All Saints

"Make yourself truly Holy that the rest is nothing"

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This was a phrase of good omen that our founder Blessed Fr. Justin M. Russolillo of the Holy Trinity, repeated to all. For holiness was not an option but a duty and a priority in each person's life. Blessed Fr. Justin frequently preached the Divine Union with the Most Holy Trinity. A union that can only be made through Universal Sanctification. May it all be for the Glory, Love and Will of the Most Holy Trinity. Human beings, especially us who have been chosen by God to know and proclaim his message of salvation, must be aware of our state of life, in which we live separated from the Glory of God, due to sin and death. We were all created to be Saints, to live like Saints, to feel like Saints. Never abandon your quest for holiness, not only personal but also of all that is part of creation. For this reason, Blessed Fr. Justin created a group of lay people dedicated to the wonderful work of working within our homes and those places where the priest or religious cannot arrive: which I call Apostles of Universal Sanctification. Hear the voice of God calling you to your original Vocation; the vocation to be Holy as he is Holy.

FATTI SANTO Become Holy!

Todos los Santos

"Hazte Santo de verdad, que el resto es nada"

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,

Esta solía ser una frase de buen augurio que prodigaba a todos nuestro Padre Fundador el Beato Justino M. Russolillo de la Santísima Trinidad. Para él la santidad no era una opción, era un deber y una prioridad en la vida de cada persona. El Beato Justino predicaba con frecuencia la Unión Divina con la Santísima Trinidad. Una unión que solo se puede realizar a través de la Santificación Universal. Que todo sea para la Gloria, Amor y Voluntad de la Santísima Trinidad. El ser humano, especialmente nosotros que hemos sido elegidos por Dios para conocer y proclamar su mensaje de salvación, debemos ser conscientes de nuestro estado de vida, en la cual vivimos separados de la Gloria de Dios, por culpa del pecado y de la muerte. Todos hemos sido creados para ser Santos, para vivir como Santos, para sentir como Santos. No abandones nunca tu búsqueda de la santidad, no solo personal sino también de todo aquello que forma parte de la creación. Por esto el Beato Justino formó un grupo de laicos dedicados a la obra maravillosa de trabajar en el seno de nuestros hogares y aquellos lugares donde el sacerdote o religioso no puede llegar: los cuales llamo Apóstoles de la Santificación Universal. Escucha la voz de Dios que te llama a tu Vocación original; la vocación a ser Santo como él es Santo.

FATTI SANTO ¡Hazte Santo!

Today we celebrate a glorious family reunion, the solemn feast that gives us a glimpse of all our brothers and sisters in Christ who have gone home to God before us. When we quiet ourselves to hear the Word of God today, we recall the mystery of our salvation. We praise the Lord who saves our loved ones who have died and who promises to have mercy on us as well. The reading from Revelation amazes us with its sweeping images of countless souls basking in God's glory. The Responsorial Psalm echoes our own longing to join those saints and look on the face of God. Saint John's letter affirms our deep desire to be with God, providing robust advice about how we may realize our hope: by living purely. The familiar words of Matthew's Beatitudes show the way to purity—and to genuine happiness, now and forever.

THE MISSION

Successful organizations live by strong mission statements. All Saints' Day reminds the Church of her mission: to know the love of God on earth in order to experience the fullness of God's happiness forever in heaven. The Church herself—and each one of us, her members—can use this celebration to give thanks and to renew our commitment to evangelization. If the heart of Jesus desires to unite all souls in heaven, then we must spend time every day actively praying for and serving God's people. In our words and actions, we can pour Christ's love into the world. We can be the light of the world, reminding everyone that this life is a foretaste of what is to come.

THE REWARD

God's enemy, Satan, does not want us to think of heaven, prepare for heaven, or long for heaven's peace. Satan wants us to forget about our connection to the Lord and live only for the glory we can find here and now. We feel that hellish pull whenever we grow tired of doing good, especially when no one appreciates or thanks us. We know the temptation to despair when we hear skeptics ridicule believers, especially if we can't point to convincing evidence that God provides for us that there is a life after this one. These shaky, uncomfortable experiences may come to us once in a while, or they may take root in our hearts and burden us for years. This is precisely why we must celebrate All Saints' Day with hearty gladness, because every single blessed soul in heaven is praying for us. The Communion of Saints is real, and the strength that Jesus sends to us through their prayers makes an actual difference in our lives. Just as we pray for one another here on earth, our big brothers and sisters in Christ continue to pray for us, inviting us to know and share the love of God.

OUR HOPE AND GOD'S PROMISE

The Church uses these waning November days and darker skies as the season to remind us of the last things. Today's feast, the Solemnity of All Saints, is the centerpiece of three days that point to doctrines we proclaim each time we say the Apostles' Creed: "We believe in the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting." And while the days and our hearts may be dark, the readings today are bright with the light of faith. John's vision in the book of Revelation reveals dazzling angels and white-robed saints gathered in triumph around the throne of God. In the responsorial psalm we sing our longing to see God's face, and in the second reading John writes that we are God's children and will, in fact, see God "as he is" (1 John 3:2). This is our hope. This is God's promise. Today we celebrate the triumph of those who already gaze on the face of God. Tomorrow we cry out for mercy with those in purgatory, who, like us on earth, still long to see God's face.

TODAY'S READINGS:

FIRST READING – John's vision of a vast throng from every nation and people, whose robes had been made white in the blood of the Lamb (Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14).

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face (Psalm 24).

SECOND READING – By God's love, we may be called God's children (1 John 3:1-3).

GOSPEL – The Beatitudes: your reward will be great in heaven (Matthew 5:1-12a).

Hoy celebramos una gloriosa reunión familiar, la fiesta solemne que nos permite vislumbrar a todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo que se han ido a casa con Dios antes que nosotros. Cuando nos aquietamos para escuchar la Palabra de Dios hoy, recordamos el misterio de nuestra salvación. Alabamos al Señor que salva a nuestros seres queridos que han muerto y que también promete tener misericordia de nosotros. La lectura de Apocalipsis nos asombra con sus amplias imágenes de innumerables almas disfrutando de la gloria de Dios. El Salmo Responsorial se hace eco de nuestro propio anhelo de unirnos a esos santos y mirar el rostro de Dios. La carta de San Juan afirma nuestro profundo deseo de estar con Dios, brindando consejos sólidos sobre cómo podemos realizar nuestra esperanza: viviendo con pureza. Las conocidas palabras de las Bienaventuranzas de Mateo muestran el camino a la pureza y a la felicidad genuina, ahora y para siempre.

LA MISIÓN

Las organizaciones exitosas se mantienen con firmes declaraciones de su misión. El Día de Todos los Santos refresca la memoria a la Iglesia de su misión: conocer el amor de Dios en la tierra para experimentar la plenitud de la felicidad de Dios para siempre en el cielo. La Iglesia misma y cada uno de nosotros, sus miembros, puede aprovechar esta celebración para dar gracias y renovar nuestro compromiso con la evangelización. Si el corazón de Jesús desea unir a todas las almas en el cielo, entonces debemos dedicar tiempo seriamente orando por y sirviendo al pueblo de Dios. En nuestras palabras y acciones podemos derramar el amor de Cristo en el mundo. Podemos ser la luz del mundo recordando a todos que esta vida es un anticipo de lo que está por venir.

LA RECOMPENSA

El enemigo de Dios, Satanás, no quiere que pensemos en el cielo, que nos preparemos para el cielo o que anhelemos la paz celestial. Satanás quiere que nos olvidemos de nuestra relación con el Señor y vivamos sólo para la gloria que podemos encontrar aquí y ahora. Sentimos esa atracción infernal cada vez que nos cansamos de hacer el bien, especialmente cuando nadie nos aprecia o nos lo agradece. Sabemos de la tentación de la desesperación cuando escuchamos a los escépticos ridiculizar a los creyentes, especialmente si no podemos señalar pruebas convincentes de que Dios nos ofrece una vida después de esta. De vez en cuando podemos tener estas experiencias débiles e incomodas o pueden enraizarse en nuestros corazones y mortificarnos por años. Esto es precisamente por lo que debemos celebrar el Día de Todos los Santos con abundante alegría, porque cada alma bendita en el cielo está rezando por nosotros. La Comunión de los Santos es de verdad y la fuerza que Jesús nos envía a través de sus oraciones hace una diferencia verdadera en nuestras vidas. Así como oramos unos por otros aquí en la tierra, nuestros hermanos y hermanas mayores en Cristo continúan orando por nosotros, invitándonos a conocer y compartir el amor de Dios.

NUESTRA ESPERANZA Y LA PROMESA DE DIOS

La Iglesia usa estos días que se acortan y los cielos oscuros como el tiempo para recordarnos las postrimerías de la vida. La fiesta de hoy, la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos, es el centro de tres días que nos presentan las doctrinas que proclamamos cada vez que rezamos el Credo de los Apóstoles: "Creemos en la Iglesia católica, la comunión de los santos, el perdón de los pecados, la resurrección de los muertos y la vida perdurable". Y mientras que los días y nuestro corazón parezcan oscuros, las lecturas de hoy están llenas de la luz de la fe. La visión de Juan en el libro del Apocalipsis revela ángeles resplandecientes y santos con túnicas blancas reunidos triunfanteamente alrededor del trono de Dios. En el salmo responsorial cantamos sobre nuestro anhelo de ver el rostro de Dios, y en la segunda lectura, Juan escribe que somos hijos de Dios y que veremos a Dios "tal como es". Esa es nuestra esperanza. Esa es la promesa de Dios. Hoy celebramos el triunfo de aquellos que ya contemplan el rostro de Dios. Mañana clamamos para que Dios tenga misericordia de los que están en el purgatorio, quienes, al igual que los que estamos todavía en la tierra, anhelan contemplar el rostro de Dios.

LECTURAS DE HOY:

PRIMERA LECTURA – Visión de Juan de una muchedumbre de todos los pueblos cuyas vestiduras habían sido blancleadas con la sangre del Cordero (Apocalipsis 7:2-4, 9-14).

SALMO RESPONSORIAL – Señor, este es el pueblo que espera ver tu rostro (Salmo 24 [23]).

SEGUNDA LECTURA – Por el amor de Dios podemos ser llamados hijos tuyos (1 Juan 3:1-3).

EVANGELIO – Las Bienaventuranzas: Su recompensa será grande en el cielo (Mateo 5:1-12a).
