SEPTEMBER 22, 2019 TWENTY FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING — (Amos 8: 4-7) The prophet Amos was a poor country shepherd from southern Palestine. Eight centuries before Christ, God called Amos to prophesy to the rich and sophisticated northern kingdom of Israel. Amos angrily cries out against social injustice.

SECOND READING — (1 Timothy 2: 1-8) St. Paul urges us to pray for everyone, but especially those who are powerful. The powerful have more temptations to avarice and other vices. We must never be jealous of them, but must unselfishly and blamelessly pray for all.

GOSPEL (Luke 16: 1-13 or 16: 10-13) As we listen to the words of today's gospel, let us ask ourselves what our real values in life are. What it comes right down to is, our actions show what our goals are. If we show by action that we value the things money can buy more than we value our faith, we are serving a false master.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

“Brother kills brother. Like the first fratricide, every murder is a violation of the "spiritual" kinship uniting mankind in one great family, in which all share the same fundamental good: equal personal dignity. Not infrequently the kinship "of flesh and blood" is also violated; for example when threats to life arise within the relationship between parents and children, such as happens in abortion or when, in the wider context of family or kinship, euthanasia is encouraged or practiced”
(John Paul II, The Gospel of Life, n.8).

An Act of Faith to Pray Daily

Oh my God, I firmly believe that You are one God in three Divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I believe that Your Divine Son became man and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because You have revealed them, Who can neither deceive nor be deceived. Amen

Stewardship Moment

'No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth).' - LUKE 16:13

Is money a "god" that you put before God? Giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from being a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need.
