ZACCARIAN APOSTOLATE OF PRAYER

That the thirst for evangelization, felt as a Christian duty, and the joy of walking together in fraternity may be for the Zaccarian Family the nourishment for daily meditation, as a source of energy to be able to overcome our selves and run like crazy not only towards God but also towards our neighbor,

We Pray

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Do the words that we say conform to the way we act and the way we live? Jesus rebukes the Pharisees for being hypocrites for they know all the teachings and memorize all the biblical verses, but they don't do what they believe in. Faith without action is dead. These teachers need to walk the talk. Jesus pointed out that knowledge of religion is not the most important thing, but rather it's the act of love. The whole point of being a Christian is to love God and to love others. Without that, we're nothing. We need to reach out to others than just be content in our comfortable positions.

Jesus also points out the importance of humility and forgiveness. Even if he was called master by his apostles, he did not want to be served by them. He came to serve as shown when he washed the feet of his apostles during the last supper. He told them to do as he was doing to them. Then he suffered mockery under Pontius Pilate but remained meek and humble. He was crucified like a criminal, but he forgave his enemies. He did all this to save from our sinfulness. We should learn from Jesus' servant leadership. "Let the greatest among you be the servant of all. For whoever makes himself great shall be humbled, and whoever humbles himself shall be made great."
