

ST. CATHERINE OF SIENA ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

December 1, 2019—1st Sunday of Advent

ALL ARE WELCOMED TO OUR PARISH!

We are so pleased that you chose to celebrate with us this weekend. We warmly invite you to active participation in our liturgical celebration. Please feel free to approach one of our Ministers of Hospitality if you are in need of any assistance. No matter what your present status in the Catholic Church, your current family or marital situation, your past or present religious affiliation; no matter what your personal history, age, background, sexual orientation, gender, race, or color; no matter what your self-image or self-esteem: YOU are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved, and respected at St. Catherine of Siena Church in Ithaca, New York.

FIRST WEEK OF ADVENT

Advent is designed to prepare us for the second coming of Christ – not to prepare us to welcome a little baby, but to allow the fullness of Christ to take up His dwelling within us. How do we do that? How do we prepare ourselves for that? The Liturgy Committee was particularly taken with the image of the manger. The manger was the vessel that received the infant Christ, and we are the vessels that will receive the fullness of Christ. Our Scriptures for Advent call us to be more attentive to our interior life and the world around us. Each week we will use the Scriptures to find encouragement for this work of our faith life.

First Week

The image of transforming our swords (instruments of destruction) into plowshares (instruments that bring life) teaches us to be malleable; to be less rigid. We are invited to do the actual work of transforming the destructive thing within us to something that will give life. The Gospel, which calls us to be prepared for the end times, doesn't necessarily sound encouraging, but it is. It motivates us to do the interior work that we are called to do in order to receive the Christ.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Parish-Wide Opportunities

EVENING OF RECOLLECTION

Please join us on Friday, December 6, at 7 p.m. in the church for an Advent Evening of Recollection. This is an opportunity to receive encouragement for our journey through Advent, focusing our attention on God's patience with us.

FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Because the Feast of the Immaculate Conception is on a Sunday this year, we will celebrate it on Monday, December 9, at the regular 5:30 p.m. Mass. It is not a holy day of obligation.

COLLECTION FOR THE FOOD BANK OF THE SOUTHERN TIER

Last year, we had guest speakers from the Food Bank of the Southern Tier who helped us understand more about the choices people have to make when they are struggling and the ways in which food pantries can be a helping hand. One of the biggest things we learned is that a food donation to a food pantry is wonderful, but a $5 cash donation from you can turn into $28 worth of food at the Food Bank because of their buying power. Next weekend we will be distributing envelopes for the Food Bank. We encourage you to make a donation (cash or checks made out to Food Bank of the Southern Tier) and return it through the collection or the Parish Office by Christmas Day. We will let you know what we are able to provide to our neighbors through this drive.

GIVING TREE

If you took a tag from the Giving Tree, please make sure your gifts are returned by December 8 so that they can be distributed. Gifts can be left under the tree in the Atrium of the Parish Center.

BEYOND THE PLATE

The Beyond the Plate fundraising dinner to benefit the Ithaca MobilePack for Feed My Starving Children is scheduled for Sunday, February 23, from 5-9 p.m. in Mahler Hall. Once again the dinner will feature local chefs donating their time and artistry to each prepare a course, with wine pairings as well. Save the date and watch for information regarding ticket sales! If you would like to join the planning team for Beyond the Plate, please contact Patricia Sipple in the Parish Office at 257-2493 or patricia.sipple@dor.org. The next meeting is December 11 at 5:30 p.m. Many thanks for your support of this event!

D.R. CLUB UPDATE

During our last trip, Sr. Iris gave our young people two massive tires, a cement block, a hammer, and a broken chair and told the group to build a playground. It was a great opportunity for your young people to put their ingenuity and teamwork to work. This is not an unusual experience! The Sisters often need to make good things happen with very few resources. They rarely throw things out because they can usually find a new use for things. Congratulations to this week's D.R. Club winners:

- Nov. 25: Tom LiVigne
- Nov. 26: Taylor Petry
- Nov. 27: Monica Debus
- Nov. 28: Marta Castelhana
- Nov. 29: Dina (Rich) Maxwell
- Nov. 30: Cameron Wallace
- Dec. 1: Art Pearce

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

So far we have received $11,803 toward our goal of $56,250. That is 21 percent of our goal. Please prayerfully consider contributing to the CMA to benefit both the diocese and our parish.

HOSPITAL VISITS

If you or a family member are in the hospital and would like a pastoral visit, please call the Parish Office at 257-2493. The hospital does not notify us when a parishioner is admitted. Thank you!

JOIN THE CHRISTMAS CHOIR

St. Catherine's Christmas Choir rehearsals begin soon! The Youth and Adult Christmas Choir rehearsals begin this Thursday, December 5, and continue each Thursday through December 19, along with two additional rehearsals to be scheduled closer to Christmas. If you are interested, please contact Sherry Scanza, our Director of Liturgical Music, at sherry.scanza@dor.org. We look forward to singing with you!

FROM THE PASTORAL COUNCIL

The Pastoral Council would like to thank:

- Patricia Sipple, Ruth Doyle, Amy Germain, Bryant Blank, and all those involved in organizing the Ithaca MobilePack.
- All parishioners who were involved in putting on the Pancake Breakfast.
- All parishioners who volunteered at the Catholic Charities pasta dinner at All Saints.
- Craig Murray for maintaining the dog watering station.
- All parishioners who brought pets to be blessed.

AN EMPOWERED CATHOLIC PARISH

As St. Catherine's continues to plan for our future, knowing that significant change is possible in the next few years, we invite you more fully into the conversation. In September and October 2019, many parishioners (youth and adults) participated in the second round of our Empowered Catholic Parish presentations and provided important beliefs to our committee, but we heard from only a small fraction of our parish community.

To ensure that your voice is heard, we are providing an opportunity for you and your fellow parishioners to participate in a survey in early December. In the survey, the parishioners will prioritize where to invest our energy to ensure "an inspiring and enduring future" for St. Catherine's.

By no later than Wednesday, December 4, we will send you an email at the email address you have registered with the parish. The email will contain:

- A link to the survey for those who want to complete the survey online.
- Instructions for getting and submitting the survey for those who prefer hard copy.

Your parish community values your input. Everyone's perspective is welcome and important!

Yours in service,

The BE Team (Fr. Joe, Diane Bradac, Ana Duke Cárdenas, Mary Crosley, Ann Marie Eckert, Steve Jesch, Tom O'Toole, Bob Pochily, Mike Redlin, Amanda Shaw, and Steve Shaw)

HELP WITH HOLIDAY DECORATIONS

Would you like to put up Christmas decorations but don't feel up to the work involved? Natalie, an eighth grader in St. Catherine's Youth Ministry, would like to help senior citizens in the parish who might need assistance putting up their Christmas trees. If you would like help with your indoor Christmas decorations, please contact Natalie's mother, Kaori, at kaoriballock@gmail.com. Thank you!

*Adult Faith OpportunitiesMOVIE NIGHT

On Monday, December 9, we will be watching the movie The Man Who Invented Christmas, the story that led to Charles Dickens's creation of A Christmas Carol. A pizza dinner will be served at 6 p.m., the movie will begin at 6:30 p.m., and a discussion will follow the movie. All are invited. A $5 donation for dinner is appreciated.

*Volunteer and Advocacy OpportunitiesC.A.S.E. TRAINING MANAGEMENT VOLUNTEER NEEDED

We are looking for 1-2 volunteers who would be able to help notify parishioners either by e-mail or phone to let them know that their Creating a Safe Environment (C.A.S.E.) training is about to expire. The role would require one hour a month, and a script would be provided to help perform the task. If you are interested in helping with this volunteer role, please contact Ashley Blank at ashley.blank@dor.org or 257-2493.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR SHARE THE WARMTH DISTRIBUTION

'Tis the season for donating coats, gloves, mittens, hats, scarves, and boots to the annual Share the Warmth drive. You'll find collection bins around the area in grocery and other stores and on the campuses. Catholic Charities will be distributing these items for free during the first two weeks of December. Friendly volunteers are needed to wait on customers and help them find the items they need. Two-hour shifts are available, December 2-6 and 9-13, from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. It's a great way to start Advent! To volunteer, contact Michaela at 607-272-5062, ext. 17, or Michaela.Cortright@dor.org.

FROM THE BOOK OF ANN MARIE

Dear Parish Family,

I love Thanksgiving. I hope you had a good day or weekend with family and/or friends. Thanksgiving is the only holiday that my brother comes home for, so it is an important one in my family. He has been running the Turkey Trot every year since he was 17. He is 53 now. I would love to think that it is the love of his family that draws him home each November, but honestly it is his competitive nature that won't let him end his continuous run of this Thanksgiving tradition in Buffalo. I am not complaining!

The Turkey Trot has become a family tradition in my house. In the early days, my dad would drive my brother and his friend Matt to the starting line, and Matt's dad would go and pick them up. After a while, we began going down to the finish line to cheer them on. When my brother got engaged to his wife, he announced it to all of us by running by with a sign that said "Paula, will you marry me?" He then kissed Paula and kept running, wanting to make a fairly good time. Poor Paula was left with her soon-to-be in-laws to tell us that they had gotten engaged a few weeks previously and to pull out the ring and show it to us. After children were born into the family, they too came down to the finish line to cheer on Jim and Matt. Matt blew out his knee about ten years ago, so his run of continuous races ended, but he usually still came to the finish line and most recently began walking it with his children. Eventually, my sister started running as well, so I took care of her kids so she could run. Then two of my nieces became old enough to run (although they really walk) as well, so I was in charge of my niece Eliza, who is much more of a cheerer than a runner. Four years ago, my parents (both on blood thinners) almost froze at the finish line waiting for the runners/walkers in our family to finish. When it came time to register for the Turkey Trot three years ago, I decided it was time to join in the fun (as a walker!). My parents no longer come down to the finish line, but Dad still drives us over to the start of the race. My youngest niece is in college now and won't be able to join us this year, but my friend Theresa is joining me for the first time.

This whole long history of my family's participation in the Turkey Trot speaks to me of how family traditions go. I could easily say that our Thanksgiving tradition, for the past 36 years, includes the Turkey Trot. That would be a simple and true statement. "We always do the Turkey Trot!" would also be true. But in saying that, it wouldn't acknowledge the way that this tradition has ebbed and flowed through the years. It wouldn't give you a true sense of how it has changed. It wouldn't acknowledge that I feel really guilty leaving my parents at home on Thanksgiving morning, after so many years of them being a part of the "cheering section." There was this great "I hope they can do it" when my nieces first started participating in the Trot, but now they are adults, so that sense of pride is replaced with friendship on the Trot journey.

Traditions are wonderful, and I am a big fan of keeping things as they are. What I have learned over the years, of course, is that keeping things the same is absolutely impossible. Every year we are older. Every year we are faced with new opportunities and challenges within those same traditions. As we head into the Christmas holidays, it might be the year that some of your kids can help with cookie making, maybe even taking the cookies in and out of the oven. But it also might be true that your Mom (grandmother to those same kids) can't roll out the dough like she used to. The tree might be smaller this year since there are fewer people coming to the house for the holidays, or it may be that this is the first year in a new house and a big, beautiful tree is needed for your new space. You may have lost someone you love dearly this past year and the holidays don't make a lot of sense without them and you are trying to decide what you even want to do to acknowledge the holidays without really celebrating them. The trick, I am finding, is to remember what is most important to me, and then try to make the traditions (new ones or old ones) fit that goal. I don't want to do the tradition anymore if it doesn't fit or work, but I am happy to adapt, change, and amend the traditions to keep them alive and growing.

As we enter into the holiday season, I invite you to be careful about how much you take on in service of traditions. I invite you to ask your family or friends if the “way we have always done it” is still working for them, or how it could change to be better. If you don’t have a lot of traditions, this year might be an opportunity to start something that can ebb and flow through the years. My goal is to always make sure the tradition doesn’t “wag the dog.” Good luck with all of this!

Peace,

VOLUNTEERS FOR ITHACA SANCTUARY ALLIANCE

The Ithaca Sanctuary Alliance (ISA) is a group of area congregations, including St. Catherine’s, working together for immigrants and supporting their rights. First Congregational Church (FCC) spent a year learning about the sanctuary concept and recently voted to become a sanctuary church. As a member of this alliance, we are currently asking for volunteers to form support teams that will offer food, caring (laundry, socializing, playing cards, etc.) and transportation to those served by the ISA. Additionally, there will be fund raising and communications needs to address. St. Catherine’s, like other participating congregations, will be responsible for these tasks for one week every 4–6 weeks. Please email Mary Hutchens at maryhut@twcny.rr.com with your willingness to help.

ADDRESSING RACISM: LET’S TALK, LET’S ACT

As Catholics we believe that racism is evil, a sin against human dignity. It’s not enough to say “I’m not a racist”; we have to actively work against racism. Educating ourselves about how racism works is one important step to opposing it. A great opportunity to do that is coming up soon. Catholic Charities and the local Multi-Cultural Resource Center are offering a 3-session class called Talking Circles on Race and Racism on Thursdays, January 16, 23, and 30 at Immaculate Conception Church. To sign up or learn more, contact Laurie at LKonwinski@dor.org or 607-272-5062, ext. 12.

*Faith Formation NewsNO SESSIONS DECEMBER 1

Our faith formation and youth ministry classes will not gather this Sunday, December 1, so that families can spend this Thanksgiving weekend together. Sessions (CLOW, CFF, MSYM, and HSYM) will all resume on Sunday, December 8.

WREATH AND POINSETTIA PICKUP

If you ordered wreaths or poinsettias for the Youth Ministry fundraiser, you can pick them up starting next weekend, December 7/8, and the following weekend, December 14/15, after all Masses in the Parish Center Atrium. Thank you very much for your continued support of our youth ministry! Your help is greatly appreciated.

NATIONAL CATHOLIC YOUTH CONFERENCE—THANK YOU!

We would like to thank the parish for their continued prayers and support for our youth and adults who traveled to and from Indianapolis for the National Catholic Youth Conference last weekend. Each of the youth commented on how wonderful the experience was for them. We especially want to thank Jaymee Miller and Jessica Ryan, who took time out of their busy lives to accompany the youth as adult chaperones. We are very blessed here at St. Catherine’s!
