FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend, I am beginning a three-week series of sermons on Heaven, Hell, and Purgatory to coincide with the end of the liturgical year. Remember, a sermon is a discourse on a spiritual or theological theme that is not necessarily tied to the readings for Mass. For example, last summer, I preached a series of sermons on the on the Mass. A homily unpacks the readings for Mass and applies them to believing and living the Christian faith. I hope this series will reinforce what we believe about life after death.

Keep an eye on the bulletin for lots of good activities. Once again, please mark your calendars for North Road Christmas on Saturday, December 4th from 10:00 AM to 1:30 PM. This family-oriented event will feature pancake breakfast, Nativity pageant, child crafts, visits with Santa, petting zoo, cookie walk, craft show, and more! Volunteer opportunities will be offered in the coming weeks. Fun events like this aim to build up the togetherness of our parish communities and welcome the public to join us.

Last week's outdoor Mass at All Souls Cemetery on the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed was quite a blessing. God provided warm sun, crisp air, and a prayerful spirit. I hope to make this an annual tradition. May God bless you!

Yours in Christ, Fr. Cicero

What Does It Mean to Be a Consecrated Religious?

Sunday, Nov. 21
9:30-10:45am
White Hall

*What is religious life?
Why do they dress like that?*

How do they live and why?

What is the life of a Parish Visitor all about?

We invite you to come to hear about the vocation to religious life and about our life and mission as Parish Visitor Sisters.

We'll be showing a short video about our community, followed by a Q&A session.

All are invited!

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the first reading today the power of God extends through the prophet Elijah to the poor and needy, in the story of a woman and her son. The story has a happy ending, emphasizing the message of trust in God.

The second reading sets out differences between the sacrifices offered by the Jewish high priests and the single sacrifice offered by Christ, the high priest. For generations of Jews ministers offered animals, Christ offered himself on the cross in a once-and-for-all offering that took away the sins of humankind.

In today's Gospel reading of Mark, Jesus tells his disciples to beware of the scribes. See that you do not imitate their hypocrisy, or all their principals, and be on guard against their insidious counsels and designs. There was an absolute necessity for these repeated cautions of our Lord. Then he said to them in His teaching, "beware of the scribes, who desire to go around in long robes, love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts, who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation of our Lord."

The two brief stories in the gospel today deal with wealth issues that are still challenging today. First are those who think they are more important than anyone else. In Mark's estimation they are self-important, arrogant and self aggrandizing.

Jesus states his teaching about wealth, putting it as clearly as possible, "Amen I say to you" stresses how important it is that disciples and us adopt his view.

Peace be with you, Deacon Joe

An Invitation

Bishop Bonnar invites couples who are married civilly but not in the Church to inquire about beginning the validation process ("having your marriage recognized by the Church.") Please contact the parish office at your earliest convenience to inquire about beginning the necessary steps leading to the validation of your marriage

Attention all Women Prepare Your Heart for Christmas Program*

Monday, Nov. 29, 6:30
Ss. C&M Church site

*"Rest is not a luxury; it is a spiritual discipline.
It is a gift."*

S. Corbitt, Just REST A Study of the Exodus

Looking forward to the Advent Season, we invite all women to attend this special one hour program. Through insights from Sonja's new book, we'll be encouraged to learn new ways to REST. As Sonja writes: "If you've prayed incessantly for lasting peace but believe God must not have meant it for you... you need the lessons of the Exodus". **As in past years, a free will offering will be accepted on behalf of Bella Women's Center.*

Note – If you'd like a copy of this book, it can be purchased on Amazon for about $16.

Please note that our new youth ministry is scheduled for every 2nd and 4th Sunday of each month from 6-8pm.

Sunday November 14 from 6-8pm at St. James (White Hall) : Pop & Paint! We are taking a new spin on the idea of "Sip & Paint!" Youth in grades 6 to 12 are welcome to join artist Marina Davis for an evening of Pop & Paint. Marina will lead the young people in a two-hour art demonstration. Snacks and drinks will be provided.

Sunday November 28 from 6-8 pm at St. James (White Hall) : Board Game Night With the Youngstown Seminarians! Join a few of the seminarians—those men studying to be priests—from our diocese to play a few favorite board games. Snacks will be provided. Youth in grades 6 to 12 are welcome to join!

Peace, Will

National Vocation Awareness Week
November 7-13, 2021

How can you support those who are discerning their future?

Pray: Pray daily for the holiness and openness of the Church to God's plan. Pray for those who are considering a vocation within the Church.

Adopt: Spiritually "adopt" one of our seminarians. Pray daily for them. Send cards at Christmas, Easter, and birthday.

Encourage: Watch the servers, youth ministry kids, and those who are always volunteering at parish events. Go up to them, tell them you are impressed with what they are doing, and encourage them to consider a life of service in the Church.

Please contact Fr. Scott Kopp for assistance in discerning your vocation. He can be reached at 330-744-8451 or skopp@youngstowndiocese.org or Facebook: doyvocations
