Novena to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

(Solemnity: Friday, June 19, 2020/ Pray for 9 consecutive days)

I. O my Jesus, You have said: "Truly I say to you, ask and you will receive, seek and you will find, knock and it will be opened to you." Behold I knock, I seek and ask for the grace of... (here name your request) Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be to the Father... Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in You.

II. O my Jesus, You have said: "Truly I say to you, if you ask anything of the Father in My name, He will give it to you." Behold, in Your name, I ask the Father for the grace of... (here name your request) Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be to the Father... Sacred Heart of

III. O my Jesus, You have said: "Truly I say to you, heaven and earth will pass away but My words will not pass away." Encouraged by Your infallible words I now ask for the grace of... (here name your request) Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be to the Father... Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in You.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, for whom it is impossible not to have compassion on the afflicted, have pity on us miserable sinners and grant us the grace which we ask of You, through the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, Your tender Mother and ours. Say the Hail, Holy Queen and add: "St. Joseph, foster father of Jesus, pray for us."

Manna in the desert, water from a rock, bread, wine. God provides food to nourish our bodies and our souls, to bring us into union with the Divine. This is what we celebrate on this Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. The Israelites who journeyed through the desert for forty years knew physical hunger, but they were also hungry for more—they needed to know that God was with them as they made their way through the dangerous desert. We too experience hunger. We need to be assured that the Lord is with us as we navigate the circumstances of our lives, some of which feel dangerous, if not to our bodies, certainly to our spirit. Our participation in the Eucharist provides this assurance and more: fed with Christ's Body and Blood, we are drawn into communion with Christ and one another.

FOOD FOR THE JOURNEY

The Israelites who journeyed through the desert were fleeing slavery and certain death. But along the way, they encountered serpents and scorpions and experienced great hunger and thirst. God fed them with manna and quenched from a rock. TODAY'S READINGS:

FIRST READING — Never forget the LORD your God, who brought you out of slavery (Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a).

RESPONSORIAL PSALM — Praise the Lord, Jerusalem (Psalm 147).

SECOND READING — Because the loaf of bread is one, we who partake of it, though we are many, are one body (1 Corinthians 10:16-17).

GOSPEL — "I am the living bread; whoever eats this bread will live forever" (John 6:51-58).

Maná en el desierto, agua de una roca, pan, vino. Dios provee comida para nutrir nuestros cuerpos y nuestras almas, para unirnos con lo Divino. Esto es lo que celebramos en esta solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Los israelitas que viajaron por el desierto durante cuarenta años conocían el hambre física, pero también tenían hambre de más; necesitaban saber que Dios estaba con ellos mientras atravesaban el peligroso desierto. Nosotros también experimentamos hambre. Necesitamos estar seguros de que el Señor está con nosotros mientras navegamos por las circunstancias de nuestras vidas, algunas de las cuales se sienten peligrosas, si no para nuestros cuerpos, ciertamente para nuestro espíritu. Nuestra participación en la Eucaristía proporciona esta seguridad y más: alimentados con el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, somos llevados a la comunión con Cristo y entre nosotros..

COMIDA PARA EL CAMINO

Los israelitas que caminaron por el desierto estaban escapando de la esclavitud y de una muerte segura. Pero durante el camino, encontraron serpientes y escorpiones y sufrieron hambruna y sed. SEGUNDA LECTURA — El pan es uno, y así nosotros, aunque somos muchos, formamos un solo cuerpo (1 Corintios 10:16-17).

St. Joseph, a model for great fathers

Imagine the arms that held Jesus as a child, the hands that guided his first steps, the lips that pressed his forehead. During the month of June when we reflect on fatherhood, St. Joseph can be an inspiration and role model for great fathers.

Great fathers give their children a healthy childhood. St. Joseph showed Jesus love, ensured he got an education in carpentry, was kept out of danger and taught him to love God.

Great fathers serve a purpose greater than themselves. St. Joseph knew he had a special role in salvation history, raising Jesus, and protecting his family. He faithfully fulfilled his role rather than serve his own needs.

Great fathers don't give up. Considering his wife was born without original sin and his son was God, St. Joseph could have given up, knowing he could never match their holiness. Instead, he used his own gifts to care for his family. These included his skills as a worker, his humility, and his deep love for Jesus and Mary.

from Scripture

Matthew 10:37-42, Discipleship: challenging but rewarding

In this Gospel passage, Jesus outlines the demands of discipleship in stark terms. First, there's the question of priorities. For the early Christians, it was illegal to be Christian and the penalty was prison, or worse. To be a follower of Jesus literally meant risking everything. Since he is God, only he is worthy to have first claim on our hearts and lives.

Being a faithful Catholic today has its challenges, too. Much of what Christ and the Church ask of us goes against much of what secular culture approves. Even without worldly temptations, we have crosses to carry. Following Christ includes taking up our crosses – never alone, but always with him.

The good news is that Jesus did what he did so we can do it too. He passed through death to eternal life, from suffering to glory, from sorrow to joy.

We will too, if we stay close to him. Each day, with his grace, we can choose to keep his commandments and remain in his love. In Heaven, we'll see clearly that it was all worth it.

Q & A

What is a cardinal in the Church?

Cardinals are bishops who elect the Pope. Traditionally, only the Roman clergy did this. Now that the Church is global, cardinals are chosen from dioceses around the world to represent the Church in the election. They live in their own dioceses but are given titles to Roman parishes. This way, they are like U.S. Senators.

There are different kinds or "levels" of cardinals. The cardinal bishops are the bishops with dioceses in Rome. This group also includes the patriarchs of Eastern Catholic Churches. Cardinal priests have dioceses outside Rome but are nominal pastors of Roman parishes. Cardinal deacons work in the Curia (papal court) full-time.

Only the Pope can choose cardinals from the bishops, priests, or deacons, but they must become consecrated bishops first. In a special ceremony, the new cardinal receives a scarlet skullcap, a four-cornered hat, and a ring that symbolizes his union with Rome. The cardinals also wear scarlet to symbolize their dedication to spreading the Faith, even to the point of shedding their blood, if necessary.

Feasts & Celebrations

June 1 - The Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church (2018). On the Cross, Jesus gave us his mother to be our mother (John 19:27). Even in Heaven, she continues to pray and care for us as our spiritual mother.

June 11 - St. Barnabas (1st Century). A contemporary of the Apostles, his name means "son of encouragement." He was a sponsor for St. Paul and accompanied him on his first evangelical journey.

June 13 - St. Anthony of Padua (1231). St. Anthony gave up a life of comfort and wealth to become a Franciscan friar. After spending many years in prayer and study, St. Anthony was asked to preach to the heretics, and used his knowledge of Scripture and theology to help convert them.

June 24 - The Nativity of St. John the Baptist (1st century). Before St. John was born, his father, Zechariah received a message from the angel Gabriel foretelling his birth. His doubt was punished by his being struck speechless until John's birth.

San José, modelo de padres excelentes

Imaginen los brazos que tuvieron a Jesús de pequeño, las manos que guiaron sus primeros pasos, los labios que besaron su frente. Cuando pensemos en la paternidad durante el mes de junio, san José puede ser inspiración y modelo para padres excelentes.

Los padres excelentes dan una infancia sana a sus hijos. San José mostró amor a Jesús, se cercióro de que aprendiera carpintería, lo protegió del peligro y le enseñó a amar a Dios.

Los padres excelentes cumplen un cometido superior a ellos. San José sabía que tenía un papel especial en la historia de la salvación educando a Jesús y protegiendo a su familia. Cumplió su papel de padre con fe, en lugar de atender a sus propias necesidades.

Los padres excelentes no se rinden. Si se tiene en cuenta que su esposa nació sin pecado original y que su hijo era Dios, san José podría haberse rendido, sabiendo que jamás podría alcanzar su santidad. En cambio usó sus propios dones para ocuparse de su familia. Entre ellos estaban sus destrezas como obrero, su humildad y su profundo amor por Jesús y María.

de las Escrituras

Mateo 10:37-42, El discipulado: exigente pero gratificante

En este pasaje evangélico, Jesús hace un resumen de las exigencias del discipulado en términos severos. En primer lugar está el asunto de las prioridades. Para los primeros cristianos, era ilegal ser cristiano y la pena era la prisión o la muerte. Ser seguidor de Cristo implicaba literalmente arriesgarlo todo. Sólo Dios es digno de ocupar el primer puesto en nuestros corazones y nuestras vidas.

Ser católico hoy también presenta retos. Mucho de lo que Cristo y la Iglesia nos piden va en contra de lo que la cultura secular aprueba. Todos tenemos una cruz, aunque no tengamos tentaciones del mundo. Seguir a Cristo incluye acarrear nuestras cruces, pero nunca solos y siempre con él.

Lo bueno es que Jesús hizo lo que hizo para que también nosotros podamos hacerlo. Pasó por la muerte a la vida eterna, del sufrimiento a la gloria, del dolor a la alegría. También lo haremos nosotros, si permanecemos cerca de él. Con su gracia, cada día Podemos elegir guardar sus mandamientos y permanecer en su amor. En el paraíso nos daremos cuenta con claridad de que todo valió la pena.

Fiestas y celebraciones

1 de junio - La Santísima Virgen María, Madre de la Iglesia (2018).

Jesús nos dio a su madre en la Cruz para que fuera nuestra madre (Juan 19:27). En el cielo continúa rezando por nosotros y cuidándonos como nuestra madre espiritual.

11 de junio - San Bernabé (siglo I). Contemporáneo de los Apóstoles, su nombre significa "hijo de la consolación". Patrocinó a san Pablo y lo acompañó en su primer viaje evangélico.

13 de junio - San Antonio de Padua (1231). San Antonio abandonó una vida de comodidades

y riqueza para hacerse fraile ranciano. Tras pasar muchos años de oración y estudio, san Antonio fue encargado de predicar a los herejes y usó sus conocimientos de las Escrituras y de teología para convertirlos.

24 de junio - Nacimiento de san Juan Bautista (siglo I). Antes de que san Juan naciera, su padre Zacarías recibió un mensaje del ángel Gabriel anunciando el nacimiento. Como dudó, fue castigado con la mudez hasta el nacimiento de Juan.

P & R ¿Qué es un cardenal en la Iglesia?

Los cardenales son los obispos que eligen al papa. Tradicionalmente, sólo el clero romano lo hacía. Ahora que la Iglesia es global, los cardenales son elegidos en las diócesis de todo el mundo para representar a la Iglesia en la elección. Viven en sus propias diócesis, pero son titulares de parroquias romanas. En este sentido son semejantes a los senadores de los EEUU.

Hay distintos tipos o "niveles" de cardenales. Los cardenales obispos son los obispos con diócesis en Roma. Este grupo incluye también a los patriarcas de las Iglesias orientales católicas. Los cardenales presbíteros tienen diócesis fuera de Roma pero son titulares de una parroquia romana. Los cardenales diáconos trabajan en la Curia (la corte papal) a tiempo completo.

Sólo el papa puede elegir cardenales entre los obispos, presbíteros o diáconos, pero deben ser primero consagrados como obispos. En una ceremonia especial, el nuevo cardenal recibe un solideo escarlata, un sombrero de ala ancha y un anillo que simboliza su unión con Roma. Los cardenales visten de escarlata para simbolizar su dedicación a la difusión de la fe, hasta el punto de derramar su propia sangre si fuera necesario.
