Actions have consequences. As children, we were often told that if we would do something, then we would receive a present or a reward. If we didn't, it might result in a punishment. Geometry also uses the "If-Then Statement." That is what our scriptures are like this Sunday. In each reading, there is a suggested action on our part, which will result in a desired outcome. There is a feminine personification of God as Wisdom, Psalm 63 and the intimate thirsting for God, the letter to the Thessalonians on believing in Christ, and Matthew's parable of the wise and foolish virgins. In the world of instant everything, we are not good about being patient, and our follow-through can be terrible. But each reading in its own way promises us that if we diligently seek God, we will be blessed and rewarded, and that it is worth the work and the wait!

KEEP YOUR LAMPS

In the old spiritual, "Keep Your Lamps Trimmed and Burning" we hear the imperative to wait and be ready, and while there are many variations, it usually ends "The world is nearly done." "The time is drawing near." or "The day is dawning nigh." The liturgical year is near its end, and we begin to feel that tension of "already but not yet" as the readings become more eschatological (about the end-times) in nature. We are called to wait patiently. Yet, like the wise and foolish virgins, we run the risk of falling asleep, and or running out of oil. Waiting for God, preparing for God, requires much hope, much preparation and discipline, and at times it is counter-intuitive. We must put aside impatience or the desire for immediate gratification and keep the end in sight. In running terms, it is not a sprint, but a marathon.

TRIMMED AND BURNING

So how do we do this? Whether we are sitting in the pew or one of those involved more intimately in liturgical ministry, this is a call for spiritual self-maintenance. None of our scriptures today is passive. Seeking and waiting for God requires work. Presence and participation in the liturgy are among the easiest and most natural ways to provide fuel for our spiritual lamps. But like a car, we need to do more than just put in gasoline. There are other needs to attend to for upkeep. Just read the opportunities in this bulletin! Perhaps you may want to attend a parish scripture class or find a spiritual book to read. Sign up online to receive the daily readings or some sort of daily reflection. Find a spiritual podcast to listen to on your commute home from work or turn off the news and music and drive in morning silence. Share simple, regular prayer times as a family such as at meals and bedtime. Experience the sacrament of Reconciliation. Or maybe you do too much, and the call is to let go of something. Do not become burned out or lose heart. Take courage and remember, "The day is drawing nigh!" Amen.

TODAY'S READINGS:

FIRST READING – Wisdom is easily discerned by those who love her (Wisdom 6:12-16).

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God (Psalm 63).

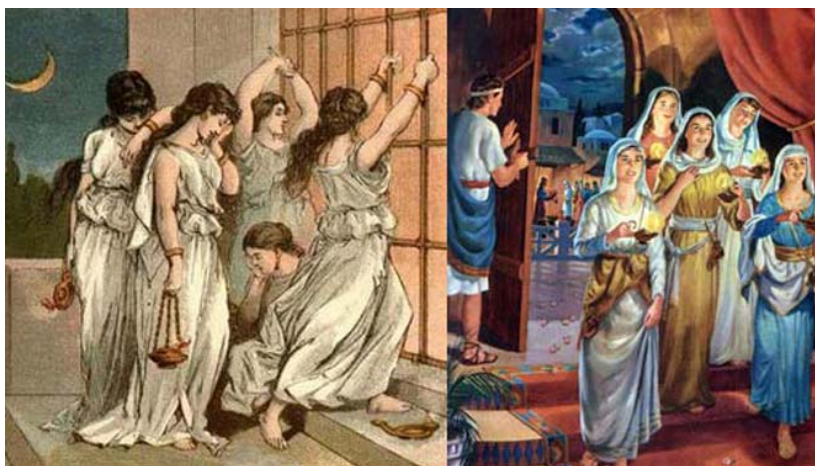

SECOND READING – Since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 [13-14]).

GOSPEL – Stay awake! You know neither the day nor the hour (Matthew 25:1-13).

Las acciones tienen consecuencias. Cuando éramos niños, a menudo se nos decía que si hacíamos algo, recibiríamos un regalo o una recompensa. Si no lo hicimos, podría resultar en un castigo. Geometry también usa la "Declaración Si-Entonces". Así son nuestras escrituras este domingo. En cada lectura, hay una acción sugerida de nuestra parte, que dará como resultado el resultado deseado. Hay una personificación femenina de Dios como Sabiduría, el Salmo 63 y la sed íntima de Dios, la carta a los Tesalonicenses sobre la fe en Cristo y la parábola de Mateo de las vírgenes prudentes y necias. En el mundo del instantáneo todo, no somos buenos con la paciencia y nuestro seguimiento puede ser terrible. Pero cada lectura, a su manera, nos promete que si buscamos a Dios diligentemente, seremos bendecidos y recompensados, ¡y que vale la pena el trabajo y la espera!

GUARDA TUS LÁMPARAS

En la antigua frase "mantén las mechas ajustadas y encendidas de tu lámpara", escuchamos de manera urgente esperar y estar listos, y aunque hay otras formas de decir esa frase, por lo general concluye así: "el mundo está por terminar", "el tiempo se acerca" o "el amanecer del día se aproxima". El fin del año litúrgico casi está por terminar y empezamos a sentir el nerviosismo de "ya pero todavía no" a medida que las lecturas se vuelven más escatológicas (sobre el fin de los tiempos) en su esencia. Se nos llama a esperar pacientemente. Sin embargo, como las vírgenes sabias e imprudentes, corremos el riesgo de quedarnos dormidos o de quedarnos sin aceite. Esperar a Dios, prepararse para Dios, requiere mucha esperanza, mucha preparación y disciplina, y a veces es en contra del sentido común. Debemos dejar a un lado la impaciencia o el deseo de satisfacción inmediata y tener el final a la vista. En términos de una competencia de carreras, no es una carrera corta, sino un maratón.

AJUSTADA Y ENCENDIDA

Entonces, ¿cómo hacemos esto? Ya sea que estemos sentados en las bancas o seamos alguien que participa activamente en alguno de los apostolados o ministerios litúrgicos, esto es un llamado al auto mantenimiento espiritual. Ninguna de nuestras Escrituras de hoy es pasiva. Buscar y esperar a Dios requiere trabajo. La presencia y participación en la liturgia son una de las formas más fáciles y naturales de proporcionar combustible a nuestras lámparas espirituales. Pero al igual que en el automóvil, necesitamos hacer algo más que poner gasolina. Hay otras necesidades que atender para el mantenimiento. ¡Lea este boletín y encontrará algunas oportunidades! Tal vez quieras asistir a una clase de Biblia o buscar y leer un libro espiritual. Inscríbete a algún sitio en Internet para recibir diariamente una reflexión o las lecturas del día. Busca un podcast espiritual para que lo escuches mientras vas de camino de regreso del trabajo a casa o maneja en silencio y apaga el radio con noticias o música. Comparte en familia momentos de oración sencillos y regulares, como en las comidas y a la hora de acostarte. Acude al Sacramento de la Reconciliación; o tal vez, haces demasiado, y la llamada es dejar de hacer algo. No te fatigues o desanimes. Ten valor y recuerda, "el día se acerca". Amén.

LECTURAS DE HOY:

PRIMERA LECTURA – La sabiduría la encuentran los que la buscan (Sabiduría 6:12-16).

SALMO RESPONSORIAL – Mi alma está sedienta de ti, oh Señor, mi Dios (Salmo 63 [62]).

SEGUNDA LECTURA – No se acongojen como los que no tienen esperanza (1 Tesalonicenses 4:13-18 [13-14]).

EVANGELIO – Las vírgenes necias no estaban preparadas para la llegada del novio (Mateo 25:1-13).
