THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTION FOR SEPTEMBER 2020

We pray that the planet's resources will not be plundered, but shared in a just respectful manner.

INTERCESSION FOR LIFE

For solidarity and peace in our global human family, that we may work together to protect the lives of those who are most vulnerable; We pray to the Lord:

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Practice makes perfect. Perhaps this axiom applies to forgiveness as well. In the Bible, sin is a condition of alienation and separation from God—and by extension alienation and separation from one another. Sin can be simple, sin can be serious, or sin can be mortal. We have to learn how to recognize it and nip it in the bud before it grows. Forgiveness is not an end result but a process. To get good at it we have to practice. There is an old saying that harboring unforgiveness or bitterness is like drinking poison and expecting the other person to die.... Forgiveness, the kind Jesus is talking about, is good for the soul. It frees us to love as we have been loved. It is a defining hallmark of a Christian. We are called to be the church made up of people who follow St. Paul's direction in Ephesians 4:31-32, people who have learned how to forgive and love one another from the heart. We can pray for forgiveness with one of the Bible's greatest sinners, King David. His prayer that God would forgive him of a multi-tude of sins is found in Psalm 51, "Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me for my sin."

VOCATION VIEW

God our Father forgive with open arms. Who will preach this Good News of reconciliation? Consider service as a priest, deacon.

ZACCARIAN APOSTOLATE OF PRAYER

That in a world agitated by constant changes, the attention of the Barnabites and the Angelics to the "existential peripheries" may be felt and lived more and more as a manifestation of their identity as religious consecrated to the service of the gospel and committed overcoming their roots, we pray
