ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Corpus Christi (Body and Blood of Christ) is a Eucharistic solemnity, or better, the solemn commemoration of the institution of that sacrament. It is, moreover, the Church's official act of homage and gratitude to Christ, who by instituting the Holy Eucharist gave to the Church her greatest treasure. Holy Thursday, assuredly, marks the anniversary of the institution, but the commemoration of the Lord's passion that very night suppresses the rejoicing proper to the occasion. Today's observance, therefore, accents the joyous aspect of Holy Thursday.

Where the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ is not observed as a holy day, it is assigned to the Sunday after Trinity Sunday.

For Catholics, the word "sacrament" might convey a sense of ritual and religious experience. But for those not familiar with the Church, the idea of a sacrament can be puzzling. What is a sacrament? How do the Sacraments work? Do I really need all of this ritual? Can't I just have a simple relationship with God? This YDISCIPLE course addresses these questions and investigates how Jesus acts in the world through the liturgy of his Church, and seven very meaningful actions of this liturgy are the sacraments.

JOHN THE BAPTIST

Jesus called John the greatest of all those who had preceded him: "I tell you, among those born of women, no one is greater than John..." But John would have agreed completely with what Jesus added: "Yet the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he" (Luke 7:28). John spent his time in the desert, an ascetic. He began to announce the coming of the kingdom and to call everyone to a fundamental reformation of life.

His purpose was to prepare the way for Jesus. His baptism, he said, was for repentance. But One would come who would baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire. John is not worthy even to carry his sandals. His attitude toward Jesus was: "He must increase; I must decrease" (John 3:30).

John was humbled to find among the crowd of sinners who came to be baptized the one whom he already knew to be the Messiah. "I need to be baptized by you" (Matthew 3:14b). But Jesus insisted, "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness" (Matthew 3:15b).

Jesus, true and humble human as well as eternal God, was eager to do what was required of any good Jew. John thus publicly entered the community of those awaiting the Messiah. But making himself part of that community, he made it truly messianic.

Answer for the Question of the Week

C. is correct. The serpent told Eve that if she eats of the tree in the middle of the garden, her eyes "will be opened" and she "will be like God, knowing good and evil". Eve saw that the fruit was "to be desired to make one wise"—which is something she wanted—so "she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, and he ate" (Gen 3:5—6). The two of them wanted to gain wisdom, wanted to know good and evil, and wanted to be like God. They were ambitious, out of pride, so this is the right answer.

NEWS FROM THE UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS

The USCCB has launched a new website (usccbprevention.org) highlighting the importance of prevention, protection and accountability in response to the ongoing effort to eradicate clergy sexual abuse. This new site serves as a resource detailing the steps the American bishops are taking to confront this crisis.

On the site, Readers can browse through the layers of the Holy Father's Motu Proprio, the 2002 Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and its progress, as well as the new reforms discussed at the Spring General Assembly of Bishops held in Baltimore.

There are also numerous readily available resources to address any instance of clergy sexual abuse.

OUR MOTHER OF OUTREACH SERVICES

If today you hear His voice, harden not your hearts.

Hebrews 3:15

Today we celebrate Corpus Christi, when Christ gave us Holy Communion. This great gift is a cornerstone of our Catholic Faith. By receiving Christ in the form of bread and wine, our spirit is refreshed during our earthly life.

When people are struggling with hunger and financial stress, they are not as focused on their spiritual needs. Our volunteers try to help them see the love of God by providing them with food, a listening ear, and sometimes financial assistance. Would you be able to volunteer for our ministry?

School is out now for summer vacation and many children may be hungry since they aren't receiving a free lunch at school. During the summer pantries, charities, and soup kitchens become busier in this area due to lack of employment or underemployment. Supplies become low with the diminished number of donors. We are called to serve by dispensing food and administering assistance when we can. Thank you for your donations and prayers. Our pantry is an equal opportunity provider, and there is a high demand throughout the year but especially in the upcoming months.

Thank you for your donations and prayers.

Father in heaven, I thank you for the many blessings you shower upon me. I am humbled by your gifts. Help me be your instrument for peace, your servant to the poor, your example of justice. Open my ears to your words. Open my eyes to those in greatest need. Open my mouth to proclaim your message of love, tolerance, and joy. Amen

WHO WAS FATHER MICHAEL MCGIVNEY?

The Founder of the Knights of Columbus was Father Michael J. McGivney, a Catholic priest who was declared Venerable (one step below Saint) by Pope Benedict XVI In 2008 and whose cause is under consideration by the Vatican's Congregation for the Causes of Saints.

The son of Irish immigrants parents who came to America during the famine of the 1840's, he was born in Connecticut and grew up at the time when anti-Catholic prejudice greatly limited social and employment opportunities in the United States. From an early age, he wanted to become a priest. He was ordained in 1878 and his first assignment was at St. Mary's Catholic Church in New Haven, Connecticut.

It was at St. Mary's Church in early 1882 that he gathered together a group of layman from his parish and formed the Knights of Columbus. He had two goals for his new group. One was to provide assistance to widows and children when a family breadwinner died. He also provided Catholic men with a fraternal association that would grow them closer to their Catholic faith and one another. Father McGivney was an idealist. He was a man whose youthful vision and creativity expanded and matured even as physical well being diminished. There are now thousands of Knights of Columbus Councils throughout the world supporting charities and donating millions of dollars.

Locally, Council 13300 in fiscal year 2018 donated over $38,000, supporting 21 + charities. They provided thousands of hours volunteering for a multiple of charitable causes. They also provide services to our parish as ushers, lay ministers, altar servers, musicians, choir, working at the Soup Kitchen, Food Pantry as drivers, Knights on Bikes, etc. If you are interested in continuing Father's McGivney's vision and legacy, contact Grand Knight Mario Acevedo at (352) 750-1350.

What is Mission Cooperation?

Bishop John Noonan, in collaboration with the global Church and the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops (USCCB), supports our global brothers and sisters throughout the world. "Care for the least of our brothers and sisters" (Matt: 25:35-40), solidarity that reaches out and touches the lives of those less fortunate and tangible financial support (direct and indirect) for the work of missionaries throughout the world is provided by the generosity (time, talent and treasury) of the people of the Diocese of Orlando.

The Missionary Cooperative Program of the Pontifical Mission Society gives us the opportunity to truly be part of the Universal Catholic Church.
