Christian Initiation and Adult Sacraments

Are you thinking of becoming Catholic?

Our parish continues the year-round process of welcoming others into the Catholic Church through the process of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, which prepares anyone over the age of reason (about 8 years old) to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. We also offer a period of formation for Baptized adults who desire to complete their sacramental initiation in the Catholic Church. If you or someone you know is interested in beginning or completing initiation into the Catholic Church, please call the Parish Office for assistance and more information.

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b.

Psalms 34:2-3, 16-17, 18-19, 20-21.

Ephesians 5:21-32. John 6:60-69.

One Last Bread of Life Story. The gospel today is filled with doubt, murmuring, shock, and disbelief. So much so, that many stopped following Jesus, returning to their former lives. Jesus, thus, asked the Twelve: "What about you?" Peter answers for them: "To whom shall we go? We are convinced you are the Holy One of God."

- ♦ Why do I still follow Jesus?
- ♦ Of what am I convinced about him?
- ♦ Bread of life. Communion. What do I believe?

Community Interfaith Food Pantry

Both Parishes are a partner in the Food Pantry.

► This week's needed item:
Jiffy Corn Bread
Saltine Crackers

Please leave your items in either church and they will be taken to the pantry. Monetary donations can be placed in the Sunday collections, mark envelope "Food Pantry", & will assist in buying perishables.

Prayer for Students

*Dear Jesus, thank you for the gift of learning! I want to grow closer to you in everything I do at school.
 In math and science, help me to see your beautiful plan in the world.
 Help me to discover new stories and values as I read and write. In arts and music, help me to be creative.
 In sports, help me to treat my teammates and my opponents fairly. Help me to learn new skills in technology.
 Jesus, you are the perfect teacher.
 Help me to listen with open ears, an open heart, and an open mind to all my teachers at school.
 Help me to treat my classmates with care, kindness, and respect.
 Thank you, Jesus, for school! Amen.*

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods." We struggle with our gods. They appear in the forms of things like money, power, prestige, popularity, privilege, and self-fulfillment. We like these "gods" because they make us feel good and ask very little of us in return. When we worship them, we worship ourselves. How can you go wrong with that? We buy into the illusion that if something can give us a comfortable life, free of want and need, then it is worth setting other things aside to pursue it. In essence, we sell our souls. Our struggle with "who is God" and to whom do we belong is a real one and one that can easily find us empty and experiencing disillusionment.

The devil tempted Jesus in the desert and promised him more. We are promised "more." But in pursuing the more and the satisfying we lose track of the cost, and the cost is great. We sacrifice our very life in pursuit of something disguised as life. We sacrifice truth for something that only "feels" true. While the true and real God certainly promises us many things, many things are also required. It is not about the warm and secure feelings and self-absorption the world wants to provide, but of giving back. There can be no lukewarm stance with regard to faith. If we are in, then faith in Jesus Christ asks us to do some difficult things: work in service of God's kingdom (not our own), love our enemies, offer no resistance to injury, that we must die to ourselves in order to find ourselves, and trust that Jesus truly gives us his flesh and blood to eat and drink. These are hard things to accept and even harder to put into practice. It is no wonder that many, who may be attracted to Jesus at first, walk away in pursuit of the more self-satisfying gods.

But truth is truth. If we cannot accept it from the lips of Jesus Christ, then where else will we find it? To whom can we go?

There is only one source of truth and life, Jesus Christ. Jesus has the words of eternal life and if we do not go to him, then where else will we find this gift? But we must be faithful and buy into the whole package deal that requires sacrifice and fidelity. When we do, we find ourselves, through the Body and Blood of Christ, connected to the Source of all life and then intimately bound with our brothers and sisters. We all have to decide whether we want to stay or go and if we can accept what Jesus has to say. It's a choice we all have to make.

Queenship of Mary

August 22

Question:

Why do we have a feast for the Queenship of Mary?

Answer:

For many of us, the language of kings and queens may seem like they belong to history or a medieval movie. Royalty have absolute authority over a kingdom and their subjects, a concept that is foreign to many of us today. While Jesus doesn't rule a political kingdom, we honor and recognize him as the King of Kings, Lord of Heaven and Earth. To God alone belongs absolute authority over all of existence.

We may think of queens as the spouse of the king, but there is another key relationship: the king's mother. In Biblical history, we see instances where the mother of the king is given due as a queen herself, complete with a throne! Mary's guiding influence over her Son is seen most notably in the Wedding Feast at Cana. Mary is not Queen on her own merit. She is "full of grace" and "blessed" in "all ages" because of the reign of her Son.

"Notes of hope"

She stood on the bridge ready to step off into oblivion. The post-traumatic stress disorder she suffered had made her life — at 18 — unbearable. She had had enough.

But what she recalls most vividly are the words of two strangers who stopped her from taking her life.

"You are worth so much more than this."

That made her stop and back away from the edge of the bridge — and go home.

"Those words changed my life," she realized, and later thought, "If those words could help me, who else could they help?"

So the next day, she wrote those words down on several pieces of paper and returned to the bridge — the site of many suicides — and stuck the notes all over the bridge. It's been three and a half years since Paige Hunter, now 21, stood on Wearmouth Bridge near her home in Sunderland, England. Since that cold January night, Paige has spent countless hours crafting handwritten notes on colorful paper, which she laminates and ties to the bridge with string.

Don't give up. Not now, not tomorrow, not ever.

Even though things are difficult, your life matters.

Pause. Stop. Breathe. There are better options, and so many people who love you.

The signs have made a difference. Many would-be suicides, overwhelmed by depression and anxiety, have turned away from the edge because of one of her signs — and Paige continues to correspond with many of them via Facebook.

But Paige insists that writing those messages is "therapeutic" for her.

"I believe helping other people has helped me tremendously. I feel really grateful that I've been able to help people through my own struggle."

[The Washington Post, June 3, 2021.]

To someone in such despair, so lost that they are ready to end it all, Jesus speaks the "words of eternal life" in a compassionate, caring soul who pleads in a series of signs, You are worth so much more than this. Paige Hunter's work is her "confession" of hope that Peter articulates in today's Gospel: that despite our own doubts, fears and misgivings, we know in the depth of our hearts that, in the end, the words of Jesus will triumph. May we possess the constant faith and resolve of Simon Peter and the Twelve who remain with Jesus — faith that, even in the most difficult times, senses the light and refuses to abandon the hope of God's love.
