ZACCARIAN APOSTOLATE OF PRAYER

That the order of Clerics Regular of Saint Paul, following the path of holiness traced by St. Anthony Maria Zaccaria, may be fervently committed to listening to the Word of God and be dedicated to our apostolate with its gaze fixed on Jesus Crucified, risen and present in the Eucharist, let us pray We Pray

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

"Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, and touched him ..."

This is the action we will meditate on this week. Jesus is the Virgin-born, sinless, Son of God who can heal anyone with a single word. This man comes for healing and rather than speaking that healing word Jesus reaches out and touches the man. Why? What is Jesus trying to teach his disciples with this intimate gesture? This man is a leper, a social outcast, ostracized from family and friends—a man who has become identified as a walking disease rather than as a human being. The man has not been touched by another human since the time of his final diagnosis. He has been alone in the midst of the community that comprised his former way of life. Jesus wants to address the human need to be embraced, to be touched, and to be cared for before he utters the words of healing, "Be made clean!"

We should imagine a collective gasp from the crowd around Jesus as he reaches toward the leper. If Jesus touches him, then Jesus too will be unclean. Why would Jesus subject himself to defilement? What lesson is he trying to convey? That should keep us in meditation for a few moments today. Do we need such a touch ourselves? Who are the lepers in our culture? Who are those who are in need of our human touch and compassion? What lepers in your life do you feel the call to reach out and touch this week?

What can you do to bring healing? You are empowered by the Holy Spirit. If you choose to, you can bring healing into your world.

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTION FOR FEBRUARY 2021

We pray for women who are victims of violence, that they may be protected by society and have their sufferings considered and heeded.

INTERCESSION FOR LIFE 2/13 & 14

For all married couples: That they may witness to the generous love of God, through openness to new life by joyful welcoming the gift of children: We pray to the Lord:

INTERCESSION FOR LIFE 2/17 Ash Wednesday

For the times we have violated or neglected the sanctity of human life:
May we repent, receive the lord's mercy, and return to him with our whole heart: We pray to the Lord:

VOCATION VIEW

Go, show yourself to the priest...for your cleansing. We no longer have leprosy, but we do need priests to be purified of mortal sins.
