PASTOR'S COLUMN
SS MEDFORD
THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

March 21, 2020

Dear Friends,

I pray that you and your family are well during this unprecedented time during the COVID-19 outbreak and subsequent crisis. Please join with us in praying for those suffering from the Corona virus, their families and health care providers.

We have just been informed by the Diocese of Rockville Centre that beginning Monday, March 16, 2020 at 3:00 p.m., all Masses (weekday and weekend), liturgies, devotions, meetings, and non essential activities in our parishes are suspended or postponed through Tuesday, April 14, 2020. This will include all Holy Week and Easter Liturgies. We will continue to keep you updated on any changes. You can also go to www.drvc.org for more information.

During this time, we will be working on live streaming the Mass from St Sylvester. However, in the interim, I encourage you to see the schedule below to view the Mass.

The Catholic Faith Network (CFN) Broadcast of the Celebration of the Eucharist:

St. Agnes Cathedral, Rockville Centre, New York

Monday – Friday at 8:30 am & 12:30 pm ET

Sunday at 11:00 am & 7:00 pm ET

St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York

Monday – Friday at 6:30 pm ET

Our Lady of Loretto Church, Hempstead, New York

Sunday at 6 pm ET

If you regularly contribute to the Stewardship of the parish, I want to thank you for your continued support and ask you to prayerfully consider making a one time or recurring donation to Saint Sylvester Church by mailing in a check or going directly to Faith Direct by clicking here or going to www.stsylvesterli.org. We are already operating on a “shoe string” budget with very pale reserves. Our collection this week was less than ½ of our weekly average....and our bills remain the same. Please consider doing so, as your means allow, and know that your contribution directly allows us to provide the many ministries and services to this community as needed.

Let us hope and pray that this period of disquiet will pass quickly.

Yours in Christ,

Prayer of Gratitude

In the midst of these times of uncertainty it can help to reflect on how gratefulness might help to calm us, reduce fears and expectations, open us to greater clarity and love, and fuel action grounded in our deep intentions. Gratitude is not a panacea. It may not cure or solve our anxiety or concerns but it can foster ease, connection, kindness, and well-being. Gratitude cannot save us from sickness or suffering, but it can change how we experience sickness, and it may change our relationship to suffering. So, what might this mean with regard to how we respond to the immediate concerns of COVID-19? Here are some possibilities:

Reflect on Goodness — Reflect with gratitude on the sacrifices of front-line workers and all those who are self-quarantining; adjusting habits and lives; working overtime to do research, make tests and vaccines, and provide important, accurate and timely information. Notice the many ways you can notice ways that people are caring for fellow human beings.

Wash your Hands — The 20 seconds recommended to “lather up” offer us an opportunity to slow down to experience gratitude for the gift of hot and cold running water, the miracle of soap, and the wonder of our hands themselves.

Stay Connected — If steering clear of events or planned events are being canceled, might this be an opportunity to connect by phone, text or email with family, friends, and neighbors to see how they’re doing? How does it feel to reflect with gratitude on the relationships in our lives and let people know we care about them?

Be Generous — Extend compassion to those whose lives are impacted most by this crisis. Recognize that people’s health and livelihoods are in jeopardy and nervous systems are taxed. Try being more patient, kinder, take a deep breath before responding; offer smiles and gratitude freely.

See the Privileges of the Ordinary — In the midst of a focus on how much is being lost, keep noticing all the blessings that remain. Allow yourself to appreciate and be in awe of what is available to you: phones, electricity, showers, the beauty and resilience of the natural world, all the parts of your body that work, the services and systems that serve your ability to function, and so much more.

Commit to that which Sustains You — Allow yourself to stay grounded in the things that preserve your integrity and reinforce the beliefs that help you have faith and hope in difficult times. Treat yourself and/or others to A Grateful Day.

BISHOP BARRES WRITES PASTORAL LETTER ON HOLY WEEK

Bishop John Barres has written a pastoral letter about Holy Week: The Great Week – A Pilgrimage with the Lord in Holy Week. This Lent, Bishop Barres invites you to join him in making a pilgrimage in the footsteps of the Lord during the last week of His life by attending all the liturgies that take place in your local parish during Holy Week, the final week of Lent just prior to Easter. This pastoral letter will provide you an overview and explanation of the ‘places’ you will visit, the things you will see and the people you will meet on your spiritual journey.

To read the letter, visit: www.thegreatweek.com. The pastoral letter will also be included in the March edition of The Long Island Catholic Magazine. Printed copies will be available later this month. To subscribe to The Long Island Catholic Magazine visit www.licatholic.org/subscribe/.

Reflection: Jesus, our Lord and our God, heals the man who was born blind. The blind man believed in Christ and stood up to the harassment from the Pharisees who tried to trap him into denying Jesus.

Living Stewardship—Service:

St. Paul calls each and every one of us to “live as children of light.” One way we can do this is by serving our brothers and sisters. Perhaps, in these difficult times, you could go to the store for an elderly neighbor or assist a single parent with child care.

Will & Estate Planning

Consider leaving a legacy of faith by remembering our parish in your will or bequest. Saint Sylvester RC Church is a fully compliant charitable organization registered as a 501(3)C non-profit.

Please contact Father Suglia directly if you have already made provisions for St. Sylvester or if you would like to remember us when you conduct your estate planning.

Thank you and God bless!

Prayer Shawl Ministry Sews Threads of Faith, Hope Through the Community

Every first Wednesday of the month a group of dedicated and talented women come together to create shawls, lap robes, hats, scarves and blankets which they, in turn, give out to the larger community, sending out their prayers and support with each item.

This year, in addition to distributing their handiwork to health care facilities like Long Island Community Hospital, Medford Multi-care, the Long Island State VA Home in Stony Brook, St. Charles Nursery and Good Shepherd Hospice, the Prayer Shawl Ministry partnered with the Patchogue-Medford School District to provide over 350 hats and scarves to the district's elementary schools for their families.

The group, coordinated by Mary Donaghy, generously donated a total of 1,194 items last year — that's a lot of yarn!

If you are interested in knitting or crocheting with this talented bunch, or if you would like to bring a shawl or lap robe to a family member or friend who is seriously ill, please email Lori Zito at Lzito@stsylvesterli.org or call her directly in the Parish Center at 631-475-4506, ext. 115.

- * Those who need emergency shelter should call DSS for instruction.

Please check the website and follow us on twitter for information about available resources or ways to help.

Faith Formation

The below letter was sent to all Faith Formation families on Friday March 13th.

This is to inform you that Faith Formation classes and events are cancelled immediately until after the Easter Break and will tentatively resume Monday, April 20, 2020.

This decision was made and taken out of an abundance of caution and also, because containment through social distancing is one of our best options right now.

What this means is that your child will be on Home Taught Faith Formation Instruction until we are able to hold classes here at the parish. Please note that your child's book will be checked when they return to classes, so be sure to have them do their work regularly.

Please check your child's calendar for the sessions to be covered at home each week.

There is a Family Resource Page on the Parish website with additional resources for you to utilize. You can access the page by typing this link www.stsylvesterli.org/family-resource-page or visiting the Parish website at www.stsylvstrerli.org. Hover over Faith Formation and click on Family Resource Page. Under Loyola Press, you'll see helpful information for families as well as other information that you may find useful. Level's 2 and 7, look at the links on the Family Resource Page as well as at the top of your child's calendar for the website that you can access videos for your child to watch.

For Mass Reflection Forms, please see the "Sunday Connection" link on the Family Resource page on the parish website or visit www.catholicfaithnetwork.org to watch Mass.

As long as your child is doing the work at home, this temporary break from having classes at the parish will in no way stand in the way of the celebration of Sacraments (for Levels 2, 7 and Older Sacraments), or moving up to the next Level (for Levels 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6). Level 7 Confirmation Packets which were due on March 25th, will now be due when classes resume.

Please know that we will be here for you. Should you have any questions or concerns, please call 631-475-4506 x: 118 or email faithformation@stsylvesterli.org.

Let us pray for one another, during these unprecedented times for those suffering from Coronavirus, their families and health care providers. Let us pray and remain hopeful that this will pass quickly.

Peace,
Fran, Mike & Terese
