My dear people of God,

Happy Independence Day weekend!

Traditionally this holiday tends to bring families together especially in our northern climate where several of our holidays are harder to plan with the weather. If you are meeting with family, I hope it is a blest time for you. If you are feeling alienated from some family members, I encourage you to pray for the grace to forgive and to be reconciled. Life on earth passes quickly, and it is so easy to carry our grudges to the grave. Forgiveness can sometimes seem impossible by our own human strength and may rightly be so, but since Jesus teaches the importance of forgiving others, we can be assured He is eager to assist us. Bring your grudges to Mass, and weekly lay them on the altar. When you can pray for those who have hurt you, then you will be imitating Jesus who prayed for those who put Him to death.

May God bless your week!

Love, Fr Bruce

Please submit articles for our bulletin by 4:00 pm on Tuesday. Thank you!

VOCATION VIEWS

Are there people you know who you would like to encourage to think about religious vocations? What would people think if you became a priest/brother/sister? (Mark 6:1-6)

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME, TALENT AND TREASURE

A very special “thank you” to the people who so graciously helped with our parish picnic this past Sunday. Ladies from the Altar Society served the food and cleaned up the dining room. Men from the Knights of Columbus cooked the hamburgers and hotdogs. Teresa and our youth from the “after-Confirmation” group took care of the games for the little ones. Several men and women helped with setting up the tents, tables and chairs outside and then putting everything away after the picnic. The bingo went over well with the help of several people calling the numbers and giving out the prized to winners. People brought salads and desserts to share; so there was plenty of food, and it was very good. We had a very nice picnic, and it was due to each of you who were able to be here and were so willing to help out. God bless each of you!

Next Week's Gospel: Mark 6:7-13

Gospel Reflection: If you and a partner were sent to several different schools to talk about your faith, what worries might you have? When Jesus sent His apostles out two by two, He warned them that some people would not welcome them. He insisted that they take to the road without food or money, trusting in God and the goodness of their hosts. If people would not provide for them or listen to their message, they were to move on to the next place. Those who accepted the apostles were rewarded. The sick were healed; the possessed were freed of demons; and sinners were reconciled.

Discussion Points for Gospel: Jesus sent his apostles forth as missionaries without backpacks but not without training. They had learned from His word and example what they were to teach. If you had been one of the Twelve, what would your response to being sent out almost empty-handed have been? Give one example of how you have already participated in Jesus' ministry of teaching or healing.
