THE WIND AND THE SEA

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.

ST. JOSEPH IS PATRON SAINT OF FATHER'S DAY

“If a person cannot find anyone to teach him how to pray, let him take this glorious saint for his guide, and he will not lose his way.” — St. Teresa of Avila referring to St. Joseph

St. Joseph, husband of Mary and earthly father of Jesus, is the model of fatherhood. His faith and obedience to God inspired his devotion for his family. As we prepare to celebrate Father's Day on Sunday, June 18, it might be helpful to study his example. In Five Lessons from St. Joseph, author Randy Hain points out attributes that serve as a helpful guide:

- ◆ St. Joseph was obedient.
- ◆ St. Joseph was selfless.
- ◆ St. Joseph led by example.
- ◆ St. Joseph was a worker.
- ◆ St. Joseph was a leader.

"Let's look to the inspiring example of St. Joseph, patron saint of fathers, workers and the Universal Church for his obedience, humility, selflessness, courage and the love he showed to Mary and Jesus. If we can emulate St. Joseph even a little each day, we will be that much closer to becoming the men we are called to be," Hain wrote.

St. Pope John Paul II highlighted St. Joseph to explain the Catholic understanding of fatherhood in his 1989 apostolic exhortation, Redemptoris Custos (Guardian of the Redeemer: On the Person and Mission of St. Joseph in the Life of Christ and the Church).

"Commending ourselves, then, to the protection of (St. Joseph) to whose custody God 'entrusted his greatest and most precious treasures,' let us at the same time learn from him how to be servants of the 'economy of salvation.' May St. Joseph become for all of us an exceptional teacher in the service of Christ's saving mission, a mission which is the responsibility of each and every member of the Church: husbands and wives, parents, those who live by the work of their hands or by any other kind of work, those called to the contemplative life and those called to the apostolate." (Redemptoris Custos, no. 32)

The significance of St. Joseph's presence in Jesus' life reminds us how important fathers are in our lives.

TODAY'S READINGS:

FIRST READING — The Lord said to Job: Who shut within doors the sea? And who said: Thus far shall you come but no farther! (Job 38:1, 8-11).

RESPONSORIAL PSALM — Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting (Psalm 107).

SECOND READING — Whoever is in Christ is a new creation (2 Corinthians 5:14-17).

GOSPEL — It is the smallest of all seeds, and becomes the largest of plants (Mark 4:26-34).

EL VIENTO Y EL MAR

Los que conocen bien el Lago Superior le tienen un saludable respeto, y siempre están alerta sobre sus caprichosos cambios de ánimo. Muchos barcos hundidos y muchos botes hechos astillas son testigos de lo que el lago puede hacer cuando está de mal humor.

Las lecturas de este domingo nos evocan memorias de ese lago, del poderoso río Mississippi o del océano mismo. ¿Quién, fuera de Dios, podrá controlar esas aguas poderosas, o imponerles límites, diciendo “Hasta aquí llegarás”? El lago que describe el Evangelio de hoy era un lago en el que se levantaban súbitas tormentas, en las que los vientos huracanados agitaban olas enormes.

Pero estas fuerzas tan poderosas se someten a la voluntad de Dios. Los marineros y los pescadores le tienen un saludable respeto al poder de las aguas. Pero más todavía respetan el poder del Creador del viento y del mar.

SAN JOSÉ ES MODELO PARA ESPOSOS, PAPÁS

“Quien no hallare maestro que le enseñe oración, tome este glorioso santo por maestro y no errará en el camino” — Sta. Teresa de Ávila refiriéndose a San José

San José, esposo de María y padre adoptivo de Jesús, es el modelo de la paternidad. Su fe y obediencia a Dios inspiraron su devoción por su familia. A medida que nos preparamos para celebrar el Día del Padre el 18 de junio, podría ser útil estudiar su ejemplo en “Siete deberes de un padre católico”, donde el autor Randy Hain destaca atributos que sirven como una guía útil.

- ◆ Rendirse ante Dios
- ◆ Ser un hombre de oración
- ◆ Comprende tu verdadera vocación
- ◆ Invierte tiempo en tu familia
- ◆ Sé valiente
- ◆ Practica el desapego material
- ◆ Amar a nuestras esposas

“Miremos el inspirador ejemplo de San José, Santo patrono de los padres de familia, de los trabajadores y de la Iglesia, por su obediencia, humildad, abnegación, coraje y el amor que les mostró a María y Jesús. Si podemos emular a San José, aunque sea un poco cada día, estaremos cerca de convertirnos en el hombre y padre que debemos ser” Hain escribió.

El Santo Papa Juan Pablo II destacó a San José para explicar la comprensión católica de la paternidad en su exhortación apostólica de 1989: Redemptoris Custos (Custodio del Redentor: Sobre la Figura y la Misión de San José en la Vida de Cristo y de la Iglesia).

“Encomendándonos, por tanto, a la protección de (San José) a quien Dios mismo ‘confió la custodia de sus tesoros más preciosos y más grandes’, aprendamos al mismo tiempo de él a servir a la ‘economía de la salvación’. Que San José sea para todos un maestro singular en el servir a la misión salvífica de Cristo, tarea que en la Iglesia compete a todos y a cada uno: a los esposos y a los padres, a quienes viven del trabajo de sus manos o de cualquier otro trabajo, a las personas llamadas a la vida contemplativa, así como a las llamadas al apostolado” (Redemptoris Custos, Núm. 32).

La importancia de la presencia de San José en la vida de Jesús nos recuerda cuán importante son los papás en nuestras vidas.
