THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTION FOR OCTOBER 2020

We pray that by the virtue of baptism, the laity, especially women, may participate more in areas of responsibility in the church.

ZACCARIAN APOSTOLATE OF PRAYER

That the young Barnabites, from the first years of formation, may joyfully welcome the Lord's mandate to bring the gospel to the ends of the earth, in the footsteps of Paul the Apostle, of St Anthony Maria Zaccaria, of St. Francesco Saverio Maria Bianchi and St. Alessandro Sauli, We Pray

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

The Herodians and the Pharisees together come to Jesus with a question that is presented to him in a public forum. They begin with flattery, then ask Jesus about his position on the "head" tax assessed by their Roman overlords. This mandatory tax paid to be subject to Roman rule and authority. They probably hope that Jesus will be put off his game by their flattery. They acknowledge that he is qualified to explain the Torah to them and hope that he cannot see through to their real intent. For no public question is neutral in ancient Mediterranean culture. Questions are challenges, and an incorrect answer means lost honor and public shame. This helps explain why Jesus so often responds to public questions in the Gospels with a question of his own. He turns the tables on his opponents and puts them on the defensive. Here the reversal comes when he asks the two parties to produce a Roman denarius, the coin used to pay the tax. Jesus is surprised that the coin is found so quickly and comments aloud about the idolatrous image of Tiberius on one side of the coin and the blasphemous inscription on the reverse that declares Tiberius a divine figure. Jesus is aware of their malice and calls them a group of hypocrites. Why did Jesus use this word? Hypocrite is the Greek word for actors on the stage. All the characters in a Greco-Roman play were males who were hidden behind masks. They only pretended to be someone other than themselves. They threw their voices so that they could be the men, women, children, even talking animals in the play. Actors on a stage were not to be trusted. We do well to meditate on these words as they relate to our faith. Are we the real deal or a fake imitation? Are we hypocrites, actors on a stage going through the motions of our faith without any conviction? Are we concerned with other people's opinions, or will we be known as truthful people?

VOCATION VIEW

People often wonder why God doesn't answer their questions. Perhaps this feeling of being ignored comes because when we are more eager to tell God what we want to know than to sit back and allow him to show us what we need to know. Just as fireflies are best seen in the dark, the voice of God is best heard and in the calm of our hearts and minds.

Give God the floor and allow him to show you his plan for you.

IS GOD CALLING YOU?

If so— contact Fr. Peter Calabrese
