SR. JOYCE BLUM REFLECTION.... The Vatican released “THE PASTORAL ON CLIMATE DISPLACED PEOPLE”. Pope Francis invited us to action. The Leadership Council of Women Religious, seeing the border challenge, invited all the Catholic Sisters across the USA to focus on the work needed. We cannot ignore the suffering of Central American Families coming to our borders and fleeing devastation caused by floods and drought. We invited congregations of Sisters to send volunteers to minister in those migrant centers. Four of my LaCrosse Franciscans will leave now in April to minister on the Arizona/Mexico Border.

These first FSPAs will be stationed in Nogales, AZ for a few weeks to help in the children’s centers. We can all be united in this journey through prayer and almsgiving. There is hope because Christ has been raised to New Life. We will take a group possibly in June for a 2 – 3 weeks volunteer tour. We can all be IN THIS TOGETHER. There are daily resurrections when we truly see CHRIST AMONG US.

This is SPRINGTIME of our FAITH and of our WORK!
