Catechetical Sunday

At the 11:00 am Mass this Sunday, September 19 we will recognize all of the teachers, catechists and coordinators who instruct, evangelize and guide our children, youth and adults in the parish. As a community, we will send them forth with a blessing for the year.

The following people will be acknowledged:

School Teachers

Scripture Study Leaders

RCIA Catechists & Sponsors

PSR Catechists

Youth Ministry Leaders

Children's Liturgy of the Word Catechists

(If you are a teacher, leader or catechist in one of these groups, please come forward after the homily to receive a blessing)

Thank you for guiding others in the faith and for your dedication to spreading the Good News. May God bless all of you as you continue to serve our parish and school community this year.

To learn more about how you as catechists and teachers, as well as all the baptized can grow in knowledge and faith, go to the USCCB Web site:

www.usccb.org/catecheticalsunday/

The word "catechesis" means "to echo." Literally, we are to echo the good news of Jesus Christ to the world. This is not a suggestion; it is a command of our Lord. Some people are called and set apart in our communities as catechists, those formally trained and charged with passing on the Gospel to children and adults, inside and outside of our communities. On Catechetical Sunday, we acknowledge them and remind ourselves of the need for formation and growth in all of us. To be a catechist is a privileged calling, and today be sure to say "thank you" to one in your community.

However, it would be wrong on this day to only look to those bearing the NAME of catechist for an echoing of good news. ALL of us are called to echo and share the Gospel message. Parents are the first and primary catechists in a child's life. But we also are important catechists in the lives of our coworkers, our spouses, our relatives, and our friends. Some say catechesis begins in the home, and while that is true, it carries with it a parent/child connotation. But where does catechesis really begin? It begins in the HEART. This year on Catechetical Sunday, may your heart be moved to motivate you to share with others the good news of Jesus Christ.

Prayer for Catechists

Loving Father, we pray today for our catechists. We thank you for their gift of ministry in your Church.

Grant them your wisdom that they may grow in the understanding and teaching of your Word. Grant them also your love that they may be fruitful heralds of your Word and lead others to love you.

Pour forth your Holy Spirit upon them to grant them wisdom about what is important; knowledge of the truths of faith; understanding of their meaning; right judgement about how to apply them in life; courage to persevere even in the face of adversity; reverence before all that is sacred and holy; and that loving zeal which leads others to a transforming encounter with your Son.

We pray this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom 2:12, 17-20. Psalm 54:3-4, 5, 6-8.

James 3:16-4:31. Mark 9:30-37.

"I'm Better Than You." Our lives are filled with all manner of put down, one upmanship, top dog behavior. When the disciples were caught in a similar conversation by Jesus, their response was silence. Perhaps, from embarrassment, even shame – especially after his teaching. He says to them and to us, be last not first, be of service, be open to receive.

- ♦ Who needs to be first at something this week rather than me?
- ♦ Whom can I serve because they need some help?
- ♦ Whom will I receive with joy as I would a child or grandchild?

Community Interfaith Food Pantry

Both Parishes are a partner in the Food Pantry.

► This week's needed item:

Cereals; Pancake Mix & Syrup also accepting garden produce

Please leave your items in either church and they will be taken to the pantry.

Monetary donations can be placed in the Sunday collections, mark envelope "Food Pantry", & will assist in buying perishables.

St. Teresa's Parish and Friends have "adopted" every Monday for the 5 Mondays during the 40DFL Fall campaign. Our first Monday will be September 27 from 7am-7pm. We have most of the time slots pretty-well covered but would love to have more representation at the "fence" at Planned Parenthood in Fairview Hgts., for those able; and many prayers from those unable to physically attend. If you can adopt 1 hour each Monday to join your prayers with ours for an End to Abortion, you will be so welcome and so blessed! Please contact one of the following to sign up or for more information:

New Battle on Taxpayer Funding of Abortion

Efforts to save the Hyde Amendment are continuing, but now there's ANOTHER, huge battle shaping up over taxpayer funding of abortion.

Congress is moving forward on a "human infrastructure" bill, which is likely to include things that many Catholics support, including expanded health care coverage. But there is serious concern that such health care proposals will include funding for elective abortion.

Congressional leadership is using a rare process for this bill, known as "budget reconciliation," that requires fewer votes to pass it than most laws.

That is why Congress must hear from YOU now! Tell your representatives that any health care proposals MUST NOT fund elective abortion. Visit: <https://www.notaxpayerabortion.com/>

Think about the gifts and strengths that God has given you. Are you outgoing and enjoy meeting new people? Maybe God is calling you to be an Usher or a Greeter. Are you a good public speaker? ## 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There is something about being first. Whether it be first in line, first to be picked for the team, or the first one to finish their work, great satisfaction is achieved. Our egos love being first. It somehow sets us apart from everyone else, gives us a sense of pride and positions us to feel better than others. When we are first, we can glory in our efforts, skills, and achievements. Isn't that what really matters? After all, we are taught from a very young age to be proficient, stay on top, be the best at what we do, and win the praise and esteem of others. This is the stuff that makes us successful and provides us with a comfortable, satisfying life.

Jesus wants none of it. All of the details we anguish over mean little to the kingdom of God. You want to be first? Then, be a servant and welcome a child. All of this is the opposite of our often vehement pursuits. If we are serious about following Jesus and living the Gospel, then we must put the needs of others before our own. If we continue to listen only to the noise of the world, we are going to continue to believe the illusions we inherit. Those illusions come in many forms, but all have things in common: me before you, being on top and not the bottom, us versus them, personal security over universal harmony and peace. When are we going to learn that always striving to be the best and first is an empty pursuit in our struggle for happiness? While satisfying our ego with this momentary boost of esteem may feel good for a moment, is it what we really desire?

If we can break from the world's noise and create a space of sacred silence in our lives, we can begin to listen and see that we are being called in another direction. What we really desire is not the bolstering of our egos but the innocence we lost somewhere along the way. When we can be playful, joyful, and even somewhat carefree, life is good. We want our relationships to work, a place to call home, and to live peaceful lives with our sisters and brothers. Only a servant can do this. The servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. Rather than worrying about being first and coming out on top, we can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led to do good works. Stop worrying about being first and put greater energy into feeling joy.

Grandpa and Grandson on the Go

In so many ways, children mirror for us adults a simple, authentic faith centered in compassion and generosity. Writes one grandfather of his own discovery of such faith:

"My grandson, a toddler on the go, and I, his grandfather with Parkinson's, have a closeness around matters of motion. He knows that I can't carry or lift him, so he climbs into my lap. It worries me that he might only think of me as 'Papa on the couch.'

"Yesterday, I got off the couch with difficulty. Before I knew it, my grandson came up behind me, placing his hands behind my knees. He helped me walk, using all of his 30 pounds to support me. I was in tears.

"What do children see, feel and understand?

"Everything."

[Lawrence Zelnick, Psy.D.]

Children possess an honesty and a generosity that we adults somehow "outgrow." But Christ calls us to embrace the uncomplicated but genuine faith of a child: to love God and others without condition or expectation. "Child-like faith" is never discouraged, never becomes cynical or jaded, never ceases to be amazed and grateful for the many ways God reveals his presence in our lives. Such faith is not complicated or compromised by ego or expectation; such faith is centered in the joy and happiness of the beloved. The power of such simple faith is its ability to overcome every rationalization, fear, complication and agenda in order to mirror the selflessness of Jesus. Christ calls us to the simple faith of a child: to love without condition or return, with honesty and faithfulness. Only in embracing such child-like kindness, compassion, generosity and forgiveness can we attain true greatness in the Kingdom of God.
