OCTOBER 13, 2019 TWENTY EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING — (2 Kings 5: 14-17) Naaman the leper was a foreigner and a pagan. He was an army general accustomed to discipline and protocol. When he asked to be cured of his leprosy, he thought that Elisha would come out to him, be impressed and then do something spectacular. Instead, the prophet asked him to wash in the dirty Jordan River. Reluctantly Naaman obeyed; because of his humble faith, he was healed.

SECOND READING — (2 Timothy 2: 8-13) If Christ has risen from the dead, our lives must be different. If he has given us every grace and blessing, he expects us to be faithful even though we may be called upon to endure hardships. If we are willing to die with him, we shall live with him. But if, by our indifferent lives, we deny him, then he will deny us.

GOSPEL INTRODUCTION — (Luke 17: 11-19) The "good news" today tells of the healing of ten lepers. But the real good news comes at the end of the story where only one person, a Samaritan, returns to thank Jesus. His humble gratitude brings about a spiritual healing as well as a bodily cure. God's people are those who hear his word and respond to it with wholehearted and humble faith.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

"When number nineteen came, the family gives him love. He got so much love from the family. When you have a large family, the children are getting all kinds of love from all their brothers and sisters. There's nothing more joyful than a baby. For every little mouth that God sends, He sends the little bit that is needed. I had faith in God that if He sent me a child, He was going to feed that child. I lived better than some families with two or three kids. My kids started doing things! It's not how many kids you have; it's your faith in God."

— Mrs. Lucille Dippolito, mother of 20.

An Act of Faith to Pray Daily

Oh my God, I firmly believe that You are one God in three Divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I believe that Your Divine Son became man and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because You have revealed them, Who can neither deceive nor be deceived. Amen

Stewardship Moment

"Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" - LUKE 17:18

Most of us live "easy" lives. We have food, shelter and clothing. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you.
