"Every moment of prayer, especial before the Lord in the tabernacle, is a sure, positive gain. The time we spend each day sitting with God is the most precious part of the whole day."
Mother Teresa

Council of Catholic Women (CCW) Every adult woman of Holy Spirit Parish is a member of CCW. The yearly dues are $10 and are collected in October. Please label your envelope CCW and place them in the collection plate or send them to Barb Bennett, Treasurer, (1476 Eagle Ave., Creston, IA 50801). What does CCW do? CCW women serve many important functions in our parish including, helping with special events, providing food service for funerals, providing refreshments for meetings, remembering the sick and shut-ins, volunteering at the ReRun shop, and making quilts for the needy. We hope you will consider being an active member at Holy Spirit CCW. Please contact Phyllis Allen (515-493-9149).

Sincere Sympathy

Please pray for the eternal rest of Betty Fleming, Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord and let the perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the soul of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

Psychics and Mediums

Question:

Are Catholics allowed to visit psychics? Why or why not?

Answer:

It's part of human nature to experience some sense of unease and fear about the future. This can lead some people to seek out the services of psychics or consult horoscopes or turn to other occult practices or resources (e.g. Ouija boards or tarot cards). The Catechism of the Catholic Church is very clear that Catholics should avoid such practices: "Consulting horoscopes, astrology, palm reading, interpretation of omens and lots, the phenomena of clairvoyance, and recourse to mediums all conceal a desire for power over time, history, and, in the last analysis, other human beings, as well as a wish to conciliate hidden powers. They contradict the honor, respect, and loving fear that we owe to God alone" (no. 2116).

Despite the uncertainties we might feel, we are called to have faith and trust in God, confident of God's desire for what is best for us. This means that we are called to surrender, to pray and to reflect on how we can best move into the future in hope, knowing that God is with us. ©LPI

The Knights of Columbus appreciate everyone's support during the annual tootsie roll drive last week. Also thank you to all who participated in the collection and worked at the different locations around town!

Thank you cleaning crew!

Thank you to all who helped clean St. Edward's church last weekend. There was a small but mighty crew! Please welcome the new Summers family (Bill & Stephanie and their children) and Ally Lacina! There were other helpful hands, make sure to register for our weekly emails on www.uccat.org to see pictures of parish activities! Also, thank you to all who take, send, and share pictures of our parishioners or events to the parish office.

St. Edward Religious Education Update

We have one parishioner that has volunteered to help teach religious education. We hope to start classes next Wednesday.

World Mission Sunday, our annual worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions and missionaries of the world, will be celebrated on October 24 this year. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love, mercy, hope, and peace. There will be envelopes at the back of the church if you would like to donate.
