OCTOBER 6, 2019 TWENTY SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING — (Habakkuk 1: 2-3; 2: 2-4) The prophet Habakkuk wondered why God's chosen people should suffer at the hands of the wicked. True, God's people were wicked; they had sinned. But why should the all-good God use the wicked to punish them? God seemed unjust. But the answer is that God permits evil only for a good purpose; God never wills evil. Through everything, the person of faith will conquer.

SECOND READING — (2 Timothy 1: 6-8, 13-14) A disciple can easily get discouraged when tragedies strike his teacher. Paul had baptized Timothy and ordained him a priest. Paul even calls Timothy his dear son in the Lord. But when Paul was shamefully treated and imprisoned, Timothy's faith weakened. Today, Paul exhorts Timothy — and us — to be strong in the faith, no matter what hardships come our way.

GOSPEL — (Luke 17: 5-10) A mustard seed is very small. Yet today Jesus tells us that if we have faith the size of a mustard seed, we could move mountains. We are weak, unprofitable servants; but the Lord is powerful. Let us renew our faith in his strength.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

"When number nineteen came, the family gives him love. He got so much love from the family. When you have a large family, the children are getting all kinds of love from all their brothers and sisters. There's nothing more joyful than a baby. For every little mouth that God sends, He sends the little bit that is needed. I had faith in God that if He sent me a child, He was going to feed that child. I lived better than some families with two or three kids. My kids started doing things! It's not how many kids you have; it's your faith in God."

- Mrs. Lucille Dippolito, mother of 20.

An Act of Faith to Pray Daily

Oh my God, I firmly believe that You are one God in three Divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I believe that Your Divine Son became man and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because You have revealed them, Who can neither deceive nor be deceived. Amen

Stewardship Moment

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." - 2 TIMOTHY 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything, all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party, at work or out shopping, would your actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?
