Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each year, the Church in the United States observes January 22 as a Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. January 22 marks the anniversary of the ruling on Roe v. Wade, the Supreme Court case which struck down many state and federal laws prohibiting abortion, in effect legalizing abortion in the United States. The case was decided in 1973.

In all the Dioceses of the United States of America, January 22 (or January 23, when January 22 falls on a Sunday) shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, #373).

Note that this is a day of prayer and of penance. This day should have a penitential character or feel in our lives, similar to that of Ash Wednesday or Good Friday. It is a day of mourning and sadness. It is a day to pause and to consider what happened on this day in 1973 and what has happened since. Over 60 million lives have been lost through abortion since 1973.

How might you observe this day in your families? The traditional penitential practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving would be appropriate. We offer prayers to God asking for the Holy Spirit to change hearts in our nation on this issue, and we also offer penances as expressions of our sorrow for those who have been harmed (parents, family members, survivors) and for those who have died. Penance costs us something. It would be a good day to do some prayerful research on this uncomfortable topic and to talk about it with our children and grandchildren.

I would also offer a gentle reminder. Many people who have an abortion do so out of fear. They deeply regret it later. They experience great shame, guilt, and pain. As a priest, I have witnessed their pain and remorse, and I cringe when I hear someone speak in a judgmental manner about “people who have had an abortion.” If they only knew they were speaking about their friend standing right next to them, they would have said it differently. There is a difference between condemning the sin of abortion and condemning a person who has had an abortion.

If abortion has touched your life, I invite you to make an appointment to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation and to experience God’s love and mercy. You are not the sum of your sins and failings. You are the sum of the Father’s love for you (St. John Paul II). You are a beloved son or daughter of God. Healing is possible. God desires it for you. Come to Him.

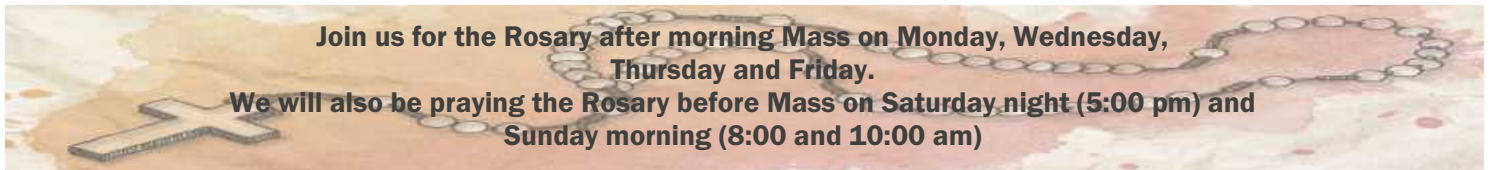

Blessings,
Fr. Matt

MANAGING GOD'S GIFTS TO US

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?'" - John 1:38

What are you looking for? Are you wasting your time looking for the material comforts of the world? Or, is your heart longing for something deeper that can only be found by spending time with God? Take time, each day, in silence and ask the Lord what it is that He wants you to do.

Support the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa

This week, we take up the collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. The people of Africa are joyous and faith-filled, but they also face challenges due to poverty, high rates of disease, food shortages, and migration. This collection is an opportunity to stand with the people of Africa and support pastoral projects that this continent so needs. Please be generous today. To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/africa.

Christ Is Anything but Ordinary

We're about to dive headlong into week two of Ordinary Time, and we need to admit, after the hustle and bustle of the holidays, things are indeed looking more ... ordinary, at least in our spiritual lives.

The transcendent highs of the Christmas season are flatlining a bit and the vivid imagery of the Nativity scene has faded. The solemn anticipation of the Advent season is by now a distant memory.

Are you bored yet? Here's a secret: I think that Ordinary Time can actually be quite extraordinary, if we're really living out our baptismal call.

In today's Gospel, Jesus point-blank asks Andrew, who is following him after hearing John the Baptist's testimony: "What are you looking for?" He's asking us the same question.

What are you looking for? Why are you following me? Is it for the Christmas cookies and the Advent carols? Is it for the King's Cake on the Epiphany? Is it for the feeling we get on Christmas when we just know God has done a wondrous thing?

None of those things are bad, but they are not what Andrew was looking for, and they were not what Christ promised him when he said, "Come, and you will see." Andrew was looking for the Messiah — the One who makes even Ordinary Time extraordinary. The One who can sanctify the longest and dullest of to-do lists, on the longest and dullest of days. The One whose peace can reign in our homes on January 25, not just December 25.

Remember what you are looking for. Come, and you will see.

The Year of St. Joseph

Benefits of Turning to Joseph

Dr. Mike Scherschligt

One

Why is this Year of St Joseph and devotion to him so important and what does it mean to consecrate oneself to Joseph? God's plan is to create a family in which all the members play their specific part and take care of one another. God gives us the immense dignity of being His adopted sons and daughters and the further dignity of sharing in and expressing his power and goodness by helping one another. In God's plan Mary would be not only the Mother of Jesus, but also the Spiritual Mother of all those who have Jesus dwelling in them – all believers. Joseph was the father, protector and provider of Jesus. He continues to care for Jesus in us if we turn to him. Those who use their free will and turn to Mary and Joseph receive the benefit of their maternal and paternal care. We are free and neither God nor his saints or angels will force their help upon us. When we consecrate ourselves to Joseph, saying yes to and accepting God's plan to take care of us through a spiritual family, then we open ourselves up to all of Joseph's care. As a divine person, the Son of God made a conscious decision to place himself under the obedience, care and protection of Joseph. In imitation of Jesus, we make the same choice by consecration to Joseph and receive in return the care of this illustrious spiritual father.

Two

The Seven Privileges of St Joseph according to Mary of Agreda I have been informed concerning certain privileges conferred upon St. Joseph by the Most High on account of his great holiness, which are especially important to those who ask his intercession in a proper manner. In virtue of these special privileges the intercession of St. Joseph is most powerful: First, for attaining the virtue of purity and overcoming the disordered desires and vices; Second, for procuring powerful help to escape sin and return to the friendship of God; Third, for increasing the love and devotion to most holy Mary; Fourth, for securing the grace of a happy death and protection against the demons in that hour; Fifth, for filling the demons with terror at the mere mention of his name; Sixth, for gaining health of body and assistance in all kinds of difficulties; Seventh, for securing the blessing of many children in families. From Teresa of Avila we can add an 8th, Joseph is the patron of the spiritual life and will help you become better at prayer and enjoy it more.

Three

Pope Benedict XVI explains the spiritual life of St Joseph The Bible calls Joseph a "just" man (zaddik)...Psalm 1 presents the classic image of the "just" man. We might well think of it as a portrait of the spiritual figure of Saint Joseph. A just man, it tells us, is one who maintains living contact with the word of God, who "delights in the law of the Lord". He is like a tree, planted beside the flowing waters, constantly bringing forth fruit. The flowing waters, from which he draws nourishment, naturally refer to the living word of God, into which he sinks the roots of his being. God's will is not a law imposed on him from without, it is "joy"... This image of the man with roots in the living waters of God's word, whose life is spent in dialogue with God and who therefore brings forth constant fruit—this image becomes concrete...in everything we are subsequently told about Joseph of Nazareth. Once Jesus is born, Joseph imagine the amount of time Joseph spent with Jesus. Talking to Jesus, listening to Jesus, working with Jesus, eating, taking walks, working through problems, laughing, facing difficulties and just being with Jesus sitting silently by the fire. Because Joseph spent so much time with Jesus and knows him so well Joseph is the patron of the spiritual life. In this decade entrust your spiritual life and all your difficulties in prayer to Joseph.

Four

Pope Francis wrote: Prayer is Resting in the Lord. Rest is so necessary for the health of our minds and bodies, and often so difficult to achieve due to the many demands placed on us. But rest is also essential for our spiritual health, so that we can hear God's voice and understand what he asks of us. Joseph was chosen by God to be the foster father of Jesus and the husband of Mary. As Christians, you too are called, like Joseph, to make a home for Jesus...To hear and accept God's call, to make a home for Jesus, you must be able to rest in the Lord. You must make time each day for prayer. But you may say to me: Holy Father, I want to pray, but there is so much work to do! I must care for my children; I have chores in the home; I am too tired even to sleep well. This may be true, but if we do not pray, we will not know the most important thing of all: God's will for us. And for all our activity, our busy-ness, without prayer we will accomplish very little.

Five

Joy or delight means to rest in or take pleasure in the good thing you possess. We should not just gobble up a good meal, or slam a nice glass of wine or be anxious to move on from a good conversation with an old friend. We should rest in, relax in and savor the good things of life. Delight is to rest in the good. The greatest Good we should not rush through but delight in is friendship with God. Just as we don't want to rush through these lesser goods we don't want to rush through time with God. Here we must learn from Joseph's life and Joseph's rest to learn to relax with Jesus and to spend time with Him in prayer. The Rosary is a great start. But allow yourself to spend more time with Jesus in a leisurely fashion – talking from the heart, listening and resting in stillness and silence. Once you possess God in prayer – there is nothing greater to get or to do and nowhere more important to go. Once you are in prayer you have reached the pinnacle of human life – so stay on the mountain top and rest a while and soak it in.

Faith Formation

Family Spotlight

2020 has brought a lot of challenges and uncertainties, but one thing remains the same....we are all a family of Jesus Christ. St. Mother Teresa said herself, "if you want to change the world and promote peace, go home and love your family."

At Sacred Heart we have missed our gatherings of families and community. We will continue to showcase the families who make Sacred Heart Catholic Church such a beautiful community to be a part of.

Please submit your family information by going to <https://forms.gle/xTxveEta3aTSSxh9> and then email Mollie at mbye@sacredheartegf.net with your family picture. We miss you and can't wait until we can gather as one again!

Family

SPOTLIGHT

The Bye & Moser Family
Joe, Mollie, Lauren, McKinlee

Raising our children in the Catholic faith is important because without understanding life outside ourselves, we tend to get lost. It's important to lead our children in building a relationship with Christ and ultimately help get them to heaven!

We promote our faith as a family by attending Mass together, daily prayer with intentions, partnering with Jesus with our parenting, and celebrating the liturgical calendar throughout the year.

A couple of our favorite saints are Padre Pio and St. Nicholas. St. Nicholas for the obvious reasons although it's helped us understand giving more graciously and Padre Pio because of his intercession on mom's anxiety

Youth Volunteering

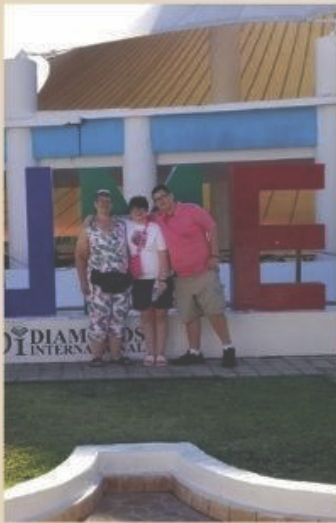

On Wednesday, January 6, 2021 six of Sacred Heart parish youth went to the North Country Food bank to pack boxes. They packed 150 boxes in an hour.

Please contact Mollie Bye in the parish office if you or your child are interested in volunteering and for more information.

Family

SPOTLIGHT

The Guzman Family
Jessica, Jesse, & Olivia

It's important to raise our family Catholic so we can grow closer to God and be with our Parish family.

We promote our faith and dedication to Jesus by attending Mass weekly and talking about our faith as a family.

Our favorite Saints are St. John Paul II & St. Mother Teresa because they were both influential in the faith!

Lent

is quickly approaching and we will be offering a parish-wide Lent study on "Presence" by Formed. Please watch for more information to come. Stations of the Cross will continue to be Wednesday's, however Religious Education will not be leading these this year due to COVID. We are searching for volunteers to read for Stations each week, contact Mollie for more information and/or to sign-up to help.

Missionary-Discipleship ● Servant-Leadership

JPII and Saint Teresa camps are looking for service team members for youth entering grades 11 & 12 this fall. Service team applications will go live the same day as the designated camps.

Saint Teresa of Calcutta goes live on Tuesday, January 26th at 9:00AM. JPII registration goes live on Tuesday, February 2 at 9:00AM.

This is a wonderful opportunity for youth to not only collect service hours, but build leadership and teamworking skills as well as building their relationship with Jesus.

Also, any youth over the age of 18 is eligible to be a staff member at either camp. Staff members have a different role than service team, as they are leading small groups and helping with the day to day supervision of all on site. Please contact Mollie for more information!

Parish

For all Liturgical Ministers, Pam Zimbelman has volunteered to assist me in managing the Ministry Scheduler Pro software.

Pam will take over profile management, communications regarding the schedule and filling vacancies prior to the Masses each weekend. I will assist her as needed and still oversee introducing new volunteers to Liturgical ministry, but you can expect emails, calls and texts to begin coming from Pam instead of me. Pam will be using the ministry email associated with our scheduler program: shministries@sacredheartegf.net. Please send all communications to this email.

Liturgical ministry will be using cell phone number 701-732-0629 for text communication. If you prefer to communicate via text messages, please add this number to your contacts and name it "Sacred Heart Liturgical Ministry" for easy identification. Both Pam and I will use this number as needed to reach ministers.

If you have questions or modifications to make on your ministry profile or to change dates for your scheduled ministry, Pam will now handle all those communications. General questions about ministry and Liturgy can still be directed to me.

Thank you, Pam, for volunteering to fill this ministry!

In Christ,
Daniel Ewens

Location of Blessed Sacrament

Question: Why do parishes have the Blessed Sacrament in a separate room?

Answer: While many Catholics of a certain age have memories of the Blessed Sacrament being housed in the tabernacle on the high altar of the church, many parishes in the decades since the Second Vatican Council have chosen to build a separate space — a reservation chapel — where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. Although this practice is not universal, it is in keeping with the guidance offered by the US Bishops in their document Built of Living Stones (see nos 77-78). The goal is to create a space that is separated from the nave and sanctuary, but which is “integrally connected with the church” which can foster “reverence and can provide the quiet and focus needed for personal prayer.” This can be especially important for communities that have continuous eucharistic adoration, allowing people to come and pray in a space separate from the normal activities of parish life.

The practice of reserving the Eucharist in a separate space — or in a dignified location away from the altar where Mass is celebrated — is that it emphasizes the importance of the liturgy itself, which is the “source and summit” of the life of the Church.

As with many things in the Church, the practice of placing the tabernacle in the sanctuary or in a separate chapel is not universal (as can be seen in visits to historic churches in Rome and other places). The important thing is that as communities question where to place the tabernacle, they listen to the voice of the Church, explore the ancient and varied liturgical tradition of the Church, consider the needs and life of the community, and also take into account the architecture and limits of the spaces they might already have.

SHS FACT #31

Thanks to a partnership with Choice Bank, Sacred Heart offers a Business and Finance Literacy program for students in grades 7-12th that delivers a values based business education. Learn more at www.sacredheartegf.net/bvp

Business & Values PROGRAM

"Education gives you great information and facts. Choice is here to help close a gap that often exists between the facts learned and the real world application."

- Samantha Berg, Choice Bank

Choice Bank's Samantha Berg joins the Sacred Heart classrooms providing supplement material from a business perspective.
