OCTOBER 27, 2019 THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING — (Sirach 35: 12-14, 16-18) God does not care whether we are rich or poor, old or young, strong or weak, influential or powerless. God simply cares for those who are humble. God reads the heart, and not the words or externals. Today's first reading is from one of the books of the wisdom literature. True wisdom is to learn to be humble.

SECOND READING — (2 Timothy 4: 6-8, 16-18) We lose nothing when we lose ourselves in God. For he is our strength. He promises us a crown of glory if we shall empty ourselves to follow him. Today's second reading describes the last days of St. Paul's life. He has been abandoned by everyone. He is in prison. He has endured many hardships for the gospel, but he is confident that God will give him the crown of everlasting life.

GOSPEL — (Luke 18: 9-14) Today's gospel is the famous parable of the Pharisee and the Publican. Pharisees were renowned for being good and religious. Publicans were notoriously corrupt sinners. Yet God resists the hypocrisy of the Pharisee in favor of the humility of the Publican.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

"When number nineteen came, the family gives him love. He got so much love from the family. When you have a large family, the children are getting all kinds of love from all their brothers and sisters. There's nothing more joyful than a baby. For every little mouth that God sends, He sends the little bit that is needed. I had faith in God that if He sent me a child, He was going to feed that child. I lived better than some families with two or three kids. My kids started doing things! It's not how many kids you have; it's your faith in God."

— Mrs. Lucille Dippolito, mother of 20.

All Saints Day, also known as All Hallows' Day, or Halloween, is a Christian celebration in honor of all the saints from Christian history. In Western Christianity, it is observed on November 1st by the Roman Catholic Church, the Methodist Church, the Lutheran Church, and other Protestant denominations. The Eastern Orthodox Church and associated Eastern Catholic churches observe All Saints Day on the first Sunday following Pentecost.

The Christian festival of All Saints Day comes from a conviction that there is a spiritual connection between those in Heaven and on Earth. In Catholic tradition, the holiday honors all those who have passed on to the Kingdom of Heaven. It is a national holiday in numerous historically Catholic countries. In Methodist tradition, All Saints Day relates to giving God earnest gratitude for the lives and deaths of his saints, remembering those who were well-known and not. Additionally, individuals throughout Christian history are celebrated, such as Peter the Apostle and Charles Wesley,

Stewardship Moment

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." - LUKE 18:14

Pride and ego is the root cause of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable, your talent is better than anyone else and your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Remember all those gifts were God-given. Instead we should be humbled by God's abundant generosity and our hearts should overflow with gratitude.
