AUGUST 11, 2019 NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING — (Wisdom 18: 6-9) The Old Testament book of Wisdom was written during a time when God's people in Alexandria, Egypt, were distracted by the entertainments and pleasures of life. Wisdom reminds the people that God delivered them from slavery in Egypt and made them a pilgrim people. God's very own.

SECOND READING — (Hebrews 11: 1-2, 8-19 or 11: 1-2, 8-12) If heaven is our goal, our lives must be filled with faith. We must have conviction about our purpose in life. Even when we do not understand the events of our lives, we must be a people of absolute fidelity to God, with joyful confidence that he will be faithful to us.

GOSPEL — (Luke 12: 32-48 or 12: 35-40) If the purpose of our life is union with God, we must live each day for God. We must watch and pray that everything in life is done to please God. We must be ready for eternity at every moment. Whatever is done for a worldly purpose will fade and decay; whatever is done for God will become a treasure in eternity.

Pro-Life Corner

Pope Benedict XVI has stated, “I feel the duty to affirm yet again that not all that is scientifically possible is also ethically licit. Technology, when it reduces the human being to an object of experimentation, results in abandoning the weak subject to the arbitration of the stronger. To blindly entrust oneself to technology as the only guarantee of progress, without offering at the same time an ethical code that penetrates its roots in that same reality under study and development, would be equal to doing violence to human nature with devastating consequences for all. The contribution of scientists is of primary importance. Together with the progress of our capacity to dominate nature, scientists must also contribute to help understand the depth of our responsibility for man and for nature entrusted to him.”

An Act of Faith to Pray Daily

Oh my God, I firmly believe that You are one God in three Divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I believe that Your Divine Son became man and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because You have revealed them, Who can neither deceive nor be deceived. Amen

Stewardship Moment

"For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." LUKE 12:34

Jesus encourages us to build up our treasure in heaven. The world encourages us to build up our treasure in real estate, investments, and material goods. How much time are you investing in building up a worldly treasure? How much time are you investing in building up a heavenly treasure? To invest more time in the things of heaven, you must let go of some of the things of this world.
