Gospel

Jesus said to them,
“A prophet is not without honor
except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.”
(Mk 6:4)

Mission Statement

The Church of St. Luke is joyful, welcoming, caring, active family of believers striving to grow in knowledge of and love for God and each other. Challenged by the Word, nurtured by the Eucharist, and enlivened by the Spirit, we seek to live the message of Jesus in serving the needs of others both within our Parish and in the larger community.

14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING: EZRA 2:2-5

SECOND READING: 2 CORINTHIANS 12:7-10

GOSPEL: MARK 6:1-6A

First Reading: Today's reading is an excerpt from the prophetic call Ezekiel received while in exile in Babylon (Ez 1:1-3:27). The Lord commissioned Ezekiel to go and confront the “rebellious house” of Israel. How do you imagine the Israelites received Ezekiel's message?

Second Reading: Paul learned that the “thorn in his flesh” taught him to be humble and dependent upon God's grace alone. Where do you see God's grace most present in your life?

Gospel: Jesus was “amazed” at the lack of faith his fellow Nazareans had in him, suggesting Jesus expected a different response. Why do you think the villagers of Nazareth “took offense” at Jesus?

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

The Parish Pastoral Council normally meets on the third Tuesday of the month. Visitors/observers are welcome. If you wish to have an item placed on the agenda, contact a Council Member to present it for you, or contact the Parish Office.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it. The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, there's a magical artfulness and skill to their work that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through common things and ordinary people. Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life because that's just the way it is. What's so special about it? A sunset is a sunset and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event that is so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, then think again. When pondering God's relationship with His people and God's action in our lives, we have to go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run of the mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child and there wasn't anything extraordinary to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinary-ness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors and did normal human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but simply challenges us to take a different look at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope filled vision for our world from being realized. Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us either.

The Church of St. Luke welcomes all who seek to enrich their faith life and explore the possibility of becoming a Catholic Christian. Our community joyfully shares and celebrates this journey with them in "The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults"-RCIA.

This journey includes both a discernment process where we spend prayerful time contemplating the movement of the Holy Spirit in our lives and our response to that calling, as well as learning about the Catholic faith.

If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about what the Catholic faith - or perhaps you are an adult already baptized in the Catholic Church and are now wanting to become fully initiated - you are cordially invited to enter the RCIA process.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration for the Week

God never ceases to proclaim His Word. His life-giving presence continues to sustain all things and keep them in being regardless of whether there is the faith to receive or perceive Him. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be so hard of heart and obstinate that we fail to see what God is trying to do. While God remains ever present, faith is necessary for God's power to bear fruit. As we celebrate our country's independence, let us not forget the difference between liberties and freedom. While the liberties we have are most welcome treasures, only freedom from what blinds, deceives, and weighs us down can bring happiness. God is all about healing, transformation, and hope. In order for God to do what God does best, we have to invite Him in and see Him for who he is. Otherwise, God's will for humanity will be something at which we simply take offense, a common reaction when something challenges or unsettles us.

"IN MY DEEPEST
WOUND I SAW
YOUR GLORY AND IT DAZZLED ME."

ST. AUGUSTINE OF HIPPO

Why Do We Do That? Catholic Life Explained

Question: Do young children really need to go to Confession? How much sin can they really have?

Ask any mom about her children and see how many would say she has a brood of perfect angels! Parents know that kids do things that are wrong ... and often know they're doing it! Even toddlers have a sense of right and wrong. The Church recognizes that their minds and consciences are not yet fully developed, and typically waits until age seven to offer the sacrament of Confession. Around that age and beyond, most young people, when asked, can easily explain why something is wrong.

Confession for children is an excellent way to help them reflect on their actions and accept responsibility for their behavior. It helps them to grow in their understanding of sin and how it affects others. This helps them to form their consciences and make better choices in the future. Most importantly, they learn the value of forgiveness, both given and received. Rather than singling out what's wrong, Confession offers hope and a new start! Children can grow in understanding God's unconditional love and develop a sense of inner dignity that transcends their failings. Not bad for five minutes and an "Our Father" or two!

Special Letter and Message from Bishop McElroy on returning to Mass:

June 18, 2021

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

As Catholics, the Covid pandemic brought home to us in a powerful way two realities of our faith. The first is that in a world where we often place our priorities in the pursuit of happiness or security, it is the mercy and love of our God that is the true foundation for peace and fulfillment on our earthly pilgrimage. And the second is that we as human beings and as people of faith cannot exist in isolation and individuality, but need to participate in the communities that give richness and meaning to our lives.

It is these two realities that form the foundation for the Church's constant teaching that Catholics have an obligation to attend Mass on Sunday in order to worship God, integrate our faith into our daily lives and form communities centered upon the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Sunday is the day of Christ's Resurrection and central moment for us to gather as community and encounter the Sacrament of the Eucharist which makes present in our midst the mystery of Christ's passion, death and resurrection by which we have been redeemed.

During the heart of the pandemic, I joined with bishops throughout the world in dispensing the general obligation to attend Mass on Saturday night or Sunday because both public health and compassion for the well-founded fears of our people had demanded it. Now that the intensity of the danger of Covid has greatly diminished, it is time for our Catholic communities in San Diego and Imperial Counties to return to the full practice of attending weekly Eucharist. Thus as of July first, the deep moral obligation of Catholics to attend Mass on Saturday evening or Sunday will be restored.

I recognize that Covid has not completely passed, and that its effects linger in the lives of many faith-filled Catholics. For this reason, individual Catholics who are ill, have physical or emotional vulnerabilities which make Mass attendance difficult, or have fears about personal safety and social interaction will continue to be exempt from the obligation to attend Mass.

For us as people of faith, we have arrived at a moment when the full and active participation of the Catholic community in weekly worship must once again be a vibrant support for and witness to our discipleship in Christ. And for all that the Lord has given us, we rejoice.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Robert W. McElroy
