ADULT FAITH FORMATION

THE UPPER ROOM

Scripture says that Mary and the disciples were gathered together in the Upper Room when the Holy Spirit descended upon them. It is the same room where the Last Supper was held (a belief held by scholars since the fourth century), and where the risen Christ appeared to the apostles.

Where was that Upper Room?

Also known as the Cenacle (which means "dining room"), Scripture scholars believe it was the second floor of a synagogue located on Mount Zion (a Byzantine church was later constructed on its remains). During the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A.D., the room was spared any damage and soon became known as the Church of the Apostles. That church was later torn down and replaced by a new church in 382, which itself was destroyed nearly 300 years later when the Persians invaded Jerusalem. Crusaders built the present church in the 12th century. The structure retains portions of the original walls. The first floor of the Cenacle is also believed to contain King David's burial place.

For Catholics, the word "sacrament" might convey a sense of ritual and religious experience. But for those not familiar with the Church, the idea of a sacrament can be puzzling. What is a sacrament? How do the Sacraments work? Do I really need all of this ritual? Can't I just have a simple relationship with God? This YDISCIPLE course addresses these questions and investigates how Jesus acts in the world through the liturgy of his Church, and seven very meaningful actions of this liturgy are the sacraments.

PENTECOST

Pentecost is called the birthday of the Church. We should have a great big cake with lots of candles today, because it is always a happy birthday. Christians are optimists, and the Spirit is the reason for our optimism because the Spirit makes good things happen even when we cannot:

The Holy Spirit came upon a young peasant girl in Nazareth, and she became the mother of God.

The Holy Spirit came upon a small undistinguished group of people who followed Jesus, and they became the Church.

The Holy Spirit comes upon bread and wine, and they become the body and blood of Jesus Christ.

The Holy Spirit comes upon those who are baptized and confirmed, and they become daughters and sons of God.

Mary summed up our optimism after the Spirit came upon her. She didn't say, "See what great things I do." She said, "God who is mighty has done great things for me."

No matter what is done to me, no matter how helpless and hopeless I feel, the Spirit can always make good things happen, even when I cannot.

"God who is mighty has done great things for me!"

Answer for the Question of the Week

B is correct

Yes. It was more like a safe-deposit box, made of gold-plated wood and measuring two and a half cubits in length and one and a half cubits in width and height. (A cubit is the length from the elbow to the tip of the outstretched middle finger, about eighteen inches.)

PARISH HAPPENINGS

To the Parishioners of St. Vincent de Paul,

There comes a time when one must look at their ministry and what they are contributing to their parish community. As time marches on, I believe that we become less and less effective due to aging and its effects on us.

Over the past 30 years I have had the opportunity to minister at several wonderful parishes; lately here at St. Vincent de Paul and before that at two parishes in Minnesota in the Arch Diocese of Minneapolis and St. Paul as well as my home parish at St. Anne in the Diocese of Joliet, IL. During that time I have had many wonderful experiences ministering to the people of those parishes. During all this time there was also a feeling that I was missing something in my first and most important ministry, the Sacrament of Marriage.

Since having reached the status of Senior Deacon, 2 years ago, I have been praying to discern just how much longer I should continue in the ministry of Permanent Deacon. Recently I had the opportunity to attend Mass with my wife and mother-in-law and it was then that my prayers were answered. I was touched by a feeling of peace and completeness and I realized that this was the answer to my prayers. I know that it is now time for me to step aside from the ministry of Permanent Deacon so as to once again have the time to worship with my wife, as a couple.

I want to thank you so much for giving me the opportunity to assist here over these past 4 years.

Respectfully yours in Christ,

Deacon Richard Stevens

PARISH HAPPENINGS

OUR MOTHER OF OUTREACH SERVICES

"Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth."

Christ said, "The Spirit will guide you to the truth." Today during Pentecost, we ask the Holy Spirit to come into our hearts, heal our wounds, renew our strength, and guide our souls to salvation. According to St. Paul the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, gentleness, kindness, faithfulness, meekness, and self-control.

Many people that we may encounter practice these gifts in their lives. They have joy because they pray and give time and donations to those in need, as well as offering up their time. When donating food, giving to the poor and volunteering our time to a charity, are we not practicing generosity and kindness?

Those who serve in ministry at SVdP Mother of Mercy Food Pantry do a fantastic job by being patient and kind when working with the less fortunate in our community. They receive the gifts of joy and peace when they assist those in need of a kind word, prayer, food, or financial assistance.

During the summer months, our office and pantry becomes very busy. When many residents are away, people with reduced hours or layoffs, have a difficult time keeping food on the table after rent, electricity, car repairs, and medicine are paid. Children experience hunger when there isn't enough food in the home for their meals or snacks. Without a subsidized school lunch, children may less energy and motivation.

Our pantry provides food to people who are in need, no matter what creed. Thank you for your support and prayers for our clients as well as our those that assist in our ministry.
