OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

LENT 2020

Dear Friends:

The season of Lent offers us a sacred time for contemplating what it means to accompany Our Lord as he carries the Cross.

During his Passion, we see Christ laboring under the burden of our sufferings and of those whom we love. As the prophet Isaiah says, "He has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows" (cf. Is 53:4), and he still carries them today. Perhaps this year we might pray for the grace to accompany more closely our neighbors and loved ones who are suffering, and so participate in Christ's own sacrificial love as he shoulders their burdens.

Throughout our Diocese there are many who are suffering. We know this. Every parish has its stories of families experiencing hardship and loss. Our hospitals and shelters have their stories. Our nursing homes and schools have theirs. Indeed, we find the Cross in our own homes. Our parents and grandparents know heartache, and our children have burdens as well. Our Lord carries them all.

Perhaps you know a person who is sick or grieving the loss of a loved one. Maybe you know someone who is suffering from addiction or depression and is tempted to despair. Perhaps you know of someone who is lonely or has been altogether abandoned. It is good to remember that Our Lord is carrying each of them already with great love, placing his sheep on his shoulders (cf. Lk 15:5). And this Good Shepherd invites us to accompany him in holiness that we might share more fully in his mission.

Consider the figure of Simon of Cyrene. We know him from the Fifth Station of the Cross and from the Synoptic Gospels. He was compelled to carry the Cross of Christ (cf. Mt 27:32; Mk 15:21; Lk 23:26). We recognize his initial fear; it is the same as our own. We do not fault Simon for his resistance. Helping Jesus could not have been easy. And yet with God's grace what began as servitude was transformed into a gesture of compassion, even a sublime privilege.

To be sure, we may have cause to be fearful of accompanying Christ under the Cross. Social stigmas associated with some sufferings may cause us to stay away. We might fear our own inadequacies; weaknesses and wounds can cause self-doubt. We may even feel some degree of responsibility for the person's suffering: "I could have done more". Simon would have experienced these fears as Christ was passing by. Indeed, he needed to be driven by the Roman soldiers to accompany Jesus (cf. Mk 15:21). But the gaze of Christ prevailed on Simon and moved him beyond his fear.

Christ himself prayed in the garden before taking up the Cross, "Father if it be possible, let this cup pass", but he saw the Father's love for humanity and was moved to pray, "yet not as I will, but as you will" (cf. Mt 26:39). Love bends the will to the other. It was Christ's love that changed Simon's servitude into sacrifice. And it is Christ's love that can transform our fear into accompaniment.

As your bishop, I have the privilege of seeing that so many of you are already living as Simon, already accompanying Christ who carries the burdens of your neighbors and loved ones. I visit your homes and pray with you in your parishes. I witness your dedication to the people of your ministries and organizations. And I see that many of you, like Simon, allow the gaze of Christ to draw you underneath the weight of the Cross, where your own servitude becomes a privileged encounter with Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and an encouragement to us all.

In light of this witness, I wish to bring particular attention to the newly formed Morning Star Initiative, designed to revitalize Catholic elementary school education on Long Island. I ask all of you to pray for our parishes and schools, our administrators and teachers, our students and their families, and all who are promoting a bold new era of Catholic education and evangelization on Long Island.

This way of sharing in the life of Christ moves us beyond imitation into a real participation with him in his relationship with the Father. The Cross is not a punishment to be endured; it is a decision to love. "He was pierced for our transgressions. He was crushed for our iniquities" (cf. Is 53:5). And when we move in this way toward others in their need, our experience of their suffering is transformed from a burden into an encounter with love. We find, with Simon, that our servitude becomes a mysterious privilege of accompaniment. Underneath the weight of a cross carried with love, we see Jesus.

Too often we feel regret for not drawing near to those who are suffering. Let us pray during this holy season, this season of conversion, for the grace to recognize the gaze of Christ in those who are suffering and to respond to his invitation to share in his Cross. In this way, the Church on Long Island will grow together with Our Lord in grace.

Sincerely in Christ,

You know - I've been reading a lot on Facebook(FB) the last couple of days about people giving something up for Lent. Would you believe, several have said their FB "goodbye," because they will be giving up FB! Thousands more will be giving up chocolate, french fries, coffee, swearing, late-night snacks, food during the day, or some such thing - all in the name of fasting!

I just want to add a word of caution - -

Don't let your giving something up for Lent - replace an actual relationship with God. And don't let your sense of piety over giving up something for Lent - keep you from taking a hard look at what God really wants us to be doing. As it said in today's first reading -

For - "even now says the Lord,
Return to me with your whole heart,
With fasting, and weeping, and mourning;
Rend your hearts, not your garments,
And return to the Lord, your God."

Just be careful. It's great to do something for God. It's great to remember the sacrifice that Christ made for us - - just do it all for the right reasons. Don't get caught up in the cultural trend of giving something up without also trying to - - pick up something. We give things up - to make room - to pick things up. Give up something that's getting in the way of your relationship with God. Give up something that's getting in the way of the Kingdom.

Give up chocolate. Give up chocolate that's made on the backs of the working poor. Give up chocolate that enslaves children and puts them in dangerous working conditions. Give up Hershey. And pick up Fair-Trade chocolate.

Give up Facebook. And pick up a pen and piece of paper and a stamp, and write a note to a teacher, a friend, a loved one, someone sick, or someone lonely.

Give up TV. And take up conversations. Pick up stronger relationships. Pick up the Bible. Pick up prayer.

Give up oppression. Give up resentment. Give up fear and worry. And pick up justice. Take up reconciliation. Pick up love.

Mark your forehead with ashes - not to show shame and guilt. Mark your forehead with ashes - to show your inheritance as a child of God!

Pick up your calling - to do the work of Christ. Mark the start of your journey to the cross, so that when you get to Easter - - you can look back and know that this Lent - - you did something with God. Then sing "Hallelujah, The Kingdom has come!" Amen!!

Almsgiving in Lent

“...let us stand beside our brothers and sisters in need, sharing our spiritual and material goods with them.” - Pope Francis

During the Lenten Season we are asked to pray, fast and give alms.

Lent is a perfect time for us to pray for those in need - whether it is for their material, emotional or spiritual needs. And when you practice fasting and abstinence during these forty days, please remember those of our neighbors who are hungry, and consider sharing your gifts with them.

One way to do this is by making a gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, which supports programs that help to feed people in our community each year through Catholic Charities.

Have you thought about “fasting” from a regular purchase of something – i.e., a specialty coffee? Over a 10 month period, this simple “fast” can serve many people in need!

$6.25 a week for one month is $25 --
over 10 months it is $250!

Every little bit helps our parish reach its goal!

For more information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal, please visit CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org or call 516-678-5800, ext. 296.

Reflection: In today's Gospel reading, Jesus in tempted by Satan in the desert. When does the devil tempt me? Do I struggle with lust, greed or anger? How do I fight those temptations? When I fall, do I turn to God for forgiveness and courage?

Living Stewardship—Prayer:

The season of Lent is built upon the pillars of almsgiving, prayer and fasting. This week, if you have not already decided what you will do this Lenten season to grow as a Christian, pray to God and ask Him what He wills you to do—and then listen carefully and act upon His response.

Parish Social Ministry

At their November General Assembly, the full body of bishops approved scripts for videos to inspire prayer and action in political life and to help Catholics apply the teachings of Pope Francis to our day.

The videos complement Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the bishops' teaching document for the faithful on the political responsibility of Catholics, and they seek to help the faithful participate in public life, prioritize faith over partisan politics, engage with civility, and respond to pressing issues of our day.

Lenten Food Drive

"From contemplative prayer, from a strong friendship with the Lord, is born in us the capacity to live and carry forth the love of God, [God's] mercy, and [God's] tenderness toward others... Prayer that doesn't lead to concrete action toward our brothers [and sisters] is a fruitless and incomplete prayer... Prayer and action must always be profoundly united." -Pope Francis

We invite you to pray and take action by carrying forth God's love, mercy, and tenderness to those in our community who are struggling.
