2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER

FIRST READING: Acts 2:42-47

SECOND READING: 1 Peter 1:3-9

GOSPEL: John 20:19-31

Reflection: What words or phrases jumped out at you during the Liturgy of the Word on Sunday? What connection do those words or phrases have to your day-to-day life? (Why do you think they jumped out at you?) What might God be trying to say to you through these words or phrases? What response should you make? What action should you take?

Alternative: Share about/reflect upon what you think is the primary message of the Gospel. How do you live your life in a manner that shows you believe this? What do you need to let go of, in your life, to live what you believe more perfectly? How can you proclaim this Gospel by the manner in which you live your life?

FROM THE PASTOR

Gospel: John 20:19-31

20:21-22

This is the commissioning in John’s Gospel account. It has the same elements of the “Great Commission” of Matthew’s Gospel, the disciples are sent to do a job, and they are given the power to do it by the giving of the Holy Spirit.

In Matthew they are given the task of making disciples and he empowers them by telling them that He will continue to be with them (Mt 28:19-20). In Mark’s Gospel they are simply told to go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel (good news) to every creature (Mk 16:15). Mark doesn’t relate here that the Holy Spirit will guide their proclamation, but he already told them that the Spirit will give them the words to say (Mk 13:11). In the Gospel of Luke, the disciples are told that they are witnesses of how Jesus fulfilled the promises of the Hebrew Scriptures and were told to wait in Jerusalem for the power from on high, the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (Luke 24:48-49).

In John’s Gospel, the job we are given is to bring God’s forgiveness to the world. I know, it also says that we can retain sins, but what do you think God wants. It seems to me that people retain their own sins and our job is to show them the way out of that.

The Gospels, all four, are clear: we have a job to do and God will give us the tools to do it.

Why is the story of Thomas interwoven into the story of the commissioning? I think it is to demonstrate that God will give us whatever we need to empower us to be his missionaries. He is not a God who sits back and expects us to come to him. He seeks us out and relates to us wherever we are. And, God’s power is found in the community, the community we call Church.

I’m on the side of the Scripture scholars who say this story is an indication that the early Church gathered every Sunday. And, I believe the elements found in this story are found in our Sunday gatherings. We come to gather in support of each other, Jesus comes and makes himself present to us, he relates to us as individuals in the community; and, his interaction with us empowers us to carry out the commission he has given us.

Oh, and for those searching for purpose in life, this is the ultimate purpose. We were created for relationship and we were created for meaningful, fruitful, relationship. If, in our relationships, we carry out the mission Jesus gave us, our own lives are enriched and we experience the fullness of life, as much as we can on earth. The mission, by-the-way, can be stated in several different ways but the way that is most meaningful to me is to say our job is to bring God’s love to the small moments or our day-to-day lives. This fulfills the commission as it is stated in each of the Gospels; God’s love for us is the good news.

In His Service,

Fr. Ron

Gospel Meditation, Live the Liturgy & Catholic Traditions

LIVE THE LITURGY: INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Have you ever experienced awe? Awe is commonly defined as a feeling of reverential respect mixed with fear or wonder. A moment of awe has the ability to lift us up out of ourselves and immerse us into something that causes us to wonder about ourselves, the meaning of life, and truth. Awe is an experience of connection that links us to something that is beyond the normal happenings of life. For us who believe that the resurrected Christ is present in all of life and the totality of the universe, being touched by awe can lead us to exclaim, "My Lord and my God!"

Pondering the vastness of God's presence also brings us to a profound sense of God's mercy, which is the showering of His unconditional love on each of His daughters and sons. When we internalize this mystery, we may find ourselves standing in awe once again and feeling an intense sense of peace.

GOSPEL MEDITATION: ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Second Sunday of Easter / Divine Mercy Sunday April 19, 2020

A person was going through a very dark time, questioning the meaning of life, not feeling very purposeful or worthwhile, and feeling disconnected and unappreciated. Suddenly, they gazed up at the night sky, found themselves in awe of all the stars and constellations, and exclaimed, "I am here on purpose and I am loved!" Having been brought by God to this moment of intense connection and awareness, his life changed from that moment on.

If we are always preoccupied with the challenges, obligations, and stuff of daily life, we can easily miss the wonderful opportunities when the resurrected Christ is knocking at our door. If we open ourselves to the fullness of experience, we will find ourselves listening and embracing all that is around us, being caught up in the magnificence of creation's grandeur and knowing in our heart and soul that God is and I am.

While that sounds like a simple, tell-me-something-I-don't-know kind of revelation, it is life-changing when it takes root in the depth of a person's soul. Stumbling upon this awesome truth and internalizing it doesn't require an assent of the mind. It beckons for a claim on our soul. We find ourselves knowing something profound that cannot be explained or reasoned, but purely is. When we are caught up in an experience and encounter the truth, it doesn't matter how all of the pieces got put together. Truth is simply truth. The "my Lord and my God" responses we utter are not evoked because all of the pieces of faith and life make reasonable sense. The "my Lord and my God" affirmations come when we are lifted up out of our preoccupations and silliness and are in the presence of mystery and mercy.

God is mystery, one who is beyond our grasp but at the same time within our reach, knowable yet unknowable. And when in the presence of mystery, there comes an intense experience of mercy. We know deep within the essence of ourselves — and in the very life of creation — this beating, unconditionally accepting, life-sustaining, profound, mysterious yet familiar presence of love. We have found our peace. "Peace be with you." Breathe in and breathe out. Peace.

❖ This Week at St. Luke ❖

All Calendar Events have been cancelled until further notice.

If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers — the Divine Mercy Chaplet — and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world.

Her story and her diaries began circulating in Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young woman, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, “a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind with experience in the years to come.”

Parish Information

Question: What does it mean to discern a vocation?

Answer: The word vocation comes from the Latin word vocare, meaning "to call." A vocation is a calling or invitation from God to serve in a particular way. For Catholics, that calling might be as a priest, sister, or married person. Vocation is the way we respond to the invitation to share in God's grace and witness to God's love in the world.

Discerning a vocation is the process in which we pray for God's guidance. We listen for God's message that is often quiet and unassuming in a world filled with noise and distractions. We look at our gifts and talents, seek the advice of others, examine our motives, and listen to see what God is asking of us. The goal of discernment is to follow what the Lord wills, not what we think is the best idea. Many men enter a seminary to discern if that is their vocation, only to discover that their calling is to marriage. Others have resisted the idea for long periods of time, until finally they could resist no more. Some great saints have described that dilemma. Vocation is a human process of divine origin, and each of us must strive constantly to hear the call of God in our lives.

Please remember

RCIA candidates
in your prayers

We offer our blessings and prayers to our parish RCIA candidates as they affirm their intent to join the church. Lord, we ask you to bless your sons and daughters. Amen.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP—
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR
ORDINARY MOMENTS

Give Yourself Completely

The early days of the first Christian community were not easy by any measurement. Jesus had been executed, and his disciples had to be discreet so as not to meet a similar fate. Jesus was now risen, but the truth of his resurrection was not accepted by all. However, the depiction of that early community in Acts 2:42-47 would lead someone to believe it was the opposite situation. We are told of community life where people lean on each other and share great joy. They ate and prayed together, and many wonders and signs were occurring to lift the community and bear witness to the power of Jesus Christ. They were disciples living out their faith, and it was their strong sense of stewardship that made all this possible in the face of threatening Roman and Jewish powers.

Today, we find the Church in a new turmoil. Increasing secularism, abuse scandals, and a lack of true fidelity place us once again in a time that is not easy. A friend of mine likes to say that any challenge of sin we encounter in the Church has its origin in a lack or misunderstanding of the stewardship way of life. We create our burdens by not using our gifts wisely and by turning inward selfishly. Could we use the story in Acts of the early Church to help us today? If we begin with the decision to give of ourselves completely to God and His people, will we become agents of change? There is only one way to find out.
