ADULT FAITH FORMATION

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The responsorial Psalm follows the silence after the first reading. Occasionally this is taken from other parts of the Scripture, but ordinarily it is from the Book of Psalms in the Old Testament. It is designed in the form of a dialogue. The cantor sings the antiphon and all repeat it. The verses are sung by the cantor, and after each verse, the antiphon is sung again by the assembly. Occasionally, for lack of a cantor, the psalm is recited instead of sung. However, the responsorial psalm should be sung.

Cardinal Arinze, the greatly esteemed African churchman and head of the Vatican congregation for worship and sacraments, elucidates the Church's faith in the Eucharist as the high point of her public worship and the source and summit of Christian life.

In Celebrating the Holy Eucharist, Cardinal Arinze emphasizes that the priest is ordained, first and foremost, to celebrate the Sacrifice of the Mass and other liturgical rites. The priest "finds himself at the highest moment of his vocation when 'in persona Christi' he celebrates the Eucharistic Sacrifice."

St. Benedict

It is unfortunate that no contemporary biography was written of a man who has exercised the greatest influence on monasticism in the West. Benedict was born of a distinguished family in central Italy, studied at Rome, and, early in life, was drawn to the monastic life. At first he became a hermit, leaving a depressing world—with pagan armies on the march, the Church torn by schism, people suffering from war, and morality at a low ebb.

Some monks chose him as their leader for a while, but found his strictness not to their taste. Still, the shift from hermit to community life had begun for him. He had an idea of gathering various families of monks into one "grand monastery" to give them the benefit of unity, fraternity, permanent worship in one house. Finally he began to build what was to become one of the most famous monasteries in the world—Monte Cassino, commanding three narrow valleys running toward the mountains north of Naples.

In the course of the Middle Ages, all monasticism in the West was brought under the Rule of St. Benedict. Today the Benedictine family is represented by two branches: the Benedictine Federation and the Cistercians.

The Youth Group will return in September. Please have a fun, safe and blessed summer. Please call the Faith Formation Office (352) 643-7017 to register for 2019/2020.

ANSWER FOR THE QUESTION OF THE WEEK

D is correct.

Because the main consequence of the Immaculate Conception is that Mary was able to live a sinless life. (She could have sinned, had she so chosen, but she chose not to; Adam and Eve could have chosen not to sin, but they chose to sin.)

WHY DO WE FINGERPRINT EVERY 5 YEARS?

In order to participate in our ministries, there is a requirement for Safety Training as well as fingerprinting. Many people have wondered why is it necessary to renew their fingerprints every five years.

The answer is that the FBI and the other agencies involved do not store the fingerprints that are sent to them for routine background records checks. The FBI will only keep fingerprints of people who have been arrested or work in certain high-security or highly sensitive areas.

The retention time of fingerprint records after background checks is only 5 years. Therefore, it is necessary for fingerprinting to be renewed for the continued protection of others and to keep a high level of diligence from the Parish.

We truly appreciate your cooperation!

PARISH HAPPENINGS

OUR MOTHER OF OUTREACH SERVICES

*The Lord bless you and keep you! The Lord let His face shine upon you, and be gracious to you!
The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace!*

During the summer, our services are usually needed more by people in need around our community. Often, cooks, waitstaff, barbers, and clerks may be impacted by less hours during the summer. Rent, electric bills, and medical expenses consume a larger portion of the family budget. This means there is less for food.

Children are home during the summer and more food is needed in the home. Your donations in the summer are appreciated by clients and volunteers. That box of cereal, macaroni and cheese, and pancake mix might be the thing that keeps a child from being hungry.

Jesus commands us to love thy neighbor. St. Vincent de Paul, St. Mother Teresa, Dorothy Day and Deacon Richard Radford certainly gave hope for the hopeless and served the poor. They are role models for all of us.

Thank you for your continuing support and prayers.

*Whatsoever you do to the least of my people,
That you do unto Me.*

*When I was hungry, you gave me to eat;
When I was thirsty, you gave me to drink;
When on a sickbed, you cared for my needs.*

MISSION COOPERATION THE FIJI ISLANDS

Catholic Missionary Guest Speaker Helena Moniz

We welcome Helena Moniz on Saturday, July 13 and Sunday July 14 who will update all that the Catholic Mission has accomplished in Fiji as well as future plans. She is looking forward to sharing the good news about life in Missionary work.

The Mission in Fiji is responsible for many projects and community assistance:

- Assisting with 2 nursery school buildings
- Assisting with the construction of 2 houses for teachers
- Assistance with hurricane recovery funding
- Construction of a church in Naselesele
- Assistance with Maintenance work on the village church in Queleni

The Second Vatican Council in the Decree on the Church's Missionary Activity, Ad Gentes Divinitus states: "Since the whole Church is missionary, and the work of evangelization the fundamental task of the people of God, this sacred Synod invites all to undertake a profound interior renewal so that being vitally conscious of their responsibility for the spread of the Gospel they might play their part in missionary work among the nations" (no. 35).

This universal mandate to do missionary work is taken up directly by men and women, including clergy, religious and laity, serving as missionaries. However, other world missionary work does not exhaust the possibilities of missionary participation of all the people of God, and all baptized Catholics are called to support the missions as part of the body of Christ.

Tax Planning Qualified Charitable Distributions

If you are 70-1/2 or older, you may direct a contribution be made directly from your IRA Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) to a qualified charitable organization. You will be able to exclude that amount from the taxable portion of your IRA distribution without requiring you to itemize using charitable donations as an expense. Consult your IRA Administrator and/or financial advisor for details. Please include your name and designated fund for proper allocation.

Stock Gifts

If you have questions regarding stock gifts, please contact Susan Hunt at (407) 246-4803 or email her at shunt@cfocf.org. Just a reminder that in order to take full advantage of the tax laws surrounding the gifting of appreciated securities, the shares must be held by you for at least one (1) year. You must let Susan Hunt know the parish that is to be the beneficiary, and the fund that the proceeds should benefit: (offertory, Capital Campaign, Our Catholic Appeal). No handling fee is to be charged.
