The Transfiguration of the Lord
 August 6, 2017

My dear sisters and brothers,

At our Sonshine Youth Camp, Fr. Keith Streifel led the Monday Mass and preached. The topic of his homily was "Giving God our Attention." He made an analogy to a young child who is trying to get the attention of someone who is busy with other things. The child may go right up to the person and take that person's face in his or her little hands and direct the face into the child's little face to make sure you look at him/her and so the child knows he/she has the other's full attention. God does not get that forceful with us but is just as eager to have our full attention. We might resist this and tend to ignore God just because we think we have more important things to focus on.

Have a blest week!

Love, Fr Bruce

Please submit articles for our bulletin by 2:00 pm on Tuesday. Thank you!

VOCATION VIEWS

"Come to me heedfully, listen, that you may have life. I will renew with you the everlasting covenant." Trust God's promise. God nourishes us abundantly.
 (Isaiah 55:1-3, & Matthew 14:13-21)

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME, TALENT AND TREASURE

A special “thank you” to those people in our parish who help with liturgical ministries (usher/greeters, Eucharistic ministers, altar servers, and readers) during the summer! Some people who help with liturgical ministries are gone from our parish during the summer and are not able to help. That is understandable, and we appreciate their help when they are here. Some of the people who help in the summer end up helping often during the summer, sometimes every weekend. Also, quite often they are asked as they come into our church if they would be able to fill in for someone who is not able to be there that day. To these people who are so good about helping, we are very grateful! Our parish could not be the special parish it is without many parishioners helping out when they are asked. If you would like to help as a liturgical minister, please let Deacon Steve know. We would be very happy to have you help.

Stewardship Thought: Do not think that it is a waste of time to feed the hungry, to visit and take care of the sick and the dying, to open and receive the unwanted and homeless; for this is our love of Christ in action.

“LIFT THESE PEOPLE TO OUR LORD IN PRAYER”

To add or remove names from our Prayer list, please call our Parish Office at 839-6834.

IN REMEMBRANCE

We remember those who passed away one year ago in August: Ernestine Belgarde, Thomas Stockert and Andrew Wald.

ADULTS, COME AND JOIN US!

Do you want to learn more about your Catholic faith? Are you interested in joining the Catholic Church? Were you baptized Catholic but didn't receive the Sacraments of Eucharist, Reconciliation and/or Confirmation? Beginning in October, our parish is offering adult formation sessions for:

- 1) Those who are unbaptized or members of other Christian faiths. The sessions will give information about the Catholic faith and prepare individuals who are ready to take that step to be received into full communion with the Catholic Church.
- 2) People who were baptized Catholic but did not complete their initiation through the sacraments of Reconciliation, Eucharist, and/or Confirmation.
- 3) People who are Catholic but want to know more about their faith or refresh their memories!

We invite you to join us in this adventure. There is no commitment on your part to become Catholic. You may want to just come and join us to learn more about the faith of your spouse and/or children. For information, contact Deacon Steve at 839-6834.

Next Week's Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33

Gospel Reflection: There are really two stories in this Gospel. One is about Jesus; the other, about Peter. As the Gospel begins, Jesus is alone in prayer. His disciples are in a boat crossing the Sea of Galilee. In the dark of night, a storm threatens the boat. Just as the boat is about to be swamped, Jesus comes to rescue His disciples. He is walking on the water! The second story tells how Peter's faith is put to the test. He thinks that he can join Jesus, walking on the stormy waters. But when Peter is out of the boat, surrounded by the menacing waves, he has second thoughts. In his fear, he begins to sink. After saving Peter, Jesus asks him why he doubted and did not trust Him.

Discussion Points for Gospel: When life seems tough and you are afraid, how will you turn to Christ with trust?

CHANGE TO PHONE NUMBERS: Fr. Bruce can be reached for emergencies on his cell phone, which is 701-240-0470. He no longer has a private land phone line in the rectory. Deacon Steve can be reached directly at the church at 701-839-7766. By calling this number for Deacon Steve, it will help to give our receptionist more time for other work she is doing. Deacon Steve will return your call. Thank you!

NOW HIRING: We are seeking a part-time Music Director. This position would be good for those wishing to use their talent while working limited hours. Applicants must be dependable, have musical experience/training, and have the ability to inspire and recruit others for this important ministry. For more information, contact Deacon Steve at admin@olgminot.org or 839-6834.

STUDY OF THEOLOGY OF THE BODY

A series of DVD's entitled "into the Heart" will be presented on Wednesday's at 9:45 am in the parish dining room beginning September 13. The series consists of sixteen 30-minute presentations by Christopher West, who is known as a foremost pro in St. John Paul's Theology of the Body. He speaks in common lay man's language despite the profound nature of the material. Spread the word. All are welcome to come to learn the good news of how Jesus came to redeem our broken image of ourselves as created in the divine image as male and female.

REAL PRESENCE RADIO. What is keeping you from becoming Catholic? This is the theme of a call-in show hosted by Dr. David Anders, catechist, speaker, writer, and former Protestant historian who now embraces the riches of the Catholic Church. "Called to Communion" answers questions about the Catholic faith and is very informative for non-Catholics as well as Catholics who want to learn more about what the Church believes and teaches. Tune in Monday – Friday at 1:00 p.m. CT on 91.7/91.3 (Bismarck/Mandan), 104.1/89.1 (Williston), 91.1 (Minot), 101.9 (Dickinson).

Respect Life News

PRO-LIFE REFLECTION

Since the early '90s, over half of the freestanding abortion facilities in the United States have closed. Abortionists admit that one of the key reasons is that fewer doctors are willing to do abortions. Despite all their money and influence, the abortion advocates have not succeeded in removing the stigma from abortion.
