Readings

First Reading: (Isaiah 43: 16-21) Our first reading describes the joy of the Jews at their liberation from captivity in Babylon. Slavery gives way to freedom. They recall how the Lord brought them through the sea in the Exodus; now the desert will bloom and be well-watered. As we listen to the reading, let us reflect on the meaning of our baptism.

Second Reading: (Philippians 3: 8-14) St. Paul was suffering in prison at Ephesus when he wrote today's epistle. His friends had abandoned him. He was quite alone. Yet he counts everything as garbage when compared to salvation in Christ. He knows that if he shares Christ's sufferings, he will also share his glory.

Gospel Reading: (John 8: 1-11) Our gospel today is the story of the woman caught in the act of adultery. If we ever hesitate or doubt whether God can forgive our many sins, we should remember this story! But we should also remember to go a step further. If God shows mercy to us, we must also show mercy to each other.

confidence in God's mercy and forgiveness. Even when we were God's enemies, God loved us; he constantly seeks us out to forgive us, even when we do not deserve his mercy.

Pro-Life Corner
Fresh Commitment to Life...

Cardinal Justin Rigali, in the annual Mass for Life in Washington DC in 2007, commented on the Roe vs. Wade decision that legalized abortion on January 22, 1973. He called it a “misguided use of judicial power exercised in the name of the authority resting in the people of the United States of America.” He went on to say, “Each passing year confirms us in the pain of recognizing the violence inflicted upon millions and millions of unborn children and even partially born children in our land. It is important that this truth be acknowledged, that repentance be sincere, and that effective means be taken to stop this grotesque tragedy, while preventing it from being repeated in the future. At the same time each passing year confirms us in new hope for the future. As people of prayer, we are moved by the words of Saint Paul, who says: “...we have set our hope on the living God” (1 Tim 4:10). The word of God and His commandments encourage us in our efforts, and they certainly inspire the rising generation to form new attitudes and assume a fresh commitment to the cause of life.”

An Act of Faith to Pray Daily

Oh my God, I firmly believe that You are one God in three Divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I believe that Your Divine Son became man and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because You have revealed them, Who can neither deceive nor be deceived. Amen

St. James Basilica Tabernacle spiritual program: RETURN: How to Draw Your Child Back to the Church

If you're Catholic and reading this, you have a friend or family member (perhaps several) who has quit going to Mass regularly, and perhaps stopped practicing the faith all together. This is the cause of heartache for so many - especially parents.

Many of us wish there was some way we could help bring about our loved one's return. Some have even tried, but don't seem to get anywhere. That was the motivation for Brandon Vogt to write the book, Return: How to Draw Your Child Back to the Church. Return is essentially the one-stop-shop for exactly what the title says, drawing your child (or other loved one) back to the Catholic Church.

If you're interested in learning more about Return - and what the best practices are for bringing your fallen-away loved one back to the Church - then join us at the Basilica on Monday, April 8th, at 7 PM. Joe Hendrickx will give the key points of Return (think of this as an "Evangelization 101" crash course), as well as the resources and tips on how to bring a course like this to your parish.

Bishop John Folda, along with guides Steve and Janet Ray, will be leading a pilgrimage to the Holy Land from October 9-18th, 2019. The pilgrimage is sponsored by the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem, but the pilgrims need not be members of the Order to sign up. You need only have a desire to walk in the footsteps of our Lord and to support our fellow Christians in the Holy Land. If you are interested in more information, please contact Angie Kolb, the pilgrimage coordinator, at kolbangie@hotmail.com

Stewardship Moment

"I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me." (LUKE 22:34)

How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about Jesus or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet not to cause a disturbance? Or, do you remain quiet because you believe people will think negatively about you? Pray for the courage to speak up and enter into a respectful dialogue when the opportunity arises.
