17th Sunday in Ordinary Time
 July 30, 2017

My dear sisters and brothers,

Here are more of Fr. Spitzer’s brief spontaneous prayers continued from July 16: “Lord, you are the just, wise and merciful judge—you take care of it.” “Lord, make good come out of whatever harm I may have caused.” “Lord, push back the foreboding and darkness.” “Abba, all things are possible for you. Take this cup away from me, but not what I will, but what you will.” “Lord, have mercy on me a sinner.” These can be useful prayers at times of temptation or struggle of any kind. Have a blest week!

Love, Fr Bruce

Please submit articles for our bulletin by 2:00 pm on Tuesday. Thank you!

God invites us to ask for what we need. Consider what Solomon requested – an understanding heart. What do you need as you seek to follow Jesus? (1 Kings 3:5, 7-12)

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME, TALENT AND TREASURE

We are very grateful to everyone who made it possible for eighteen of our youth, grades 9 through 12, to attend this year's Steubenville North Conference in Rochester July 14-16. We thank our youth who made the decision to attend this conference and to grow in their faith with other youth their ages. We thank the parents of our youth who encouraged their child to attend this conference and supported them. We thank Kevin Streitz, who set up this trip and drove the bus. Thank you to Kevin, McKenna Finley, and Erica Brewer for being the chaperones. Thank you to several parishioners who donated to help out with the cost of this trip. Without the help of many people, our youth could not have attended this conference. Again, "thank you" to everyone who was part of this very special event for our youth. We hope next year to have even more youth attending and experiencing God in a very special way.

Parish Stewardship Needs

Additional people are needed to lead communion services at the Assisted Living Facilities. These services are conducted weekly. If you would be able to help once or twice a month, that would be a big help. The dates and times of these services vary according to each Assisted Living Facility.

Additional people are needed to take communion to parishioners' homes. This is done weekly. The dates and times can vary according to your schedule and that of the parishioner(s) you are visiting.

These are two wonderful opportunities to give the Body of Christ to those who are unable to attend our weekend Masses. Training will be provided.

If you are interested in performing this ministry for our parish, please contact Deacon Steve at 839-6834.

Be doers of the word, and not hearers only.

We extend our best wishes to Andrew Klabo & Megan Sweet and Michael Baker & Alexis Klein, who committed themselves to each other in marriage.

It is with joy that we welcome Clementine Willow Jean Wentz, daughter of Paul and Vanessa, Melvin Michael Lenoir III, son of Melvin and Donetta, and Andrew Allen Thom, son of Tory and Sarah, to our family at Our Lady of Grace Church.

Next Week's Gospel: Matthew 9:2-10

Gospel Reflection: Jesus takes His apostles Peter, James, and John up a high mountain. There, He is transfigured before them. He shows them the glory that is His as the only-begotten Son of God. With Jesus are the Old Testament prophets, Moses and Elijah. Peter can hardly believe his eyes. He wants to do something to commemorate this wonderful event. He suggests that they build three tents there! He wanted to mark this spot as holy. Then, from heaven, the voice of the Father was heard: "This is my beloved Son. Listen to Him." Suddenly, all was still. They looked up, and there was Jesus, alone with them. Then He prepared them for His death and resurrection. It is important to remember that this event happened just before the passion and death of Jesus. This was a special gift to the apostles so that they would remember that Jesus, their teacher and friend, was also their Lord, their Savior, and the Son of God.

Discussion Points for Gospel: Peter's impulse to mark this spot of encounter with Jesus was not wrong. It is a very human instinct. Our churches and shrines are "holy ground" for us. When we make a prayer corner at home or at school, we are setting aside "holy ground." Does this holy ground help you to be aware of God's presence?

Dear Parishioners:

I am writing first to thank you for your participation in our parish's online giving program. Your generous giving is appreciated by so many and helps our church thrive and reflect the Kingdom of God in our parish.

To help us maintain and grow our mission, our parish is in the process of transitioning to a new online giving tool—WeShare. WeShare makes it easier than ever for you to manage your online contributions and will save our church time and money.

To make this transition as seamless as possible and to ensure our records are up-to-date, we need a few minutes of your help. Please visit our parish website, click the ParishPay link, and log into your online giving account. Review your contact information, address, payment method, and current giving for accuracy. Make any necessary changes and that's it. If you run into any issues accessing your account, please contact Customer Service at 1-800-950-9952, Option One.

Thank you again for your help and for your commitment to our parish. We appreciate everything that you do for our parish.

In Christ, Fr. Bruce

Respect Life News

PRO-LIFE REFLECTION

In the midst of the abortion tragedy, the Church does not point fingers of condemnation. Rather, the Church extends hands of compassion and help to lift up out of despair those who are tempted to abort their children. The Church informs her people of the many alternatives to abortion and says, "I am with you and will enable you to say 'yes' to life."
