LIVE HOPE. PROMOTE PEACE.

Have you ever known a moment when, just for a brief instant, you felt that all was right with the world? It is just such a moment, stretched into eternity, that the writer of Isaiah describes in today's first reading: the perfection of everything, centered in God's spirit, where knowledge, justice, and awe in God's presence reign. In such a paradise, everyone sees eye to eye and thinks in harmony with each other, as Saint Paul describes in his letter to the Romans. Even animals with a natural animosity toward one another coexist peacefully. John the Baptist understood that such harmonious relationships do not simply happen. They are the fruit of living in right relationship with God and others.

THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN IS AT HAND

Knowing Jesus as the One for whom the people of God have longed helps us to understand John the Baptist's strong words to the Pharisees and Sadducees in today's Gospel passage. They had the responsibility to lead the people toward right relationship with God and others, and instead had failed to produce the fruits of faithful living themselves. John did not prevent them from approaching him for the baptism of repentance, but asked them to turn their lives more faithfully to God and live accordingly. John understood himself as the forerunner of the One for whom the people had been waiting—the one upon whom the spirit of the Lord rests, the spirit of wisdom, understanding, counsel and strength, knowledge and fear of the Lord.

In Advent, we prepare our hearts and minds for the coming of the Lord. Not that Jesus has not already come, or that the Lord is not already in our midst; rather, we take this season to appreciate in a new and fuller way that God's coming as a child in Bethlehem and Christ's promised return are about the establishment of the kingdom of God—already in our midst and yet not known in its fullness until the Lord returns in glory.

December 29 on the Feast of the Holy Family

Is the Holy Family a model that your family aspires to? Do you want your family to be guided by the examples of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph in living out your daily lives ? If so, consecrate your family to the Holy Family.

The formal Consecration Ceremony will be done at the Sunday masses on the Feast of the Holy Family Week-end of December 28-29, 2019. Please contact the Parish Office at 408-251-7055 to have your family included in the list for consecration.

How to prepare for a Consecration to the Holy Family

Preparation for a Consecration to the Holy Family involves deciding that you are not only dedicating your family to the Holy Family's intercession but also acknowledging that your family is sacred.

The decision to consecrate your family needs to be intentional and a process through which you completely surrender your family to God through the Holy Family. You are accepting the truth that salvation history was changed forever by a family and that through your domestic church, you are called to exemplify their example.

Four suggested steps before Praying the Consecration to the Holy Family:

1. Discuss the importance of this consecration as a family and why you are doing it.
2. Each member of your family is strongly encouraged to go to the Sacrament of Confession.
3. As a family, intentionally choose something to fast from. The fast can be for at least a week. As our physical bodies are drawn to things of the world, it is strongly encouraged that you fast from something that you would normally do or consume. Fasting helps to discipline our minds and hearts to refrain from secular activities and be more focused on God.
4. Prepare for the commitment you are making. Consecration to the Holy Family is not a single event. You have chosen a way of life for your family. You and your family are consciously choosing to be a beacon of light of God's love through His Church.

PREPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD

We continue to make our Advent chain. Read one strip each day and talk about the questions with your family. Color the strips, cut them out, and add them to your chain.

December 8

"A shoot . . . from the stump of Jesse" (Isaiah 11:1). Jesse was an ancestor of Jesus' family. Name some of your family members.

December 9

Today we celebrate Mary, the Mother of Jesus. Gather with your family and pray the Hail Mary together.

December 10

"Prepare the way of the Lord" (Matthew 3:1-4). How are you preparing the way for Jesus this Advent?

December 11

"He shall have pity for the lowly and the poor" (Psalm 72:13). How does your family reach out to the poor at Christmas time?

December 12

Our Lady of Guadalupe. Mary visited Juan Diego. Whom do you visit with at Christmastime? Say a prayer for each one.

December 13

St. Lucy's Day, a celebration of light! Lucy's name means light. Light candles at dinner tonight. Finish with a fancy dessert.

December 14

We must "produce good fruit," that is, good works. What good works have you produced as you prepare for Christmas?

Letters from Heaven

Start with the letter in the shaded square. Draw a path from letter to letter to complete the Biblical statement. Move one square at a time, up, down, right, left and diagonally until all letters are used once. Ignore any black squares.

John the Baptist said,
"Repent, for the kingdom ..."
