APRIL 28, 2019 SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY

First Reading: (Acts 5: 12-16) At the Last Supper, Jesus said that he was sending his apostles forth just as his Father had sent him. The Church is to do exactly what Jesus Christ himself had done. Today's first reading tells of great signs which are worked in the Church because of the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit.

Second Reading: (Revelation 1: 9-11a, 12-13, 17-19) The Book of Revelation is the most misunderstood book in the entire Bible. It is not a collection of strange predictions for our times. It is a proclamation that Christ will triumph over all evils in this world. His triumph has begun even now in his resurrection; it will be completed when he comes again in glory.

Gospel: (John 20: 19-31) The story of the gospel is the conversion of doubting Thomas; this is one of the greatest "proofs" of Jesus' resurrection. But the gospel also proclaims that the Church is to do what Christ had done. The Lord empowers his apostles to forgive sins; he gives them his Holy Spirit.

Genesis 1:28: “And God blessed them, and God said to them, ‘Be fertile and multiply.’”

Nothing says it as concisely: we are ordered by the God of the Universe to be as fertile as the soil and plants he laid upon the Earth, to multiply as a sign of our fruitfulness.

Oh my God, I firmly believe that You are one God in three Divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I believe that Your Divine Son became man and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because You have revealed them, Who can neither deceive nor be deceived. Amen

Stewardship Moment

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'" (JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be grateful and generous. Look for opportunities to share His peace, not only within our local parish boundaries, but outside of them as well. In giving, we receive the peace of Jesus Christ.
