ZACCARIAN APOSTOLATE OF PRAYER

That the order of Clerics Regular of Saint Paul, following the path of holiness traced by St. Anthony Maria Zaccaria, may be fervently committed to listening to the Word of God and be dedicated to our apostolate with its gaze fixed on Jesus Crucified, risen and present in the Eucharist, let us pray We Pray

GOSPEL REFLECTION

*“And they heard God speak from the cloud:
“This is my Son, . Listen to him.”*

Three of Jesus’ most intimate disciples are brought to the mountain. Here Peter, James and John see Jesus revealed in his glorified body. “Listen to Him” the voice says. Remember the words Jesus has told you about this Messiah who is to be rejected, suffer and die shamefully. If the apostles could not understand and accept those sorrowful words, it was because they did not yet know the real Jesus. As Jesus will say later, “A grain of wheat remains no more than a single grain unless it is dropped into the ground and dies.” The suffering and death of Jesus are the seeds of new life for all of us.

The transfiguration of Jesus that the disciples experienced was something done for their benefit—and—ultimately, ours. It was an invitation to undergo personal transformation. How? By listening to Jesus, listening and obeying his teachings, however difficult. It means especially listening to the words which caused such difficulty for Peter—the Christian specter of suffering and death which must precede any resurrection. It means having total trust in Him, doing His will, no matter the circumstances, no matter what people are doing or saying around you. It means swimming upstream. Listen. Trust. Obey.

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTION FOR FEBRUARY 2021

We pray for women who are victims of violence, that they may be protected by society and have their sufferings considered and heeded.

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTION FOR MARCH 2021

Let us pray that we may experience the sacrament of reconciliation with renewed depth, to taste the infinite mercy of God.

INTERCESSION FOR LIFE

May every human person, from conception to natural death, be recognized as precious and beloved in the eyes of the Lord:
We pray to the Lord:

VOCATION VIEW

Peter, James, and John hiked up a mountain top experience with Jesus, and so do those who are called to follow the Apostles footsteps in the priesthood.

If so— contact Fr. Peter Calabrese
