17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Morality & Social Media

July 28, 2019

This week I am away (see below). We spoke two weeks ago about the first of the four Cardinal Virtues, prudence. Today let us consider temperance before we delve into our scripture (the other two are fortitude and charity).

Temperance is among the more essential virtues that we can teach our children. We, as God's children, must always be conscious of it to grow in virtue (goodness). A synonym for temperance is moderation. If we acquire the trait of "moderation" then we understand what it means to be temperate. We have probably heard the wisdom and prudence in the saying, "Everything in moderation."

Imagine if teenagers practiced temperance well-some do I am sure. Parents would never have to ask them to put their smart devices "down." In a family gathering, let's say a family meal home or with extended family, a prudent decision would be to leave these devices in the car. The temperate decision would be that if taken with us, they are turned off. Clearly, the wisdom is evident: the greater good is for family and friends to devote their time together in conversation with hopefully much joy and laughter.

It is essential that parents are conscientious about when they give or allow access to their children to smart devices like phones or tablets. The longer you wait, the better. Cognitive Science studies show that the earlier the child has unfettered access to mobile devices, there are some serious potential consequences. It will be more difficult for them in the teenage years and beyond in leading a disciplined life of prayer, studies, and morality with these all consuming distractions.

I don't mean to pick on teenagers here, we were all teenagers once, eh? But we should know better and then apply that wisdom to new media. The landmark moment of "New Media" was 1994 in the widespread use of the simple cell phone and then the internet explosion. These interfaces are not evil in themselves, on the contrary, much good can come from prudent and temperate use of them. Let us not use them to displace better priorities.

In our Gospel, Jesus teaches us the Our Father prayer, the only prayer that He teaches us in all of the New Testament. It must be important. Whether we focus on "thy will be done," God's providence or "forgive us our trespasses" - or other excerpts - this prayer has profound depth and meaning to our Christian Discipleship.

Jesus often takes time to pray alone in solitude to God the Father, our Father, and Creator also. How are you doing with your personal prayer? Our faith is always, every day about turning over the best leaf possible. It is never too late to redouble our efforts in prayer, in fact, it is the dynamism that is inherent in individual prayer life. Remain in the battle, so said many of our Canonized saints. We see this is the witness of Saint Catherine of Sienna and Saint Josemaria Escriva, two of my favorites. Do you have a favorite(s) saint?

Thy will be done....God is in charge. Forgive us our trespasses....I am a sinner, not perfect but always trying for the better!

I want to express our sincere gratitude to the priests that are covering for me this weekend: Most notably, our Pastor of merit, Fr. Ed Kealey. Fr. Ed and I had lunched a few weeks back, and his fondness for us here at Saint Sylvester abounds. Also, to Father Roger Landry and Father Dave Atanasio. Father Roger works for Pope Francis at the United Nations (UN) in NYC, and Father Dave is our Chaplain at Saint John the Baptist Diocesan High School.

I am in the midst of a ten-day retreat/workshop with about two dozen priests from around the country that I have gotten to know from my membership in an international priestly fraternity. I have been involved with this group since 2014 and every summer we make a trip of this length together. Pray for us and be assured of my (our) prayers for you.

Yours in Christ,

Father Suglia

Assumption of Our Lady Holy Day of Obligation ~Thursday, August 15th

In preparation for the feast of the Assumption of Our Lady, which commemorates the end of her earthly life and assumption into heaven, Fr. Suglia would like to have a novena said.

Beginning Tuesday, August 6th and going nine consecutive days ending Wednesday, August 14th, a novena will be said before morning Mass in the Worship Room of the Parish Center, beginning at 8:15AM. A novena can be said both publicly and privately.

On Wednesday during the week when morning Mass is not held, the Worship Room will be opened for those who would like to say the novena together. The Worship Room will not be opened on Saturday morning, August 10th, and Sunday morning, August 11th, so you may wish to say the novena privately those days.

On Tuesday, August 13th, in the spirit of community, there will be hospitality after the morning Mass in the East Wing of the Parish Center.

What is a Novena?

A novena is a vocal prayer, or series of vocal prayers, that you commit to praying over an extended period of time. Most novenas are directed to God through a particular saint (e.g. the St. Joseph Novena), so you are asking for the saint's prayers each day for a specific intention. Some novenas are longer (e.g. the 30-day St. Joseph Novena or the 54-day Rosary novena), but traditionally they are nine days. These prayers are usually linked to a specific devotion (for instance, a devotion to a particular saint) or liturgical celebration (a novena for Pentecost). When we use this kind of prayer, we align our minds and hearts with the meaning of the words, giving God praise, renewing our faith and trust, asking God for things we need or desire, or all of the above.

The first novena was inspired by Christ Himself who, at the time of His Ascension into Heaven, told the Apostles to prepare for the coming of the Holy Spirit (at Pentecost); the Apostles went to Jerusalem and prayed with our Blessed Mother for nine days, awaiting the gift of the Spirit (Acts 1). The Holy Spirit then descended upon Mary and the Apostles in the Upper Room. The Novena to the Holy Spirit is the first novena.

As Matthew Kelly says, "a Holy Moment is when you make yourself completely available to God." So please join fellow parishioners during these nine days leading up to the feast of the Assumption of Our Lady and turn this novena into your "Holy Moment."

Jesus is describing God's immeasurable generosity when He says in today's gospel, "Whoever asks, receives; whoever seeks, finds; whoever knocks, is admitted." Prayer and Formation are powerful and they are the path to spiritual growth. Is a Christian complete without them?

Living Stewardship... Formation

Jesus is forming us to become prayerful disciples by teaching His disciples how to pray. Make sure to take time out of your day to place yourself in prayer before the Lord.

Simply click a date on their Daily Readings Calendar to bring up the readings for that particular day.

Stewardship is counter-cultural. While society encourages us to continually strive for more and more, stewardship helps us to recognize that we already have more than enough. In fact, we have enough to share.

Wash Kits for the Homeless

Every summer we create hundreds of wash kits to support the Stand Up for the Homeless event at the end of August where over 800 people receive access to multiple services in a single day! In preparation, we will once again be hosting a community service event making wash kits for the homeless. We are in need of travel size hygiene items – shampoo, conditioner, body wash, toothbrush, toothpaste, deodorant, washcloth. Please continue to donate these items by placing them in the donation bin in the church or bringing them directly to Clare House. Thank you for your generosity!

Back to School Program

During the summer months of July and August we will be collecting financial donations to support our Back to School program. Donations can be made electronically on our website, or via cash/check in an envelope marked "back to school" and placed in any collection basket, brought to the parish center or Clare House. All donations will be converted to gift cards.

Why gift cards, you may ask?

It is fundamental that we strive in all our service activities to empower those on the margins. Gift cards allow clients to make their own decisions about what supplies, bags, shoes, etc. they would like for their family. This enhances their agency in the process and respects their human dignity as individuals. With this in mind, please consider making a donation to support our families in need.

Thank you for your generosity!

Parish Life

Communion for the Homebound

Do you know someone who is no longer able to attend Mass but would like to receive the Eucharist? Please have them or a family member call our Parish Social Ministry Office at 631-475-4506, ext. 122 to arrange for a visit from an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion.

Attention

Gluten Free Communicants!

99.9% Gluten Free Hosts are used at Saint Sylvester Parish.

When you ask for "Gluten Free" hosts please be aware that our hosts are low gluten, not gluten free.

The good news is that these hosts, pictured below, are 99.9% gluten free. That means that these hosts have less gluten than most gluten free foods. Did you know, most gluten free pastas for instance, do not meet the 99.9% gluten free standard, that the Catholic Church has for low gluten hosts?

We hope this information will be helpful to you in your practice of receiving Holy Communion.

Summer Blood Drive Recap

On July 14th, over 70 people came and donated blood for our Summer Blood Drive! As a result, Saint Sylvester Parish was able to provide Long Island Blood Services with 62 units of blood products.

The Saint Sylvester's Council of the Knights of Columbus, under the leadership of Rich Neubauer, provided a continental breakfast menu for all donors. Thanks to Co-chair Rich Muller, Dave Rollo, Henry Smith, Bruce Boziwick, Greg Keeton, Leo Hessler, Manny Alarcon and the other Brother Knights who were there throughout the Drive to cheerfully serve our donors.

The breakfast was enhanced as always through the generous donation of rolls by Grippi's 7-11 and bagels courtesy of Bagels Your Way Café. These establishments most definitely deserve our gratitude and your patronage.

I especially want to once again thank our donors for taking the time and making the effort to help their fellow man. Our fall blood drive is already scheduled for October 6th, 2019. I hope to see you there!

Sincerely,

Tony Speelman

GIVE YOUR ENVELOPES A VACATION!

Tired of searching for envelopes as you are running out the door for Mass only to find you have no cash on hand and just used your last check?

Faith Direct offers a simple solution where you can give your weekly offering electronically, either through a bank account or credit card, with no fuss. Just think of the great vacations you can take with all those accumulated credit card miles!

It's so easy to enroll online — our parish code is NY285. Isn't it time to give your envelopes a permanent vacation?!

Thank you!

A heartfelt thank you to Chris Gueli and Anthony Szalkowski of New England Wood Works. They provided the material and labor for our new portable confessional located in the Sacristy. The Church teaches that the penitent and the confessor have a right to anonymity with a fixed grill between the penitent and the confessor and that confessions should be heard in a confessional (Canon 964.2). This directive is now a reality here at Saint Sylvester Parish in Medford.

Just a reminder:

Reconciliation/Confession is now being heard on Saturday from 4:00PM - 4:30PM before the 5:00PM mass.

Attention Volunteers and Any Interested Adult

This training, required by the Diocese of Rockville Centre for all volunteers, instructs adults in the importance of continuous awareness and vigilance in order to maintain a safe and healthy environment in our parish and community.

The goals of the session are to help adults understand:

- The signs of sexual abuse.
- The methods and means by which offenders commit abuse.
- The five-empowerment steps one can use to prevent abuse.

You may register at www.virtus.org and click on the VIRTUS online link.
