THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTION FOR SEPTEMBER 2020

We pray that the planet's resources will not be plundered, but shared in a just respectful manner.

ZACCARIAN APOSTOLATE OF PRAYER

That in a world agitated by constant changes, the attention of the Barnabites and the Angelics to the "existential peripheries" may be felt and lived more and more as a manifestation of their identity as religious consecrated to the service of the gospel and committed overcoming their roots, we pray

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Who are you in the parable of the two sons? Are you the elder brother who has the law but has lost the spirit to live as a child of grace? Or are you the younger son who is rebellious at first but in the end does the will of his father? The choices are clear and the answer to the question will be revealed in our lives.

There is a Jewish saying about faith that "deeds trump creeds." This may be the meaning and the message of the parable. Don't tell me what you believe. Don't tell me what you're going to do. Show me! God wants to see your faith in action. A friend once shared the secret to his spiritual life. The secret is simply to show up. He said that God can't work on you if you are not there, so get up, get there, and get busy! That was great advice. So what if your first response was no. Maybe grace will nudge you toward a prayerful reconsideration that will lead to repentance—a mind that is changed from selfishness to service. And maybe we repentant sinners will go to the head of the line. "Lord, grant me the grace to repent, to turn around and come back to you with all my heart. Give me the courage to say yes to your call and mean it. I want to go where you send me and bloom where I am planted.
