FATHER'S IRREPLACEABLE ROLE IN WELCOMING LIFE:

Although fathers do not physically carry their children from conception, fathers can still be overwhelmed by an unexpected pregnancy. We Christians must support men who, in following the example of St. Joseph, choose to embrace their role as a father in all circumstances, but especially in challenging situations. St. Joseph was unexpectedly called to fatherhood amid extremely confusing and difficult circumstances. However, despite many obstacles, St. Joseph chose to be faithful. St. Joseph chose life by listening to God's will and consciously deciding to be a father to Jesus, the Son of God. Pope Saint John Paul II said that fathers are called to exhibit "generous responsibility for the life conceived under the heart of the mother" (Familiaris consortio 25). Like St. Joseph, all fathers are uniquely entrusted with the protection and defense of both mother and child and, in this way, safeguard the sanctity of human life. But biological fathers, because they do not physically carry the child, sometimes fail to truly father their children.

Our society increasingly tells fathers that they should have no say in the lives of their unborn children, no opportunity to choose to father their children. Our society seems to restrict the decisions regarding an unborn child solely to the discretion of the mother. In the face of false messages about fatherhood, we must respond with the truth that the role of a father "is of unique and irreplaceable importance" (FC 25). We know that the assistance and support of the father of a child, or lack thereof, can often be a deciding factor in a woman's decision to choose life. Tragically, there are men who sometimes pressure mothers to make the decision to abort the child, sinning grievously and making the cowardly choice. These men are not following the example of St. Joseph and are not exercising true, spiritual fatherhood.

SPEND QUALITY TIME WITH GOD & FAMILY

Celebrate summer saint feast days with special recipes: <https://www.pinterest.com/dioceseevents/catholic-recipes/>. Visit Our Lady's Farm in Falmouth, Saint Patrick Shrine in Taylor Mill, and/or Saint Anthony Shrine in Cincinnati. Make popcorn and enjoy a free family film using the parish subscription to FORMED.org. You can also listen to audio books and radio dramas in the car. (Parish code: 150485). Clean and donate outgrown toys, books, and clothes. Download color sheets of Biblical stories or saints, invite your children to color them, mount them on heavy poster board or cardstock, cut apart, and make puzzles. Reading aloud isn't just for kids. Sharing a book is a great family activity. Choose books that spark family discussion, like THE CHRONICLES OF NARNIA by C. S Lewis. Enjoy God's creation with backyard star-gazing, camping, and science experiments: <https://www.sciencekids.co.nz/experiments.html>. Celebrate the blessing of family by making a family video. Invite older relatives to make short videos of favorite memories and send them to you. Combine these, and make something special to share at a family picnic. Brainstorm more ideas for your summer faith bucket list!

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel — and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the "road less traveled." Imagine those first disciples going out and into people's homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. If we are really interested in seeing God's vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence.

If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That's a risk God asks us to take.

PARISH SCHOOL OF RELIGION

Our Parish School of Religion offers Catholic religious education for children in grades 1-8 who do not attend Catholic schools. Registration for PSR is online. Look for details on our website: <https://www.bsck.org/Children-s-Formation>

NOTE: The diocese requires two FULL years of religious education prior to the celebration of sacraments. Do not wait until your child is in second grade to consider religious education.
