MARCH 10, 2019 FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT

Readings

First Reading: (Deuteronomy 26: 4-10) Each year the Hebrew people came before the Lord to offer the first fruits of the harvest. They remembered that their forefathers were nomads, but God had chosen them to be his own people. In humility, they pledged to serve him. Let us recall God's blessings to us, and pledge to serve him loyally.

Second Reading: (Romans 10: 8-13) Faith means fidelity and loyalty. Faith is not lip service nor a mere assent of the mind. It is a commitment of our entire personality to Christ. Let us pledge our loyalty to Christ; this faith will save us.

Gospel Reading: (Luke 4: 1-13) After his baptism, Jesus went to the desert to fast and pray. After forty days, he was tempted. Our own baptism does not free us from struggle and temptation; like Jesus, we shall be tempted until our dying day. In the strength of his example and grace, we can overcome temptation.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

Anyone who makes the Lenten journey is called to be more alert to the attacks on human life and dignity around them. The people of life are called to reject sin and all the devil's works and empty promises (Renewal of Baptismal Promises, Easter Liturgy). The "pro-choice" and "right to die" mentalities are two of those "empty promises" which are firmly rejected by the baptized. A firm rejection of these positions is integral to repentance. Lent is the perfect time for us to call our congregations to a clearer understanding of why this is true, and to lead them to a deeper affirmation of life, both natural and eternal, in the celebration of the Paschal Mystery.

An Act of Faith to Pray Daily

Oh my God, I firmly believe that You are one God in three Divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I believe that Your Divine Son became man and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because You have revealed them, Who can neither deceive nor be deceived. Amen

Announcements

Congratulations to Andy and Shelby Lyons on their wedding here at St. Aloysius Saturday, March 2nd. May your marriage bring you blessings throughout your lives.

 Formation in the Faith Class. This class will be offered for those who have never taken a class about their faith and those who would like to know more about what is believed and lived out in the Catholic Church; those who would like to come into full communion in the Catholic Church or know what the Church teaches; those who have not been baptized; or those baptized but have not been Confirmed or those who have not made their First Communion. The class will meet in the Religious Education Center at 7:00pm. On Thursdays during Lent, starting March 7. The class will go over the basic teachings of Christianity as lived out and practiced in the Catholic Church, as taught in the Sacred Scripture, the Catechism, looking at our traditions, why we do what we do and what it means to be a Catholic in the 21st century. Please call the parish office to register, 683-4620. This class is open also to those who are already Catholics that may want to learn more about their faith. Lent is a good time to deepen our faith by learning more about the faith we practice and about our life as Catholics.

 Deepest sympathy is extended to Joel Christofferson upon the passing of his mother, Dorothea Christofferson. May Dorothea's soul rest in eternal peace with our creator.

Stewardship Moment

"I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me." (DEUTERONOMY 26:10)

This line from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you give to God from your "first fruits", the best that you have to offer, or do you give from what is leftover? Second, do you recognize that everything you have has been given to you by God? Ask God for a grateful and generous heart, every day, in all circumstances.
