Fifth Sunday of Lent
Sunday, March 29, 2020

"Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?'" ~John 11:40

Stewardship
RECOGNIZING GOD'S GIFTS &
GIVING BACK IN GRATITUDE

Many of us say that we believe in God. We go to church on Sunday. We volunteer for events at our parish. But when life gets hard, the pressure is on, when things aren't going our way, do we really believe, do we put our trust in the Lord?

When we live a life of gratitude, being thankful for the gifts we have been given, we really do see that God is providing all that we need. It opens our hearts to see God's active presence in our daily lives.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration for the Week

We face death every day. Whether it comes with the actual death of someone we love (or someone we don't even know), a failed relationship, the loss of a job, a broken dream, or pondering our own mortality, death is always around us. What does death say to us? What we believe about our death experiences is going to say volumes about how we live our lives.

Jesus comes to us today just as he did many years ago to people who were struggling with loss and death and wondering what to do. He calls us out of our tombs, where we have been closed up in fear and despair, and shouts, "Come out!" Jesus leads us out of death and gives us hope. There is always hope. There is always transformation. Although we may not always see where the road of life is taking us or see God's presence with us on our journey, we will be brought to a new place and be given new life.

Walk with God and listen to Him call you. Tomorrow, there awaits another surprise.

The Week Ahead

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Even though we say that we believe, there is a part of us that doesn't. There are many times in our lives when we experience death, whether it be the physical death of someone we love, a failed relationship, the loss of a job, or a broken dream. As we are going through these death experiences, we can easily find ourselves reaching out to God to make it better and fix it! We think that the proper order of life is to maintain the things of this world, especially those things that are essential to our sense of well-being and security. We do not like change. The grieving that comes from our death experiences can keep us stuck and in despair. If we have lost something or someone of great value, the very meaning and essence of life is lost with them. We need gentle companions to lift us from despair and that is precisely who God desires to be in our life as well.

God calls us out of our tombs, where we have been closed up in fear and despair, and shouts, "Come out!" He desperately wants to show us the path to hope and the new life that is possible after loss and death. But our faith can be weak, and we still prefer to cling to the memory of what we had rather than the joyful possibilities of tomorrow. We sometimes live as if God is not real and that the transformative power of His resurrected presence is a story found in the Bible rather than a narrative unfolding in our lives.

God is the God of surprises, not our demise. God opens new possibilities, begins new chapters, creates new verses, and brings us to new heights! We spend so much time and energy ruminating over what we left behind yesterday that we are far too tired to see what can unfold tomorrow. Loving someone new doesn't negate our past loves. Embracing the love of a person, God, or life itself tomorrow doesn't diminish the love of yesterday. Each of our loves is different and one cannot be replaced by another. They don't cancel each other out. God truly has tended to every detail of our lives and if we listen to each detail, we find that they all lead us back to Him. Jesus wants us to come out of our closed-up tombs. Are we going to listen this time?

5th Sunday of Lent

Are you asleep? Today Jesus is called to the grave of a dear friend who had died. Martha cries out that if Jesus were closer, her brother Lazarus would not have died.

Remember from the First Sunday in Lent that death and sin are connected and that life is seen as living a faith-filled life? That is what is happening in this Gospel. Living as a disciple of Christ can give us the ability for a life everlasting in the presence of God.

What in our lives needs to be uncovered, as Lazarus is unwrapped of his burial clothes and returned to live with his loved ones?

As we move closer to Easter Sunday, let us ask God to unwrap or unbind that which needs to be healed so that we may live a life that is pleasing to God.

Health and Safety Measures for Pastoral Life

Diocese of Paterson by Mandate of the Bishop

As cases of coronavirus increase exponentially, it is a moral imperative for all people to do what is humanly possible to prevent the spread of the illness. Large gatherings of people have rapidly become a health risk. The following provisions for the Diocese of Paterson are effective immediately.

- All public Masses are hereby suspended in the Diocese of Paterson until further notice.
- The Welcome Home to Healing initiative of Monday night confessions, is suspended.
- The celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation is suspended.
- The celebrations of First Penance and First Holy Communion are to be deferred in all parishes until further notice.

For the complete and full statement from the Diocese of Paterson as issued by Bishop Arthur J. Serratelli on Monday, March 16, 2020, please visit the St. Matthew's website: www.stmatthewsrandolph.org.

Lenten Abstinence & Fasting Guidelines & Reflections

Abstinence from meat is to be observed by all Catholics 14 years and older on all Fridays during Lent. Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics who are 18 years of age but not yet 59. Those who are bound on by this may fast from one full meal. Two smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid food between meals is not permitted.

Lent calls us to be with Jesus. Making Jesus our focus and placing ourselves in His Presence will bring us closer to live as resurrected Christians at Easter. Choose these forty days to live with Christ who was nourished by prayer and fasting and lived in communion with God.

Marthas & Marys

Loving People Who Drive Us Crazy
Saturday, April 4, 2020

'You shall love your neighbor as yourself' ~ Matthew 22:39

How do we love people who are different from us, who don't like us, or may even want to do us harm? As Catholics, we know this is what God commands us to do-to love everyone -but as humans we know this is not always easy.

Using 1 Corinthians 13, The Way to Love, as a guide during this Lenten season, we will explore what we are called to do and how we can live up to God's calling.

Join us for the next Marthas & Marys on April 4, 202 at 8:00 am in Bauer Hall as Cindy Crecca will help us explore how to love those who drive us crazy.

Marthas & Marys is a women's social group united in faith supporting one another to find the courage to allow God to satisfy our spiritual hunger and to guide our hearts and lives. Join us for a time of community, reflection, discussion and fun. No assignments to complete or homework. Just time with other women. All women are welcome.

St. Virgil Community Theater Presents GODSPELL Friday & Saturday, April 3 & 4, 2020

Let us help lift your spirits this Easter season, GODSPELL is a fast paced, uplifting, hilarious and ultimately heartwarming musical retelling of the parables of St. Matthew with a little contemporary twist. With comedy, and an eclectic blend of music ranging in style (from folk, rock & gospel), a small group of people help Jesus Christ tell different parables by using a wide variety of games, storytelling techniques, and a hefty dose of comic timing, the show is an emotional rollercoaster, including not only the aforementioned lightheadedness, but following Jesus into the Last Supper and his Crucifixion. Jesus's messages of kindness, tolerance, and love come vibrantly to life. Boasting a score with chart topping songs, a book conceived and originally directed by a visionary playwright (John-Michael Tebelak), and a feature film.

Join us for three public performances at the St. Virgil School cabaret Auditorium, 238 Speedwell Avenue, Morris Plains. Showtimes are April 3 at 7:00 pm and April 4 at 2:00 pm AND 7:00 pm. Advance tickets are $10 for the general public, students, and seniors. For reservations or further information, contact the Box Office at (973) 895-2725.
