Fifth Sunday of Easter, Year B, April 29th, 2018. Bulletin No: 1213.

The greatest mistake is in not being aware that others are Christ. There are very many people who will not discover it until their last day.

— Nguyễn Văn Thuận —

Much of Archbishop Văn Thuận's holiness can be traced to that harrowing experience in a Vietnamese jail in the 1970s and 1980s. He once said of his confinement that he was happy there, as it was God's turn to speak and for him to listen. He also devised the following "10 Rules of Life":

"I will live the present moment to the fullest."

"I will discern between God and God's works."

"I will hold firmly to one secret: prayer."

"I will see in the holy Eucharist my only power."

"I will have only one wisdom: the science of the cross."

"I will remain faithful to my mission in the Church and for the Church as a witness of Jesus Christ."

"I will seek the peace the world cannot give."

"I will carry out a revolution by renewal in the Holy Spirit."

"I will speak one language and wear one uniform: charity."

"I will have one very special love: the Blessed Virgin Mary."

The cause for the beatification of Cardinal Văn Thuận opened in 2007. Benedict XVI expressed his "profound joy" at the announcement, as did Catholics in Vietnam, who consider him "an example of holiness for the Catholics of Vietnam and the entire world."

To find out more or if you have a query contact the Office for Evangelisation and Ecumenism via email - evangelisation@dublindiocese.ie

We congratulate all the young people who were Confirmed in our Church last Thursday. Thanks to their teachers and parents and all those who worked to make the day so special. May the Holy Spirit guide them.

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week.

Are you going through something difficult at the moment? Perhaps you just can't seem to find God in the day to day. 'Where I found God today', is an online resource that encourages the Ignatian practice of finding 'God in all things'. It is a great way to discover where other people have found God, and a place to share your own experience. Access this, and other rich online spiritual resources, on www.NewPilgrimPath.ie

Jane Houston Almqvist 1927-2018

There is an association, called the Philangeli, which specialises in spreading knowledge of the angels and devotion to them. Its principal centre is with the Salvatorians in the UK.

During the 1980's Fr. Jim Bradley SDS commissioned work on what was to become known as the 'Angel Chapel' in the left Transept of the Church. The gates were designed by the Sculptor Imogen Stuart.

Jane Almqvist was a textile artist (a was a founder member of the Irish Patchwork Society and famous for her work to revive the Irish white embroidery known as Mountmellick Work). She created the very lovely wall hanging in the Angel's Chapel. Jane died recently on the 7th of April, may her gentle soul rest in peace. The love of her life, Paddy McElroy, RIP was the artist who made the gates and all the beautiful metal work for the Altar of the Angels Chapel. The candle sticks which we now use on the Church's main altar were also made by him.

"There is nothing to be gained by denying the truth that our lives begin at conception. What we have learned about our development in the womb will only be added to in the years ahead, but we already know enough. However, regrettably, the abortion debate is not really about biology. Everyone knows that life has begun. The question is whether it is right to deliberately stop that life being born. Once we deny the right to life of the unborn, we can no longer defend ourselves from what flows from an abortion culture"

Excerpt from the pastoral message of Bishop Denis Nulty of Kildare and Leighlin.
