THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST Trinity Sunday

The first four Sundays after Pentecost are celebrated as devotional feasts of our Lord, officially called Solemnities of the Lord. The first of these is Trinity Sunday. There was a need to emphasize the doctrine of the Trinity when in the 4th and 5th centuries a heresy swept through the church denying that Jesus was equal to God. Before the year 1000 a special feast devoted to the Trinity was celebrated on the Sunday following Pentecost. It was formalized in the universal church by Pope John XXII in 1334.

There are several symbols for the Trinity. Since the 6th century, an older man, a younger man and a dove were used to represent the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Another symbol of the Trinity is a triangle surrounded by light rays with an eye inside. A version of this symbol is on the Great Seal of the United States and it appears on a one dollar bill. And St. Patrick used the shamrock to symbolize the Trinity.
