31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

The US Catholic Bishops and Serra Club have asked us to observe Sunday, October 30 as Priesthood Sunday. We would like to recognize Father Parrott and all of our priests with a special reception in St. Felix Auditorium after 9:30 Mass. Coffee and rolls will be served. Please join us to show our appreciation for the many things our Pastor does for St. Felix Church, School and St. Agnes. Everyone is welcome.

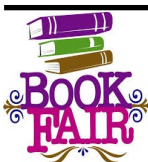

"This firm resolution to become a saint is extremely pleasing to Me. I bless your efforts and will give you opportunities to sanctify yourself...With great trust, immerse yourself completely in My Mercy."

Diary of Divine Mercy by St. Faustina, #1361

We are very much in need of Prayer Partners for many more Confirmation and second grade students. You are asked to pray for them on their journey, and some partners choose to give a small religious gift. If you are interested in a specific youth, or are willing to pray for any child on the list, please contact Ryan Langr at the Faith Formation Office. (rlangr@hbcj.com, 565-3718).

It's time for our Annual Scholastic Book Fair! This is a great opportunity to purchase new books for Christmas and birthday gifts for your family and friends. All purchases benefit the St. Felix Catholic School Library and it is the only fundraiser for library books and supplies. Help to build classroom libraries by donating through the Classroom Wish List program. Each student will also be making wish lists.

The book fair will be open the following dates and times:

Tuesday	November 1 ~ 8 a.m. - 3 p.m.
Wednesday	November 2 ~ 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.
Thursday	November 3 ~ 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. & 6 p.m. - 7 p.m.
Friday	November 4 ~ 9 a.m. - 11 a.m.

The book fair is located in the St. Felix Auditorium. Due to the bathroom construction, please use the side doors for entry. Hope to see you there!

Pilgrimage Opportunity! On Nov. 4, the daughter of St. Gianna Molla will be at the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in LaCrosse. Parishioners are invited to join the St. Felix students on the bus trip to the Shrine for Mass and a talk by Dr. Gianna Emanuela. The bus will leave the school promptly at 9 a.m. and return around 3:30 p.m. Please bring a sack lunch and drink as well as comfortable shoes. Space is limited, please call the school office at 565-4446 to reserve your spot today!

Marriage Anniversary Mass Certificates are now available!

If you attended the special Mass with Bishop Quinn on September 25, your certificate is in the back of church in the folder along with the photos. Please take the time to pick up your certificate.
~Thank you.

The 2017 Church Calendars are now available in the back of church. Thank you Jim Abbott for once again sponsoring the printing and distribution of this great resource to have in our homes every year.

The Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, Winona, invites you to attend the inaugural Cor Jesu this Friday, Nov 4, from 7-9 pm. The evening will include Adoration, with solemn exposition and Benediction, confessions, music, and fellowship. All are welcome to attend - invite your family and friends! For more details, search Winona Cor Jesu on Facebook, go to winonacorjesu.gitlab.io, or call Leandra Hubka at (507) 990-3402 or Steven Lehn at (507) 312-9041.

During the month of November we are called to pray and make sacrifices for the Holy Souls in Purgatory. For this purpose there is a special Book of Remembrance placed in the sanctuary at every church. This book contains the names of those who died in our parishes during the past year. You are invited to write in the book the names of your other family members and friends who have died. We will pray for all the souls inscribed in the Book of Remembrance throughout the month of November.

Fourth Grade

Happy November from Grade 4! Coming up, the upper grades at St. Felix have the opportunity to see the daughter of a Saint! Saint Gianna Beretta Molla was a well-known Italian doctor. With three medical degrees and three small children, she had a lot on her hands after World War II! She became pregnant a fourth time, but discovered she had uterine cancer. Although her peers recommended surgeries that could injure or kill the baby, she refused any sort of treatment for herself, telling them to choose the baby's life over her own. St. Gianna passed away a week after the birth of healthy little Gianna Emanuela, who is coming to La Crosse this week. Gianna Emanuela was able to bring up the gifts at Mass for her own mother's canonization in 2004! We are very excited to hear what she has to say!

In 4th grade, we also get to write letters to pen pals at St. Elizabeth's! Neither the students nor the recipients at the nursing home know who they are writing to because each has a code name. At the end of the year, we will finally get to meet the recipients of our letters! We are anxiously awaiting the next response from our buddies!

Grade 4 is a time for a lot of hands-on learning. We made flip books about the Midwest in Social Studies. We made a giant Venn diagram on the floor and have used shapes to represent landforms and the water cycle. There is a miniature cactus family that lives in our room, where the students explore plant growth, a magnifying glass, and predicting outcomes. We learned several ways to multiply large numbers and will be transitioning into division. The students also should be able to name their family members in Spanish and introduce them. We cannot wait to see what the second quarter holds for 4th grade!

Are you looking for ways to learn about the faith and practice it at home? Consider the 4 following sites for lots of family-friendly videos, crafts, and books about the faith!

Catholic Icing: CatholicIcing.com is run by a homeschooling Catholic mom who has a lot of great ideas for "in-home faith formation". In particular, she offers a great pre-school curriculum, as well as dozens of great craft ideas for different liturgical seasons, holy days, and the rosary. She's blogging less now and has put her kids in school, but her abundant archive of ideas is sure to add some great family faith time into your home life.

Holy Heroes: HolyHeroes.com offers a variety of CDs, DVDs, books, and activities for the whole family to enjoy. They specialize in producing cartoon versions of our Catholic heroes—telling the stories of great catholic saints like Pope Saint John Paul II and Saint Mother Theresa in a fun and entertaining format for kids. They also do a weekly reflection on the Sunday readings made and narrated by kids. It's something your younger children are sure to enjoy.

Peanut Butter and Grace:

www.Gracewatch.media is a Catholic micro-publisher based in Winona, MN, specializing in family home catechesis. They offer a great variety of bibles, children's books, coloring books, and catechetical materials all focused on promoting the Catholic faith. They also have a weekly blog (pbgrace.com) which highlights various crafts, activities, and prayers to help supplement your child's catechesis at home.

Formed.org: Our parishes subscribe to Formed.org, a huge catechetical and formational database produced by the Augustine Institute. The website includes series such as Bishop Robert Barron's Catholicism, Symbolon, and Breaking Open the Word. There are also movies about saints and a wide variety of subjects including faith and science. Every member has access to this library of learning. If you are interested, please contact Ryan Langr for the parish code (rlangr@hbc.com, 565-3718).
