DECEMBER 15, 2019 SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

FIRST READING — (Isaiah 35: 1-6a, 10) Our first reading is taken from the portion of Isaiah which was written near the end of the Babylonian Captivity. The author expected the immediate coming of the Messiah, who would make all things perfect. The blind would see; the deaf would hear; the lame would walk; the desert would bloom.

SECOND READING — (James 5: 7-10) The farmer does not see the grain until harvest time, but he has faith and hope that it is coming. We do not see every aspect of God's plan for us, yet we know that he is good and gracious. We must always have patience while we wait for the Lord with hope.

GOSPEL — (Matthew 11: 2-11) John the Baptist thought that the end of history was at hand, and that the decisive intervention of God would destroy all evil. When John was in prison and nothing seems to be happening, he gets discouraged. That is the context of today's gospel.

An Act of Faith to Pray Daily

Oh my God, I firmly believe that You are one God in three Divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I believe that Your Divine Son became man and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because You have revealed them, Who can neither deceive nor be deceived. Amen

Stewardship Moment

“You too must be patient. Make your hearts firm, because the coming of the Lord is at hand.” JAMES 5:8

Patience is another one of those things many of us struggle with. We want things to go according to our plan and our schedule. Any change brings anxiety and fear. Through daily prayer we better align ourselves with God's will and His plan, which is far better than anything we can come up with on our own.
