The Secret of the Rosary by St. Louis De Montfort
Proper Dispositions: The second point is that it is not even a venial sin to fail to say the Rosary daily, weekly, or even yearly. The third point is when illness, work performed in obedience to a lawful superior, real necessity, or even involuntary forgetfulness has prevented you from saying your Rosary, you do not forfeit your share in the merits and participation in the Rosaries of other Confraternity members. So, absolutely speaking, you are not obligated to say two Rosaries the next day to make up for the one you missed through no fault of your own. If, however, illness is such that you are able to say part of your Rosary, you must say that part.

Every Tuesday at 4 PM at St. James, the Rosary will be prayed for Pro Life issues, and healing in the Catholic Church.

St. James Parish News: Many thanks to all those parishioners who provided meals, snacks and donations for the Totus Tuus program participants. A special thanks to St. Joseph's Indian School for providing housing for the team members all week and to Mike Schulte and McDonalds for also providing meals and snacks.

St. Margaret's Parish would like to thank all the parishioners who provided meals, snacks and donations for the Totus Tuus program. A special thanks to the host families; Jamie & Audrey Konechne and Tim & Nancy Heath for housing the Totus Tuus team members.

Junior High discipleship camp will be held July 11-14. The High School camps will be held June 24-27 and July 7-10 at the Broom Tree Youth and Family Camp. The July 7-10 session is wait listed. The other camps still have spots open. Visit sfcatholic.org/youth for information, registration, etc.

ATTENTION ADULTS & YOUTH: CDA Court St. Patrick would like to offer financial assistance to parishioners interested in attending Catholic camps or retreats. Examples include D-Camp June 24-27, July 7-10 & 11-14 at Broom Tree, Confirmation Retreats June 15 in Mitchell & June 22 in Sioux Falls, Devoted Retreat Oct 11-13, Youth Conference Nov. 9 in Brookings, and Beloved-A Women's Conference June 15 in Sioux Falls. Don't let money deter you from growing in your faith. Call or text Cindy Lutter, Regent at 605-680-0380 if you're interested.

PENTECOST SUNDAY
June 9, 2019

Dear brothers and sisters of St. Margaret's and St. James Parishes:

Our Mother Church invites us today to reflect on the meaning of Pentecost. This mystery constitutes the baptism of the Church, it is an event that gave the Church the initial shape and thrust of its mission. This shape and thrust are always valid, always timely, and they are renewed through the actions of the liturgy, especially.

This morning I want to invite you to reflect on an essential aspect of the mystery of Pentecost, which maintains all its importance in our own day as well. Pentecost is the feast of human unity, understanding and sharing. We can all see how in our world, despite us being closer to one another through developments in communications, with geographical distances seeming to disappear – understanding and sharing among people is often superficial and difficult.

The account of Pentecost in the Acts of the Apostles, which we heard in the first reading, is set against a background that contains one of the last great frescoes of the Old Testament: the ancient story of the construction of the Tower of Babel. But what is Babel? It is the description of a kingdom in which people have concentrated so much power they think they no longer need to depend on a God who is far away. They believe they are so powerful they can build their own way to heaven in order to open the gates and put themselves in God's place. But it's precisely at this moment that something strange and unusual happens. While they are working to build the tower, they suddenly realize they are working against one another. While trying to be like God, they run the risk of not even being human – because they've lost an essential element of being human: the ability to agree, to understand one another and to work together.

Let's go back to the initial question: can unity and harmony really exist? How?

The answer lies in Sacred Scripture: unity can only exist as a gift of God's Spirit, which will give us a new heart and a new tongue, a new ability to communicate. This is what happened at Pentecost. On that morning, fifty days after Easter, a powerful wind blew over Jerusalem and the flame of the Holy Spirit descended on the gathered disciples. It came to rest upon the head of each of them and ignited in them a divine fire, a fire of love, capable of transforming things. Their fear disappeared, their hearts were filled with new strength, their tongues were loosened and they began to speak freely, in such a way that everyone could understand the news that Jesus Christ had died and was risen. On Pentecost, where there was division and incomprehension, unity and understanding were born.

The contrast between Babel and Pentecost returns in the second reading, where the Apostle Paul says: "Walk according to the Spirit and you will not be brought to satisfy the desires of the flesh". St Paul tells us that our personal life is marked by interior conflict and division, between impulses that come from the flesh and those that come from the Spirit: and we cannot follow all of them.

Dear friends, we must live according to the Spirit of unity and truth, and this is why we must pray for the Spirit to enlighten and guide us to overcome the temptation to follow our own truths, and to welcome the truth of Christ transmitted in the Church. Luke's account of Pentecost tells us that, before rising to heaven, Jesus asked the Apostles to stay together and to prepare themselves to receive the Holy Spirit. And they gathered together in prayer with Mary in the Upper Room and awaited the promised event.

Like when it was born, today the Church still gathers with Mary and prays: Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love!"

[reflection based on the preaching of J.P. II & Bennect XVI]

Happy Pentecost,
Fr. Andrew
