Romans 8:14

Please be at church 10 minutes before Mass begins. If you cannot be there, please find a substitute. Thank you! You can always find the ministry schedule on the cork board at the back of church!

Please prayerfully discern your gifts and time. Both Holy Spirit (HS) and St. Edward (SE) Parish Councils need members/leaders to reflect the cross-section of the people in the parish. Council members help advise Fr. Adam in the needs of the parish and help develop plans to respond to these needs. A term lasts 3 years. HS meets once a month (3rd Tuesday), except for July and December from 6:30-7:30 p.m. SE meets every other month (3rd Sunday after Mass). There is a copy of the Pastoral Council Guidelines at the back of the churches to help guide you on your discernment. Please contact Fr. Adam with questions.

TRINITY SUNDAY

God Doesn't Take a Break

An acquaintance who works in church ministry once told me a story about one of the students she had in Faith Formation. This student informed my friend that his family doesn't come to Mass in summer. "God takes a break in summer, and so do we," he said.

There's a lot to unpack here. First, it's tragic to think of anyone voluntarily missing out on the Eucharist for so long. It's also a real problem in the church today that a lot of our folks don't understand the beauty of the Sunday obligation. But if I had to dissect this situation and pinpoint the thing I find most troubling, it's the idea of God taking a break.

I hope it's starting to look like summer where you are. We've still got a few weeks left before it's official, but the school year should be winding up for most kids, the birds should be chirping a little louder, and hopefully your lawn is starting to green up nicely. You're probably daydreaming about the annual cabin getaway weekend or waterskiing on the Fourth of July.

All in all, summer is going to be a nice break, even if — like typical Americans — our break is full of productive work.

Thank God — literally — that He doesn't take a break, even if we do. Can we try to remember that, even in the midst of our many wonderful distractions? Let's enjoy this summer. Let's live it to the full. But let's see it for the gift that it is — and remember the thanks we owe the Giver — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS©LPI

First Reading:

This is why you must now know,
and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God
in the heavens above and on earth below,
and that there is no other. (Dt 4:39)

Psalm:

Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own. (Ps 33)

Second Reading:

Those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.
For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear,
but you received a Spirit of adoption,
through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" (Rom 8:14-15)

Gospel:

"And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Mt 28:16)
