STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

“Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.” (1 CORINTHIANS 10:17)

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other's relationship with God the Father, Jesus and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our roadmap to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!

Protect, Pray, Heal

Loving God, Source of all Creation, we praise and thank you for the life you give each of us. Teach us to treasure this sacred trust.

In this difficult and challenging time for our world, we ask that you open our eyes to the needs of those around us, especially those who have no one to care for them.

Protect us from fear and anxiety that sometimes forces us to care only for ourselves and not others.

Help us to realize that all people are your special creations and help us to cherish and respect them and help us to respect our Mother Earth, our universal home.

Confirm in us our power to do good so that we are instruments of your peace in our troubled world.

We pray all this with great trust, placing our lives in your hands. May Mary our Mother present our needs to your loving care now and always. Amen.

A Prayer for Fathers

*Heavenly Father,
You entrusted Your Son Jesus,
the child of Mary,
to the care of Joseph, an earthly father.*

*Bless all fathers
as they care for their families.
Give them strength and wisdom,
tenderness and patience;
Support them in the work they have to do,
Protecting those who look to them, as we look to you for love and salvation,
Through Jesus Christ our rock and defender.
Amen.*

Advice to fathers over fifty: Keep an open mind and a closed refrigerator.
