protection and comfort?

Gospel Reading

We hear Mark's account of the apostles' witness of the transfiguration of Jesus. How difficult do you think it was for them not to share this event with anyone until after Jesus rose from the dead?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A pregnant woman was walking in the store and met an old friend. Her friend exclaimed, "You are absolutely beaming!" The new life God placed in her womb radiated throughout her body. It was brightly visible on her face and in her eyes. Transformation and change usually happen from the inside out. It is very rare that simply imposing structure from the outside does any good. Yes, it is true that routines and habits can change when things are done differently. But, for this change to last there has to be an interior renewal and metamorphosis as well. Simply regulating behavior and bringing someone into conformity with accepted protocols doesn't mean their heart and soul come with them.

Peter was a homeless man who lived in a very remote and rudimentary tent community. He was happy to make his daily trip to McDonald's and always welcomed a gift card or two so that he could buy some coffee and something to eat. A generous advocate worked to secure him an apartment in hopes of moving Peter out of his makeshift housing and into something safer. Peter finally got the grand tour of his new "digs," received his own key, remarked how wonderful the place was, closed the door behind him when they left and never returned. He preferred his tent. No matter how much things changed on the outside, Peter was happy where he was. A poignant lesson was learned that day.

How is your Lent going? By now you ought to have a sense of whether you're really "into it" this year and something transformational is happening. For many, it's only the stuff on the outside that changes for a few weeks and then they return to business as usual. For others, there are some real inner changes happening that are deepening their relationships with God, others, self, and creation. If we are serious about moving to a new place and radiating with the presence of new life and joy, then we have to clear the way to listen for God's call. Then, there is God's request to change things up a bit and order our lives differently. After realizing we have been called and given a mission, we have to trust that this is where we need to be. And then, after all of this hard work we are asked to act. The fruit that is revealed will indicate whether our journey is authentic. The brilliance of conversion will begin to shine on our faces as we contemplate the One to whom we are asked to listen.

A Life-Changing Study for the Whole Parish!

Session One: Where Are You?

What are we to do with guilt? Should it be ignored, or does it present an opportunity we don't want to miss? The truth is, God seeks us out when we have sinned, not to scold or punish us, but to offer us his healing and his forgiveness. It's certainly true that God is omnipotent and just, but before all else he is our loving, merciful Father.

This week, login to formed.org and watch Forgiven, Session 1.

FORMED® THE CATHOLIC FAITH.
ON DEMAND.

"So, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew you out of my mouth,"
The Book of Revelation 3:16

Dear Friend,

And we're off! As you know, our Lenten pilgrimage got underway this week upon Ash Wednesday. There are few more sobering moments in life than the application of ash to our forehead – sprinkled or otherwise – and then those most ominous of words: "Remember that thou art dust, and unto dust thou shalt return".

Equally arresting, however, are the readings of the day: The Lord crying out in the prophecy of Joel, "Return to me with your whole heart." Saint Paul imploring with us "on behalf of Christ, be reconciled with God." Something isn't right, though, is it? We have been complaining for the past year that we want to get back to normal. Do we really want normal? I suppose that depends on what normal means. If our normal meant or means that we do not give our whole heart to God; if our normal meant or means that we are not reconciled to God; is that really the normal we want?

I suppose many of us would be content with that. However, as said, this is the week we are reminded that we are but dust. The precariousness of life and our normal way of life has been brought a bit more clearly to our attention. We often develop the habit of putting off to tomorrow what we really do not want to do today. Let not this "today" pass us by. Let us look full face into the dust that is placed upon us.

We know how difficult it is to change, to convert, to be reconciled. In fact, it is not something within our abilities. Rather, any real conversion is the work of the Holy Spirit within us. We can, however, open our hearts to that bountiful action of the Holy Spirit or we can simply seek the "normal." Jesus is calling upon us to give alms and to pray and to fast, things we have done many times and perhaps each Lenten season. However, he wants us to do these things not in our normal way but in a new way — to do them for the Father. After all, our aim is to be reconciled to the Father.

Sisters and brothers, let this Lent not be a "normal" Lent, but an extraordinary, grace-filled Lent. Let the Spirit reign in our lives and make this Lent anything but normal. God bless you. Assuring you of my prayers, I am sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Earl, Bishop of Lansing

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

How is your Lent going so far? In changing the circumstances and order of our lives a bit, perhaps we can hear God's voice more clearly and drink more deeply of graced moments we experience. Having God as a friend always involves several things. First, there is God's call. We become attuned to the echo of God's voice in the depth of our souls calling and beckoning us to listen. Second, there is a request. We begin to see that God asks us to do certain things, to order our lives a particular way, and become more intentional in the choices we make. Third, there is trust. Do we trust this call and request? Trust commits us to the relationship and makes a claim on who we are. Finally, we are asked to act. We find ourselves acting, not in the way we used to, but in a transformed, more enlightened way. Things seem clearer and all that is around us shines with the brilliance of God's presence. God's call came through a cloud, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him," This is the call and the request. Can we give God our trust and do as God asks?
